FRENCH IN PANIC RUSH TO HOARD FOOD AND WATER

New Premier Fights Revolt Menace.

BY EDMOND TAYLOR.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
(Pictures on back page.)

PARIS, June 4.—The first Socialist government in the history of the Third republic has been in power since 9 o'clock tonight and its head, Leon Blum, already has something pretty close to a revolution on his hands.

In the lobby of the chamber of deputies a Nationalist deputy told Socialist colleagues: "If your Blum does not succeed in stopping the strikes within the next 48 hours he will be swept out of power by the communists before he has even begun to apply his program." And no one contradicted him.

The industrial life of the nation is paralyzed, with several hundred factories in the hands of several hundred thousand striking workers and their movement gaining momentum throughout most of the country's industries every hour. Organization of the new government seems only to have intensified the movement, which rapidly is assuming the nature of a general strike.

Queues Form at Groceries.

In the capital panic stricken householders formed lines outside groceries and meat markets, hoarding food supplies against an anticipated shortage. Some of them even filled pails and bath tubs with drinking water.

The strike of truck drivers already has deprived markets of most fish and fresh vegetable supplies.

All big Paris newspapers except the Socialist and communist organs have suspended publication because truck drivers refuse to distribute the papers.

New gravity was added to the already tense situation when representatives of the metallurgical industry employers, who have been trying to negotiate a settlement under auspices of the labor ministry, bolted the conference. They declared it was impossible to discuss terms with the workers while the factories are illegally and forcibly occupied.

Accuse Employers of Sabotage.

The metallurgical workers' union replied with an angry statement accusing employers of sabotage, and as a protest gesture 35,000 employés at the Renault automotive factories, who last week resumed work after obtaining satisfaction on their demands, struck again tonight and seized the factory.

Bourgeois elements in the capital are convinced that a Red revolution already is under way and the Socialists themselves are alarmed at the wildfire spread of the strike fever.

That Blum himself realizes the danger was clear tonight when, after presenting his new government to President Albert Lebrun at Elysee palace, he rushed to the ministry of interior. He conferred there with the outgoing premier and interior minister, Albert Sarraut; Roger Salengro, minister of interior; J. B. Lebas, minister of labor; Louis Frossard, former labor minister.

Call Police Parley.

As the result of this conference Salengro and Lebas entered office at once. Their predecessors preferred not to wait until tomorrow for the official transmission of powers. Salengro immediately convoked the heads of the Surete Generale, or secret service, and the Paris police for an emergency parley.

The unprecedented extension of the strike has authorities jumpy. One straw showing how the wind is blowing is the canceling of the big races scheduled at the Maisons-Laffite track tomorrow because of the difficulty of "adequate policing." All police apparently are needed elsewhere.

In a final showdown, however, it is believed Blum would prefer to resign than to use force against striking workmen. To calm the agitation he is counting more on the radio appeal he will make at noon tomorrow. He will doubtless urge all workers to evacuate factories, promising that the chamber will vote without delay legislation satisfying all the principal demands of workers—a 40 hour week, collective labor contracts, the right

HONEST BALLOT LAW GOES INTO EFFECT JULY 1

Senate Passes Bill; Governor to Sign.

BY STANLEY ARMSTRONG.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Springfield, Ill., June 4.—[Special.] —Voters in Chicago, a few of its suburbs, and nine downstate cities will cast their ballots in November under a system of signature protected permanent registration which virtually became a law today on its adoption by the Illinois senate.

The vote in the senate, taken after several hours of warm political and technical debate, was 34 to 14, eight more than required to make the plan effective after July 1. It was taken on the two bills that already had been passed by the house. The only remaining hurdle before these measures become law is Gov. Henry Horner.

Horner Claims Credit.

The governor lost no time in getting out a statement that he would "take great pleasure in signing" them. No credit was given by him to the Republicans, who made passage of the bills possible. His only words in this respect were: "The administration forces, aided by other members of the legislature, have won this great fight."

Thus, the clean elections system, originally sponsored by the Republicans, will go into effect soon for over one-half of the voting population in Illinois. It would have been enacted a year ago if the Republicans had had their way, but Democrats, including Gov. Horner, according to charges from the floor, decided in caucus to kill the plan in the 1935 regular session.

May Change System Now.

But with the assurance that he will sign, election officials in the cities affected can start immediately to change registration methods over to the new system, which has been characterized as leading to honest elections. Included besides Chicago are Peoria, Aurora, Galesburg, Bloomington, Danville, Springfield, East St. Louis, Rockford, and Cairo, cities that have election boards. Other cities can come under this system by referenda or can discard it by the same method.

Permanent registration, for which various civic organizations, led by the Illinois League of Women Voters, have fought, means in brief that those wishing to vote must register by signing their names on duplicate cards. When asking for a ballot on election day the voter must write his name and the signature will be compared with that on one of the cards sent to the polling place for this purpose.

Persons who cannot write must make marks and give identification datum, which they will be required to repeat on election day before receiving ballots. It is this provision that has been protested by opponents, who claim that illiterate persons will be ashamed to reveal their inability to write before their neighbors in the precinct polling places.

Calls Horner Insincere.

The fight today over the measure was stamped with hot words and phrases that seared the political flesh of Mr. Horner. He was accused by Senator Harold G. Ward [Dem., Chicago] not only of being "insincere" in his stand for honest elections, but in other actions since he became governor in January, 1933.

Ward led off the battle with a motion to bring the key measure back to second reading so he could offer amendments applying the system to all cities over 5,000 population. In that form the bills, he said, would supported by Cook county Democrats, who want them to take in other districts in the state where election fraud is proportionately as rampant as it has been charged to be in Chicago.

Before Ward's motion was denied, Senator George M. Maypole [Dem., Chicago], who was absent yesterday because of illness, was permitted to speak on the whole subject. Arguments by Maypole and Ward against adoption virtually were the sole ones made, the proponents contenting themselves with announcements that provisions of the bills, up today for

JURYMEN CONVINCED MR. PAZDYKA SELLS A1 GRADE OF BEANS

The story of a 7 cent can of beans that brought on a $1,000 lawsuit was told in the Municipal court of Judge Edgar A. Jonas yesterday.

Mrs. Rose Kulik, 36 years old, 5308 George street, said she purchased the beans last Oct. 15 from Edward Pazdyka, 22 years old, a grocer at 5400 Schubert avenue. On Nov. 1 Mrs. Kulik and her husband, Edward, gave what they termed a pork and bean party in their home. This was not much of a success, according to the housewife, because the guests smelled the beans and said they were spoiled.

The Kuliks were so miffed that they abandoned the party and went to call on Pazdyka. He sniffed the beans and pronounced them excellent. After that, one word just brought on another and words brought on blows. There is much dispute who was the aggressor, but Mrs. Kulik averred that her fur coat, her person and her peace of mind had been irreparably injured. So she sued Pazdyka for the $1,000.

After hearing both sides a six man jury held that no damages should be assessed against him. The beans were not produced at the trial. Pazdyka claimed that he ate them himself to make sure the Kuliks and their guests were wrong about their quality.

LLOYD CANBY JR. FOUND SHOT TO DEATH IN HOME

Lloyd Canby Jr., 16 years old, high school athlete, was found shot to death late last night in his room at his home, 344 East Hillside road, Barrington. A shotgun was found near the body. Statements made by relatives caused the police to believe that the shooting probably was accidental.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Canby Sr., parents of the youth, were asleep in the house and were aroused by the discharge of the gun. Mr. Canby ran in to find that the charge of the gun had struck his son in the head.

According to the father, the boy, who was a member of several athletic teams at the Barrington High school, was of a sunny disposition and apparently had no worries. He was an expert mechanic and was so fond of firearms that he kept several guns in his room. It was the assumption of the family that he was examining the one that killed him.

Lloyd Canby Sr. is a broker connected with Thomson & McKinnon. His father, C. H. Canby, was once president of the Board of Trade.

Judge Oscar Nelson of the Superior court declared to his fellow judges yesterday that he is determined that Bobby Arnst, a musical comedy actress, shall have her divorce from Attorney Robert Cavenaugh — even though he has to violate the rules of his court's procedure to grant it. Nelson formerly was a Democrat. He then became aldermanic leader for a former Republican mayor and only recently was put on the Republican ticket and elected judge. Also he is a delegate at large to the Republican national convention.

The divorce action was taken before Judge Nelson yesterday, about five minutes after it was filed. Usually a couple of months ensues before a hearing can be reached on these matters. Judge Nelson, after listening to brief testimony to the effect that Mr. Cavenaugh was cruel to Miss Arnst, announced that he would sign a decree for the divorce.

Dispute Over Assignment.

If he does so, it will be contrary to the wishes of Judge Walter P. Steffen, head of the Superior court's executive committee. Judge Steffen has the sole power of assigning divorce cases to judges other than Joseph Sabath and Rudolph Desort, who compose the divorce division.

"I shall not sign an order giving that case to Judge Nelson," said Judge Steffen.

He refused to elaborate on his reasons for this.

"I said I would sign the decree and I shall sign it, just as soon as it is presented to me," said Judge Nelson.

Usual Procedure Differs.

Judge Sabath explained the customary procedure.

"The cases come to me as they are filed," he said, "and my system is to divide them half and half. Then I toss up a nickel and see whether Judge Desort gets the first half or the last half. If there are more cases than we can handle, the rule is to have Judge Steffen assign those which are of an emergency nature to judges sitting in the law branch of the court."

He added that he supposed the Cavenaugh divorce would be handed to him for assignment this morning, but he declined to state what disposition would be made of it.

When the case was taken into Judge Nelson's court his clerk, Dan Wilkenson, said he would get an order from Judge Steffen for the hearing by this judge. A case then being heard was interrupted and the Arnst-Cavenaugh hearing held.

Judge Desort recalled that a divorce decree he signed while sitting in the Criminal court had been voided by the Appellate court, although he had heard the testimony while sitting as divorce judge. This case, it was said, might furnish a precedent for the voiding of the Cavenaugh decree, although this could happen only if one of the parties appealed.

Cavenaugh did not contest the suit, however, and his wife, who was formerly married to Johnny Weissmuller, swimming and movie star, was said to have received a settlement.

Move to Unite Nation Against 'Aggressors'

HONGKONG, June 5 (Friday). —(AP)—An independent declaration of war against Japan was issued today by the Canton (south) Chinese government.

The Kuomintang (Nationalist party) Southwest Executive committee and Southwest Political council ordered troops to march northward to resist "Japanese aggression."

The declaration was considered an attempt to force a united Chinese front against Japan by a coalition of the Canton and Nanking (north) governments.

The war declaration ordered the troops to be called the "anti-Japanese salvation army."

Jurors Acquit Razor Slayer of Young Loeb

BY SEYMOUR KORMAN.

After less than an hour's deliberation a jury in the Will county Circuit court at Joliet brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon acquitting James Day, 21 years old, of the razor murder of his fellow convict, Richard Loeb, 30 years old, in a shower room of the Stateville penitentiary last Jan. 28.

Day, who was sentenced to 1 to 10 years on his conviction for larceny in Chicago in 1933, is technically eligible for parole on that charge and hopes to win his freedom before the state parole board next month. Loeb was serving sentences of 99 years and of life for the "thrill murder" of Bobby Franks.

The not guilty verdict was read in Judge Wilson's courtroom at 4:26 o'clock in the afternoon—exactly one hour after the jurors retired to deliberate. At 4:19—53 minutes after they left the court—the jury informed the judge's bailif, Leham Kelly, that they had arrived at a verdict.

Assemble for the Climax.

There was a seven minute delay while Day was brought from the Will county jail, where he was quartered during the trial, and the attorneys gathered.

As the foreman of the jury, Joseph Schwab, of Joliet, a welder, read the pronouncement there was a blare of drums and horns from a parade in Joliet's main street, just outside the quaint old graystone courthouse. The city is celebrating the Will county centennial and the noise of a parading band carried to the jurors' ears while they deliberated in their room on the second floor.

Day, a short, stocky youth, remained calm—as he did throughout the trial—until after the verdict was read. Then he beamed and tears came to his eyes.

Spectators Applaud Finding.

There was a burst of handclapping from spectators in the crowded courtroom, who were impressed by Day's testimony Wednesday that he fought Loeb only to protect himself from improper advances.

"What can I tell you?" Day said to newspaper men who surrounded him. "I am tickled to death. I want to thank my lawyers for the fine way they handled the case. Each juryman has my undying gratitude. I did only what any normal man might have done under the circumstances in that bathroom."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Brookes, of 3722 School street, Day's uncle and aunt, embraced him. They, his closest relatives, financed his defense. Then he posed for photographs with his attorneys, Emmet F. Byrne and Harold Levy of Chicago and Stewart Hutchison of Joliet.

Judge Offers His Aid.

Judge Wilson summoned Day before the bench.

"When you appear before the parole board," the judge said, "I will be more than glad to do anything I can for you."

LANDON'S FOES HUNT FOR WAY TO STOP DRIVE

Lowden Sends Farm Plank to Parley.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Cleveland, O., June 4.—[Special.]—With Gov. Alf Landon of Kansas continuing today his apparently triumphal progress toward the Republican nomination for President, questions affecting the platform to be adopted next week forged to the fore.

It became increasingly apparent that while the east is disposed to accept planks on agriculture and on social security advanced by the western liberals it will insist on framing the tarif and monetary resolutions. Over these there is room for a spectacular battle in the Republican national convention.

Lowden Frames Farm Plank.

The midwestern leaders are going into the resolutions committee with a farm plank framed by former Gov. Frank Lowden of Illinois, an outstanding authority on farm relief. They said that Lowden had drafted the plank and dispatched it today by airmail to Harrison E. Spangler, Iowa national committeeman.

Mr. Spangler, discussing the farm plank generally, said among other things that the Wisconsin dairy interests and northwestern farmers and lumber interests as well as northeastern producers have suffered from the competition resulting from the reciprocal trade treaty with Canada. He thought the Republican platform should demand repeal of this and other of the trade agreements detrimental to farmers.

Will Let West Act.

"The sentiment of delegates who have already arrived," said Mr. Spangler, "indicates they are willing to have the people of the western states frame the agricultural plank for the Republican platform. It seems certain that among other important planks to be written into the resolutions will be a provision insuring for the American farmer the preservation of the domestic market and protection from competition with foreign produce which has been flooding our country under the New Deal program."

While Gov. Landon was forging ahead his opponents were running around in circles trying to organize his defeat.

Mainly they were "passing the buck" to each other to get out in front and start the bombardment of the Kansas favorite's position. None of them appeared to have any stomach for the rôle.

Hoover Starts the Ball.

The buck passing came to light in connection with the disclosure of the plans of former President Hoover, who is to attend the convention on its second day and is to deliver an address to the party conclave. Now, Mr. Hoover is one of those who regards Gov. London as lacking in qualifications and vulnerable to attack on the score of his relations with oil interests and altogether more objectionable than any other contender for the nomination except possibly Senator Borah, for whom the former President entertains the greatest aversion.

The invitation to Mr. Hoover to address the convention has been viewed by the Landon managers with suspicion and misgivings from the start. To them it looked a lot like a maneuver to implement the long heralded project to "stop Landon." Mr. Hoover, it was suspected, was being brought to Cleveland to make a speech designed to turn the convention and direct the choice eventually to Mr. Hoover himself or to Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg of Michigan, a preference for whom has been expressed by the former President.

Friends Insist: "Not So."

According to the friends of Mr. Hoover now on the scene, however, he will make no mention of Gov. Landon or any other candidate in his address nor will he initiate even indirectly the attack on Landon that the other anti-Landon leaders hoped he would undertake. But, whispered the Hoover lieutenants, they know enough wickedness involving Landon to blow his candidacy sky high and they are willing to furnish the information to any of the anti-Landon leaders who cares to make use of it. Just what the information is they mysteriously decline to reveal.

The damaging evidence, it was said, would be offered to Senator William E. Borah, who is to arrive in Cleveland Monday to make a last stand against the nomination of the Kansas governor. The senator is known to regard the Landon record as an oil operator as rather unsavory. For some time those who commonly reflect the views of the lion of Idaho have been saying that exposure of the Landon record would ruin the governor politically. So, much as they despise Borah and much as they would have the country distrust anything he says, the Hooverites are hopeful that the senator will accept their "ammunition" and open fire with it.

Borah May Not Favor It.

There is a good deal of reason to believe, however, that Senator Borah has no hankering for the undertaking. The position of the senator is understood to be that it would avail him nothing to blow Landon out of the water and then get a nominee no more acceptable to him than the Kansas governor. This attitude, of course, betrays a feeling on the part of Senator Borah that even with Landon out of the way the convention would be unlikely to name any one wholly acceptable to him.

Frank Knox, the Chicago publisher, and Senator L. J. Dickinson of Iowa Mr. Borah looks upon with as much if not more aversion than he does Landon, and there are reasons to believe he is not so favorable to Senator Vandenberg as he was a while ago. The Borah faith in Vandenberg may have been shaken by the attitude of the farm organization leaders who have turned thumbs down on the Michigan senator because he is opposed to inflation and cheap money generally.

Knox Barkises Are Willin'.

The Knox managers are reeking with good will for any operations that will stop Landon—so long as they are undertaken by somebody else. While Mr. Knox exudes friendly feelings for his Kansas rival, his managers are coöperating actively with the Hooverites and such old guard bosses as have survived the tidal wave of Landon sentiment—coöperating in efforts to halt what seems to be the inevitable. So the Knox lieutenants, refusing to touch off the charges against Landon themselves, are reposing high hopes in Borah. Carl Bachman, Borah's manager, says he will do the job if Borah doesn't.

By way of a beginning Bachman issued a statement in which he accused Gov. Landon of being a New Dealer.

"Assuming," he said, "that our platform will make these anti-New Deal issues paramount, it becomes my solemn duty as a member of the Republican party and a delegate to the convention, to call attention to the statements made and positions taken by Gov. Landon with reference to the New Deal up to the time he became an active candidate for the presidential nomination.

"Oral and Written" Backer.

"From the citations I am about to give, it is apparent that up to a few months ago Gov. Landon supported the New Deal orally and in writing, praised and complimented President Roosevelt on its constructive character, and in the name of Kansas expressed deep thankfulness for the abundance of money that flowed into the coffers of that state from the federal government. These declarations include public addresses and a letter of gratitude from Gov. Landon to President Roosevelt himself."

In the support of his charges, Bachman quoted Gov. Landon as saying in a speech in November, 1935, to the unemployed: "I am confident that the President and the WPA are doing all in their power to get the people to work."

Quotes 1934 Radio Speech.

In a radio address on Aug. 4, 1934, Gov. Landon, according to Bachman, said:

"In working out this plan the federal government will be offering Kansas not only temporary relief, but something of great permanent value." In the same address the governor was quoted "relief authorities are now launching a huge water conservation program that will be of immeasurable aid to stricken farmers now requiring aid, as well as tremendous value in the future."

On May 21, 1934, Gov. Landon said, according to Bachman, that "It would be good business, in my opinion, for Kansas to borrow every dollar it can get under the PWA." Then on May 13, 1934, the governor was quoted as saying that "We will take all the money we can get from the federal government."

Finally Bachman quoted a letter to President Roosevelt, April 17, 1934, in which Gov. Landon said that "This civil works program is one of the soundest, most constructive policies of your administration and I cannot urge too strongly its continuance."

"The foregoing excerpts," said Bachman, "may explain the significant silence on the part of Gov. Landon as to his views and policies. But it seems inconceivable for the Republican party to write a platform suitable to Republicans and Jeffersonian Democrats and then nominate an avowed friend of the New Deal to run upon it.

"Our convention must be ruled not by ballyhoo and steam roller tactics, but by the logic of the situation and a realization of the imminent danger to our American institutions. The foremost question confronting the Republican party today is, not who can be nominated, but who can be elected."

The advance representatives of Mr. Hoover arrived in Cleveland this morning. They were Lawrence Richey, his eastern agent, and Walter F. Hope, who was an assistant secretary of the treasury in the Hoover administration. They repaired at once to the home of J. R. Nutt, former treasurer of the Republican national committee.

After a discussion of the plans it was stated that Mr. Hoover will reach Cleveland during the forenoon of June 10. He will proceed to the headquarters of the California delegation, where he will receive friends and hold a press conference.

Will Make Address Then.

He will address the convention that afternoon or night. He will be Nutt's guest at a banquet and depart that night or the following morning before the convention proceeds to the nomination of the ticket.

The Hoover henchmen seized avidly upon the announcement by Old Guardsman J. Henry Roraback that Connecticut will plump for Landon on the first ballot. That should convince any one, they said, that Landon is the old guard candidate. According to Landon partisans the old guard has found it impossible to stem the tide of Landon sentiment and has been compelled to swim with it or be overwhelmed.

The accretion of twenty-four delegates in Indiana coming on top of the Connecticut announcement is recognized everywhere as virtually clinching the nomination of Landon. The general feeling is that only some wholly extraordinary set of circumstances could possibly intervene now to cheat the Kansan of the prize.

Massachusetts is another state which is on the verge of capitulation to Landon, it was learned tonight. Knox was supposed to have the inside track in this, his native, state. All but about five of the thirty-three delegates, however, have declared intentions of voting for Landon at the first opportunity.

Leader of Antis Beaten.

The Massachusetts national committeeman, John Richardson, affords an example of a leader who tried to stem the Landon tide. He was defeated for delegate to the convention by a Landon man.

With the nomination of Landon generally regarded a certainty, an increasing amount of attention is being given at this stage of the proceedings to the selection of the candidate for Vice President. The Landon managers are most meticulously endeavoring to divorce themselves of any suspicion of intervening in the choice of the governor's running mate for the reason that such interference would arouse antagonism detrimental to their first objective.

Eventually, of course, Gov. Landon, if nominated, will be asked to indicate his preference in the matter of a running mate and there is every reason to believe that it will be Senator Vandenberg. The Michigan senator is such an accomplished orator and so forceful and penetrating an opponent of the New Deal that his choice for second place on the ticket would insure a rousing Republican campaign.

But Not for Vandenberg.

Senator Vandenberg is represented as being emphatically opposed to acceptance of second place. He feels a good deal like Senator Borah when he was called to the White House during that other Cleveland convention in 1924 and asked by President Coolidge if he would accept a place on the ticket. "Which place?" asked Borah.

Senator Vandenberg is credited with a good deal of the effort that is being made in various quarters to smoke out Landon on various issues. Vandenberg is represented as declaring it beyond belief that the party would nominate a man of whose attitude on public questions so little is known. Where does Landon stand on monetary questions, on the Frazier-Lemke 3 billion inflation bill for which every member of the Kansas delegation in the house voted, on the Guffey coal control bill, indorsed by Senator Arthur Capper of Kansas, the governor's close friend? These are some of the questions said to have been inspired by Vandenberg. Nevertheless most of those who best know the Michigan senator believe that he will accept second place.

The Landon followers are without doubt cold to the proposition of naming Congressman James W. Wadsworth of New York for Vice President. He is a conservative who would bring no votes to the ticket it would not otherwise receive, it is contended.

BORAH CHARGES G.O.P. HEADS WITH FINANCING TAFT

Promises Legal Probe of $19,000 "Deal."

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—Senator William E. Borah, Republican presidential candidate, declared today that he was contemplating legal action against the Republican national committee on information that it diverted funds to the support of Robert A. Taft, son of the late President.

Senator Borah was overwhelmingly defeated in the Ohio primaries of May 12 by Mr. Taft, who won 47 out of 52 delegates.

The Idaho senator said he had been informed that $19,000 of the Republican national committee's funds was diverted, through the Ohio state committee, to a special primary committee supporting Mr. Taft.

Promises Legal Inquiry.

Borah's statement follows:

"It is true that I am having investigated the legal phase with reference to the misuse of funds in the campaign in Ohio by [Ed D.] Schorr and [Walter F.] Brown.

"According to the report in the secretary of state's office some $20,000 of money raised for the national campaign by the Republican national committee was used in the primary campaign.

"What I am seeking to ascertain is whether this was with the consent of the national committee or an act of embezzlement by the favorite son committee.

"One thing is certain from this report and that is there was a misuse of funds. This money which was used in the primary campaign had been solicited by the national committee to be used in the national campaign, but when they got their hands on it they diverted it to a wholly different use, which is quite characteristic."

Called Taft Race "Sham."

Senator Borah has repeatedly accused the "Old Guard" Republican leadership of Ohio as well as other states of trickery and deception. He denounced the "favorite son" race of Mr. Taft as a sham to permit the "old guard" bosses to select a candidate of their own choosing. After the primaries, he charged that the Republican leadership manipulated the colored vote of Ohio.

The Idaho senator, who opposes federal anti-lynching legislation as being unconstitutional, accused the party leaders of using the same "trickery" in efforts to influence the colored voters of Illinois and New York.

DORRANCE ESTATE PAYS 15 MILLION NEW JERSEY TAX

Trenton, N. J., June 4.—[Special.]—New Jersey will close its books for the fiscal year in the black this year, thanks to the receipt today of a check for $15,620,793 from the estate of the late Dr. John T. Dorrance, Camden soup manufacturer.

The payment represents the sum of $12,183,459.96 as the principal tax assessed against the estate which was valued in excess of 150 million dollars and $3,437,333.49 in interest, which has accumulated since the court fight over the payment started in 1931.

Only Finland Expected to Pay War Debt June 15

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Secretary Hull said today at his press conference that he had received no indication that any war debtor, with the exception of Finland, intends to make any payment to the United States on instalments due June 15. Finland is the only nation which has not defaulted. Including past due and unpaid instalments, a total of $1,160,122,766 will fall due on June 15 from European countries.

LANDON'S ADDRESS ON MONDAY NIGHT WILL BE BROADCAST

Lawrence, Kas., June 4.—(AP)—The brief address of Gov. Alf M. Landon, Republican presidential possibility, at Kansas university commencement exercises here Monday night will be broadcast over a national chain, officials of a local station were notified tonight.

The 15 minute broadcast will begin at 9 p. m. Chicago time.

FIGHT TO CONFINE PARALYSIS PERIL ON NORTH SHORE

Lake Forest and Lake Bluff health officials imposed further restrictions on movement yesterday to prevent the spread of infantile paralysis, which has stricken Philip D. Armour IV., 19 years old, and his cousin, Charles Armour, 15 years old, of the meat packing family.

The condition of both young men was reported improved yesterday. Philip, son of Philip D. Armour of Lake Bluff, is at the Passavant hospital, under the care of Dr. Eugene S. Talbot Jr. and Charles is being attended by Dr. B. N. Parmenter at the quarantined Lake Forest estate of the A. Watson Armours. Charles' mother said yesterday that her son had a light case. Both boys apparently contracted the disease at St. Mark's preparatory school in Southboro, Mass., which has been quarantined since May 20.

Dr. A. J. Rissinger, president of the Lake Forest board of health, ordered the families of three other St. Mark's pupils yesterday to remain at home—Harry Wheeler, 18 years old, and his brother, Leslie, 16, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Wheeler of 20 South Mayflower road, and George Foster, 17 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Volney Foster, 335 North Green Bay road. None has shown symptoms of the disease.

EIGHT ALDERMEN QUIT SUIT OVER DEDUCTED PAY

The names of eight aldermen were dropped by Judge Harry M. Fisher of the Circuit court yesterday from the list of aldermen and former aldermen who are suing for $201,483 deducted from their salaries from 1931 to 1935 under the city council's economy program. These eight were included as plaintifs by mistake, according to James W. Breen, attorney for the 30 other aldermen and 23 former aldermen who still are plaintifs in the suit. All 50 sitting aldermen are defendants—some of them suing themselves.

Those whose names were dropped yesterday are James J. Cusack [5th], James J. McDermott [14th], Harry E. Perry [18th], John A. Massen [48th], Frank Keenan [49th], William T. Murphy [17th], Henry Sonnenschein [22d], and Roger J. Kiley [37th].

KANSAS' LANDON DELEGATION HERE ON WAY TO OHIO

Two carloads of 100 per cent Alf Landon boosters passed through Chicago yesterday en route to the Republican national convention at Cleveland. They were delegates and rooters from Kansas, the candidate's own state, led by Will T. Beck of Holton, the state chairman.

"It might be the first ballot," said Chairman Beck, "but we are figuring on the second ballot—after the various state delegations have given their complimentary votes to their favorite sons."

COMSTOCK SEEKS ANTI-NEW DEAL DEMOCRATIC AID

Would Rally at Cleveland for Vandenberg.

Lansing, Mich., June 4.—[Special.]—Supporters of United States Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg for the Republican presidential nomination today were contemplating developments indicating that William A. Comstock, former Democratic governor, will lead a movement to consolidate anti-New Deal Democratic support behind him.

Comstock will attend the Republican convention at Cleveland, nominally only as an observer, but Republican leaders said they understood he would meet with some other prominent Democrats, estranged from the Washington administration, who would jointly pledge support to the Republican ticket if Vandenberg were chosen as the nominee.

Denounced Patronage Rebuffs.

Comstock "took a walk" from Democratic ranks several months ago after denouncing Washington dictation of federal patronage in Michigan and ignoring of the old time party wheel horses in this state by the Roosevelt administration. New Deal policies generally have been viewed askance by Comstock and many of his friends in Michigan.

According to the reports reaching the Michigan Republican leaders, the anti-New Dealers in Democratic ranks believe Vanderberg would be the strongest candidate against President Roosevelt and for that reason they would prefer to see him nominated. Comstock himself has expressed the opinion that Vandenberg is most colorful and best equipped of the potential Republican choices. He is attracted by Vandenberg's liberal views and by his forcefulness as a campaigner.

Might Attract Smith.

Comstock undoubtedly would take the stump for the right Republican candidate. He is also bitter in his enmity for Frank Murphy, high commissioner of the Philippines and former Detroit mayor, who is expected to be the leading Roosevelt campaigner in this state.

Should Comstock's move gain any momentum at Cleveland, it is believed it would attract Alfred E. Smith and other Liberty league Democratic figures who would prefer election of almost any Republican to a continuance of the Roosevelt régime. The interested Michigan Republicans are convinced that several crucial states might be swung into the Republican column through such a movement.

IGOE MAY LOSE PLATFORM POST AT CONVENTION

Primary Tactics Arouse County Organization.

BY PARKE BROWN.

Although Igoe, naming his present position as United States district attorney as his reason, declared his neutrality in the state primary battle concluded on April 14, some of the leaders accuse him of deserting the county organization and giving aid and comfort to the supporters of Gov. Horner by such methods as visiting the executive mansion and by posing before the camera with the anti-organization candidate.

Justice Jones Mentioned.

Because of this an apparently well developed opposition to giving Igoe the state's membership on the convention resolutions committee has appeared. There also is considerable talk of bringing Justice Norman L. Jones of the Illinois Supreme court forward for the honor.

As a further reason for departure from precedent this year it is recited that while Justice Jones is an elected delegate from the 20th congressional district Igoe will have only one-fourth of a vote in the convention. He is one of the 32 delegates at large named by the state convention who will divide eight votes among them.

It is argued that without full credentials Igoe could not sit as a member of the resolutions committee with the same voting right as a member with a whole vote on the convention floor. This contention, however, is considered a second thought, and the feeling against Igoe because of his conduct in the recent primary and his race against the organization in 1932 is considered the real reason for the agitation to name Justice Jones on the platform committee.

Lewis Proposes Dallman.

Another incident yesterday tended to concentrate organization opinion against Igoe. That was a suggestion from Senator James Hamilton Lewis in Washington that V. Y. Dallman, collector of internal revenue at Springfield, a Lewis appointee, be made national committeeman in place of the incumbent, P. A. Nash. Igoe owes his appointment to Lewis and Lewis shied far away from any participation in the primary, as did Igoe.

The senator's proposal of Dallman's name was declared locally to be only "throwing a paper monkey wrench into the machinery." This meant that the regular organization considered it merely a gesture that would be entirely futile as Nash already is believed absolutely certain of at least 32 votes for reëlection, a safe majority of the 58 in the delegation at Philadelphia.

Senator Lewis, in Washington, said his suggestion was based on the belief that the delegation is so closely divided that no candidate for the national committeemanship might receive a majority and that the election might be thrown into the state committee with a consequent widening of the Chicago-downstate breach.

Confident Nash Will Win.

On the other hand, the regular forces are so confident of their own strength that they say Nash not only will be elected national committeeman on the first ballot but also will be elected chairman of the delegation. The regulars do not intend to have any Horner man announcing Illinois' vote for President Roosevelt or in any other way speaking for the state from the convention floor.

Reports that Gov. Horner had given up the idea of having his own special train to Philadelphia were confirmed by an announcement that, while three special cars will be ready to load downstaters at Springfield, those cars will be hooked onto the regular organization's special train before it leaves Chicago. It is said that most of the delegates have made their reservations on the organization train.

BUS GOES 'ROUND AND 'ROUND; BUT IT'S A MISTAKE

If Jacob Stamler, 62 years old, will leave things in the hands of his bus driver, he may yet arrive in Philadelphia to attend his daughter's wedding.

Mr. Stamler, it seems, boarded his bus in Los Angeles. When he arrived in Omaha, he mistook that city for Chicago. Later, when the bus halted for a few minutes in DeKalb, he thought he was "still in Chicago" and complained to the driver, Guy Minnier of Hammond.

And so when Minnier brought his bus to a stop at the Union bus terminal and announced he was now "in Chicago," Mr. Stamler's patience was exhausted. He went to the Warren avenue police station.

"This man has been driving 'round and 'round, just like the song, for two days, and we're still in Chicago," he said.

Minnier, summoned to explain to the police, said it was all due to Mr. Stamler's misunderstanding. "The bus is headed for Philadelphia, all right," he said, "and our passenger will get there if he just stays on."

And so the bus finally bore the Californian out of the real Chicago last night, headed for Philadelphia and his daughter's wedding.

SEIZED AS CHILD'S ANNOYER.

PATIENT DEPUTY IS STILL WAITING FOR SERRITELLA

Senate Quits but He's Not Home Yet.

For more than a week State Senator Daniel A. Serritella, former Capone lieutenant, the lone senate Republican who voted yesterday against the honest election bills, has successfully evaded a summons to appear in the County court and answer a suit contesting his right to a place as delegate to the Republican national convention.

The suit, which was filed May 28 by former Assistant State's Attorney Horace M. Sharpe, is based on the allegation that Serritella was elected delegate on a fraudulent count of the votes in the First congressional district. Sharpe, who was defeated for the place by 181 votes, contends that he was counted out of 500 ballots.

Summons Still Unserved.

At first the hearing on the matter was set for last Friday. Deputy sherifs said they were unable to find Serritella and the matter was continued to Monday. Again he was unfindable and the hearing was set by County Judge Jarecki for this morning. At a late hour last night he had not been tagged and forced to accept the summons.

Mr. Sharpe suggested Monday night that if the deputies were interested in finding Serritella it might be a good idea to call at his home on the second floor at 2127 Prairie avenue. Mr. Sharpe resides on the first floor at the same address.

"He's been home today all right," declared Sharpe. "I can hear him when he moves around."

Six Calls, but No Serritella.

This suggestion was taken so seriously that Deputy Gale Parker went to the house. Six times he went, he said, but there was no Serritella present. It was suggested that the senator and delegate, who is also First ward Republican committeeman by the favor of Michael [Hinky Dink] Kenna, the Democratic boss, had been too busy working against honest election bills in Springfield to stay at home the last three days.

But Parker is made of stern stuff, and according to his chief, Assistant Sherif William Milota, was braving the stress of the June weather last night as he sat patiently in front of 2127 Prairie avenue waiting for his quarry. The general belief was that, the legislature having adjourned, Serritella might find some reason to come home.

"We did not know," said Milota, "that Sharpe and Serritella lived in the same building until we saw it in THE TRIBUNE on Tuesday. I have suggested, under the circumstances, that Mr. Sharpe and his attorneys cooperate with us. For instance, why couldn't the deputy wait in Mr. Sharpe's apartment until Serritella comes in? They agreed to confer with us on this matter at 5 p. m., but nobody showed up."

He's the Likely Winner.

Time, of course, is working for Serritella. It is doubtful, it was said yesterday, that anything could be done about halting his progress to the Republican national convention, which opens next Tuesday in Cleveland, even if a recount is ordered. He has been officially declared elected over Mr. Sharpe, and even if the latter is right in his contention there is not sufficient time to make the recount and declare a winner on what it would show.

In this light it appears that Serritella will go to Cleveland with the other delegates. The evasion of the summons, it is held, effectually squelched the appeal for a new count on the votes.

FARM GROUP MAY SUBMIT PLANK TO PARTY SESSIONS

Whether the American Farm Bureau federation will draft an agricultural plank to submit to the Republican national convention at Cleveland next week probably will be determined at the first meeting of a two day session of the directors of the organization which opens at the Hotel Sherman this morning.

"It is the regular quarterly meeting," said Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural association, a director of the farm bureau federation, "and no doubt the subject will be taken up. If a statement of the position of the federation is drawn up it will be presented to both Republican and Democratic conventions."

MAYWOOD GIRL PUPIL DECLINES TO SALUTE FLAG

Child's Religious Scruples Perplex Officials.

BY VIRGINIA GARDNER.

School authorities in Maywood and Broadview were in a quandary yesterday over what to do about Beverly Buffington, 14 years old, of 1623 South 18th street, Maywood, who at Memorial day exercises last Friday in the Roosevelt school, 1515 South 15th avenue, remained seated, her head bowed in her hands, when other pupils saluted the flag.

She and her parents, Bert Buffington, for 14 years an electrician in Maywood, and his wife, are members of a religious cult known as Jehovah's Witnesses, which teaches that no flag or other symbol, "or anything but God," shall be praised or saluted. Last fall in Lynn, Mass., a boy member of the sect was expelled from school and his father was fined when the child refused to salute the flag.

Another Pupil Tells Incident.

The Buffington girl's principal, Mrs. Mabel Hipwell, thinking the child ill, ignored the incident of last Friday. A few days later, however, she said, she received a call from Frank Besterfield of 1933 South 19th street, Broadview. He is a member of the American Legion post of Broadview, a suburb south of Maywood. He protested the girl's refusal to salute the flag, declaring her diploma should be withheld from her.

Besterfield's son, Robert, 15 years old, a member of Beverly's class, which is to be graduated next Thursday night, sat behind Beverly, according to the principal, and reported her behavior to his father.

Mrs. Hipwell told Beverly yesterday that she might have another opportunity to salute the flag with the other pupils. Beverly, with tears in her eyes, told her she could not, her conscience would not let her. Later she promised to think it over until today.

Matter Referred to Attorney.

Eugene La Rowe, district superintendent, reported the matter to L. D. Allen, president of the board of education of Cook county school district No. 89, which includes all Maywood and part of Broadview. Allen indicated at first he might call a special meeting of the board next Monday night to consider it. He asked that O. A. Ross, board attorney, be consulted.

Ross searched the statute books and found nothing empowering the board to prevent the child from graduating, Mr. La Rowe said. A law requires schools in the state to display an American flag and provide a flagpole for it to fly during school hours, he said, but it includes nothing about saluting the flag.

Since there is no law requiring the board to issue any diploma, the girl may be given a certificate entitling her to enter high school, but withhold her diploma and prevent her taking part in class exercises, it was indicated.

In Earnest About Religion.

"It is a tragic case," said Mr. La Rowe. "I talked to the Buffington girl's mother. In every other matter than her religion she seemed a normal person. She was quiet and not at all militant. But she believes deeply in this cult and said she will withstand persecution rather than forsake her beliefs."

With flushed cheeks and burning eyes Beverly, interviewed in her home after school, said:

"It would make me feel bad, of course, if they did not give me a diploma. But if you're a Witness and you get far enough in the religion, which is very deep, to understand it, you know you can't praise the flag or any other symbol, or anything but God.

"I told my principal I would think it over tonight. But if I saluted the flag, it would not mean anything. I would be a hypocrite.

Obey Laws and Keep Peace.

"We aren't harming any one as Witnesses. We believe in obeying laws, but God's laws come first. After Armageddon, the kingdom of God on earth will be here, and then every one who is not a Witness will be destroyed."

"That won't be for quite a while," she added childishly. "It's only in the last year we learned not to salute the flag and things like that. But we've been believers five years and read 'the books' every night."

The Buffingtons, it developed, have not forbidden their children—Beverly and two boys—to salute the flag because they are opposed to coercion.

"But they tell us," the girl explained, "what is right and what is wrong."

LIVINGSTON TO DIRECT YOUNG REPUBLICANS IN STATE CAMPAIGN

Unification of all organizations of the younger element of the G. O. P. in Illinois was said to have been signalized yesterday when Perry B. McCullough, chairman of the Republican state central committee, appointed Park Livingston as director of young people's activities for the fall campaign.

The appointment followed a series of conferences among representatives of Young Republican groups. Among those who participated were John T. Dempsey of the official Young Republican organization, Harold T. Halfpenny, Thomas J. Downs, and Lambert Ochsenschlager. Wayland Brooks, nominee for governor, was present part of the time.

Livingston, former assistant dean of men at the University of Illinois, was chairman of the First Voters' Organization of Illinois in 1932 and assistant director of the Young People's Republican Organization of Illinois in 1934. He is a resident of Oak Park.

Deserted After 34 Years, Ad Man Wins Divorce

Judge Rudolph Desort in Superior court yesterday directed attorneys for Oliver J. Prentice, 850 Lake Shore drive, an employé of the C. A. Dunham Advertising company, to prepare a decree divorcing Prentice from his wife, Irene, who lives in Miami. Prentice testified that his wife deserted him in 1926, after 34 years of married life.

STRAW BALLOTS SOUGHT EAGERLY BY DEMOCRATS

Landon Maintains Lead at 52 Pct.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

"Who is your choice for nomination for President?" is the one queston at which THE TRIBUNE pre-convention poll is directed. More than 41,000 straw ballots have now been compiled in the straw vote, the sole purpose of which is to ascertain before the national conventions open just what the citizens of Chicago and Illinois have in mind on the absorbing question of whom they favor for nomination by the two great parties.

The canvassers, mainly college students who at the outset were instructed to go to designated places and invite the public to cast straw ballots for the man of their choice, report the response unusually quick and interested. The collectors were instructed not to speak of any candidate by name, nor to make any suggestion as to voting other than to repeat the admonition printed on the ballot—"Vote for one only."

Follow Instructions.

The sole purpose of the straw vote is to sound popular opinion in Illinois on all candidates, active or dark horse, before the conventions meet to nominate, and reports from all quarters are that the canvassers have followed instructions and that the goal is a real cross section of how Illinois people are thinking.

The results of the poll to date are:

REPUBLICAN.

| Candidate— | Prev. reported. | Yesterday's totals. | Totals to date. | Pct. of Rep. straws. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Borah | 2,408 | 496 | 2,904 | 16.5 |
| Dickinson | 309 | 36 | 345 | 2.0 |
| Knox | 3,070 | 463 | 3,533 | 20.1 |
| Landon | 7,833 | 1,337 | 9,170 | 52.2 |
| Taft | 330 | 44 | 374 | 2.1 |
| Vandenberg | 846 | 104 | 950 | 5.4 |
| Others | 251 | 26 | 277 | 1.7 |
| | 15,047 | 2,506 | 17,553 | 100.0 |

DEMOCRAT.

| Candidate— | Prev. reported. | Yesterday's totals. | Totals to date. | Pct. of all straws. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Roosevelt | 19,507 | 4,103 | 23,610 | 57.0 |
| Others | 204 | 38 | 242 | .... |
| Grand total, straw vote | 34,758 | 6,647 | 41,405 | .... |

Forty canvassers have covered Chicago in the straw poll, while four squads each of four picked men in charge of an experienced TRIBUNE reporter, since last Saturday have been traveling up and down the highways in automobiles, gathering straws in cities and villages. They report absorbing interest in the question of who will be picked by the Republicans at Cleveland as contender against President Roosevelt. In taking the poll, they report that in many downstate communities, Democrats have, in general, been quicker to participate in the straw vote than have the Republicans.

Landon Maintains Strength.

In today's compilation of straws, there is little variation from the percentages of the vote the Republican candidates have been getting in the six days of the poll. Landon has about 52 per cent of all Republican straws compiled and Frank Knox somewhat over 20 per cent. Senator William E. Borah has 16.5 per cent.

In Danville, Vermilion county, a county which gave Borah five to one over Knox in the recent primary, Borah led in the Republican straws. In Quincy, Adams county, which Borah carried over Knox in April, Landon got more than one-half the Republican votes. Adams county in April gave President Roosevelt more than twice as many votes as Knox and Borah combined—it shows in the straws.

Anna, in Union county, in the Egyptian fruit belt, a county that went to Knox over Borah in April, gave Landon a lead in the straws. In the southern coal fields, Benton and West Frankfort in Franklin county, which favored Borah over Knox in April, gave Landon a margin in the straws.

President Roosevelt's percentage of all straws compiled to date was 57 per cent—in Chicago it was 57.7 per cent, downstate 55 per cent.

RETIRED CAPTAIN SAYS HE IS ONLY 60; DEMANDS JOB

Michael Tobin, 8420 Ingleside avenue, police captain who was retired under the new 63 year age limit last December, filed a mandamus suit in Circuit court yesterday asking that the city civil service commission be compelled to reinstate him because he can now prove he is only 60 years old. In his bill, drawn by Attorney Michael F. Ryan, Tobin states that no system of dates was kept by his parents and that he mistakenly gave his birth date as Sept. 1, 1872, when he applied for membership in the police force in 1899. In 1935, Tobin alleges, he received a certificate from the Rev. W. I. Byrne, parish priest at Lough Fouder, Knocknogoshel, County Kerry, Ireland, showing that his birth date was Sept. 1, 1875.

LANSBURY SEEKS TO BLAST ENGLISH IDEAS ABOUT U. S.

LONDON, June 4.—(AP)—George Lansbury, veteran British labor leader, sought to explode several of the Englishman's cherished ideas about Americans today when he returned from a peace lecture tour in the United States. He told a meeting of welcome:

"Americans did not ask me about the war debt, but did ask if Great Britain is prepared to make the necessary sacrifice for peace. Furthermore, I saw no sign of gangsters.

"Americans do not hustle. In fact, they are just the same kind of people as we are—quick, efficient and anxious to lead quiet, unmolested lives."

Six Days' Results of The Tribune Pre-Convention Straw Vote

More than 41,000 straw votes have now been compiled in Chicago and downstate in THE TRIBUNE poll to ascertain how citizens of Chicago and Illinois feel on the question, "Who is your choice for nomination for President?" at the national conventions in Cleveland and Philadelphia. The results are as follows:

WOULD BAR ALL ON RELIEF FROM VOTING IN FALL

Ex-Judge Seeks to Stop Vote Buying.

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Disbarment of all persons on relief from voting in the coming presidential elections was urged by Daniel F. Cohalan, former justice of the New York Supreme court, in an address tonight before the defenders of the constitution of the United States.

Judge Cohalan, one of the most influential Democrats of the state, even went so far as to advocate legislation which would prevent President Roosevelt or any person on the federal pay roll other than civil service workers from voting. He was caustic on his references to what he referred to as the administration's efforts to buy the election through relief votes in its huge federal expenditure program and submitted that—

"The remaking of America into an Asiatic absolutism, with a horde of servile wards of government in place of free and independent men, must be stopped."

Excepts Civil Service Force.

In urging legislation to deny the polls to beneficiaries of federal relief, Judge Cohalan said:

"I advocate the immediate passage of laws to insure that no votes can be cast in the coming election by any elector who has received any funds from the government within two years preceding the election—and that should cover the case of every man and woman—other than civil service forces—on the pay roll of the government from the President himself to the humblest workers among those who are on relief.

"This will be no reflection upon any one by reason of his poverty or lack of success if the rule be made universal and rigorously applied. We face a crisis and we cannot let any one starve in this country either from the breakdown of an industrial system or the incompetence and stupidity of public servants.

Relief, but No Bribery.

"But our motto should be: Millions so long as necessary for relief and assistance but not one cent for bribery or corruption."

Former Justice Cohalan was sharp in his criticism of the Roosevelt policies and suggested to the Republicans meeting at the Cleveland convention that they bear in mind that they nominate a ticket that "will be truly American rather than partisan."

"There have arisen among us strange leaders who have no faith in Americanism," he said. "These have created the constitutional issue. Where is this issue?

"It resides in the scheme to substitute for our American practice of government 'of the people, by the people, for the people' the Asiatic practice of government by privileged rulers over helpless wards."

RICHBERG ASKS BOTH PARTIES TO CONDEMN HIGH COURT 'ABUSES'

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Donald R. Richberg, former NRA chief and still a counselor to the President, today called on both political parties to condemn what he termed the Supreme court's "unconstitutional exercise of judicial power."

Richberg asserted that "the American people rapidly are being forced to answer the question whether they can preserve self-government in the face of an unprecedented exercise of power by the Supreme court."

Long insistent that the constitution, properly interpreted, will permit "necessary" legislation without amendment, Richberg reiterated this view, holding that a constitutional amendment "is no answer to the abuse of power by the court."

Sword Swallower's Gun Fuse Backfires; He Dies

Jacksonville, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—Bob Roberts, 61, sword swallower for a carnival, died today when his major trick backfired. His widow said that for 13 years he entertained crowds by swallowing a shotgun barrel and igniting a fuse that caused an explosion audible within the side-show tent. Tuesday night something went wrong and Roberts' stomach was burned.

New York Bill to Remove Illegitimacy Stigma Signed

Albany, N. Y., June 4.—[Special.]—Gov. Lehman today signed the Holley bill, designed to help remove the stigma of illegitimacy from children born out of wedlock by providing that birth certificates need not disclose the marital name or status of the mother. Provision also is made in the bill that there shall be no specific statement on the certificate as to whether or not the child was born in wedlock.

ABORTION RING LOAN RACKET IS BARED IN WEST

San Francisco, Cal., June 4.—(AP)—Arresting four persons, police asserted tonight they had uprooted one branch of a coast-wide syndicate which had financed and performed illegal operations upon women at tremendous profits.

R. L. Rankin, named by Police Captain Charles Dullea as head of the syndicate, surrendered on an abortion conspiracy charge and was released under $3,000 cash bail.

He did so after the arrest on conspiracy charges of Miss Sarah Lee, a physician's secretary; J. C. Perry, resident manager of the Medical Acceptance corporation, and Marvin Raithel, who said he was a solicitor.

Perry and Miss Lee obtained their release on $2,500 bonds each. Raithel remained in jail.

Confiscated records indicated the acceptance corporation loaned money at high interest rates to women to finance illegal operations, Dullea reported.

He said papers indicated the syndicate made a profit of $20,000 in two months after paying doctors in several cities $1,000 a month each.

Girls Born to Two Sisters at Almost Same Time

New Haven, Conn., June 4.—[Special.]—Two sisters, both residents of New Haven, gave birth to daughters at nearly the same time in Grace hospital today. Mrs. Leo Gordon, 26, became a mother thirty-one minutes sooner than her sister, Mrs. Simon Belovitz, 27.

REVEAL 40 CASES OF FIXING TAXES ON PERSONALTY

Evidence of tax fixing in at least forty 1935 personal property assessments was disclosed yesterday by County Assessor John S. Clark. He put the blame on "not more than half a dozen" clerks in the record division of his office, and declared the culprits will be discharged if they can be identified. Evidence against them, he said, would be presented to the state's attorney's office.

Largest of the forty "errors" to be discovered was one for a million dollars in the assessment of the Northwestern Yeast company, 1750 North Ashland avenue. In this case the company's property had been valued at $1,683,198, but on the tax book the first digit had been taken off, leaving the assessment $683,198.

This mistake was discovered by an auditing committee which has been working since April on 100 of the 499 personal property tax books. Acting on the recommendation of Assessor Clark the board of tax appeals corrected the "error" on May 19.

In 1934 the Northwestern Yeast company was involved unwittingly in another tax fixing case.

Just a Cipher Omitted.

In the recent investigation Assessor Clark said another error or fix was discovered in the assessment of the Thomas Harrigan company, 438 Madison street, Oak Park, which was changed by dropping a cipher to cut the assessment from $13,320 to $1,332.

Among the other companies whose assessments were changed by mistake or by a deliberate fix, the assessor said, are Rusnak Bros., Inc., 1393 Milwaukee avenue, reduced to $375 by dropping a cipher; Rusnak, Inc., 4338 Madison street, reduced to $138 by dropping a cipher; Barry Pharmacy, Inc., 3040 Broadway, assessment of $938 canceled, and the Economy Service Plan, Inc., 622 Diversey parkway, assessment of $833 canceled.

Assessor Clark ordered his chief deputy, Edward J. McCabe, to direct the investigation and to refer all cases to the board of tax appeals.

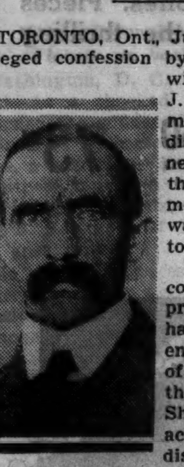
DEAD WIFE'S NOTE BARES MURDER OF RICH CANADIAN

'Confession' Read in Fight for $2,000,000 Estate.

TORONTO, Ont., June 4.—(AP)—An alleged confession by the now dead wife of Ambrose J. Small, Toronto millionaire whose disappearance has never been solved, that he was dismembered in 1919, was read in court today.



AMBROSE J. SMALL.

The purported confession was presented on behalf of Miss Florence Small, sister of the missing theater magnate. She brought an action to restrain distribution of the estate of Small's wife, entered for probate at about $2,000,000. Small disappeared in 1919 and his wife died last year.

Confession Is Read.

Miss Florence Small's attorney, Paul Hinds, read to the court this alleged confession, addressed to Small's two sisters, Florence and Gertrude:

"I feel unwell, downhearted, and lonely. I spend the most of my time in prayer and preparing my soul for a happy life with God after death.

"I received absolution from our holy father for the great sin I committed on Dec. 2, 1919, but still I feel I should not leave this world to face my eternal Father without telling you what happened to your brother.

"Poor Ambrose was killed on Dec. 2, 1919, and I know that a part of his body, the trunk, was buried in the Rosedale ravine dump, and other parts of the body were burned in the Grand Opera house furnace. You will be surprised, my dear Florence and Gertrude, to learn that I am more than any other person responsible for your brother's death. God forgive me.

Paid Hush Money, Note Says.

"I will not cause any more pain to a living soul and that is why I will not reveal the names of those who are involved in this gruesome crime; but I will tell you one thing, it cost me plenty to close their mouths.

"I am leaving the bulk of your brother's estate to those who are doing Christ's work on earth; they will always pray for the repose of our souls.

"I have told many untruths about you and Ambrose in court and I said unkind things in many unsigned letters which I have sent to you. I hope you will forgive me and your forgiveness will be pleasing to God.

"I request you in the name of Christ not to give the contents of this letter to any other person; leave the matter rest.

Says Mind Is Relieved.

"This confession, which relieves my mind of a great burden, is typed by a very dear friend of mine who will deliver it to you after my death.

"Forgive me, dear Florence and Gertrude, and pray for the repose of my soul when I pass away. God bless you."

Attorney Hinds also submitted affidavits which he said "corroborated most of the facts in the confession."

Mrs. Small's will left most of the estate to the Roman Catholic church and to charitable institutions. Executors of the estate have agreed not to distribute it pending the outcome of the present legal action.

A 17 YEAR MYSTERY.

The disappearance of Ambrose J. Small has been a mystery since Dec. 2, 1919. On that day he received a check for $1,000,000 as first payment in his sale of a string of 63 theaters. He went to the bank, deposited the check, entered Toronto's old grand opera house and vanished.

A year after Small's disappearance, his secretary, Jack Doughty, also vanished with $105,000 in bonds. Eleven months later he was captured in Oregon and brought back to Toronto. He produced the stolen bonds and was sent to prison. He admitted he stole the bonds the same day Small disappeared.

Police conducted endless investigations and imposters appeared from time to time, claiming to be Small.

In 1923 Small was declared officially dead. His widow, Theresa, inherited his estate. She offered $50,000 reward for his return alive and $15,000 for return of his body. She died Oct. 14, 1935.

Janet Towne, 7325 Princeton avenue, who entered from the University of Wisconsin. She will intern at Cook County hospital.

Jessie H. Blaszczenski, 3826 Barry avenue, who entered from the University of Illinois. She will intern at St. Joseph's hospital, Milwaukee.

45 Unclaimed Bodies Are Buried in Potter's Field

Forty-five unclaimed bodies, five of them unidentified, were taken from the county morgue yesterday to graves in the potter's field in Oak Forest. Fifteen of the bodies were those of men, fifteen were women, and the remaining fifteen were children. The body of Mrs. Madelyn Cobb, 33 years old, 907 Sheridan road, who drowned herself in the lake after serving a Bridewell sentence, was left in the morgue to await the claim of friends or relatives.

SHOT IN FIGHT; DIES.

GIRL JUMPS BUT 'CHUTE LANDS HER IN JUVENILE CELL

Mineola, N. Y., June 4.—(AP)—Winifred Ruth Bayer, 15, a high school student, made her first parachute jump today and landed in Children's Detention home after a 2,000 foot leap. The jump also took her father to jail on a charge of causing a minor to risk her life and limb in a commercial pursuit.

Winnie Ruth won't be 16 until late in July, the father, Emil, admitted. For a month she and her family have made several attempts at Winnie Ruth's leap but each time police at airports foiled them.

Today she got away from Floyd Bennett field with Sam Held, a pilot, and they proceeded over an abandoned airport.

Her father, her mother, her sister, two patrol wagons, two radio cars, 11 policemen and two captains of police were gathered to watch. Winnie Ruth leaped, opened her chute after 150 feet, and floated to a landing.

The police took her and the family away. She was carted off to the detention home giggling, "the district attorney scared me more than the parachute jump."

MALONE'S WIFE HOME; PREPARES FOR HIS RETURN

Husband Ready to Face Tax Trial, She Says.

Mrs. William H. Malone, wife of the former chairman of the Illinois tax commission, has returned from Germany to the family home at 201 Grand boulevard, Park Ridge, to make ready for the homecoming of her husband, it was learned yesterday. Malone will return within a few months, she said, ready to stand trial on a federal indictment charging $59,579 income tax evasion.

At the Malones' pretentious colonial home a workman was busy cleaning up the yard yesterday when Mrs. Malone was interviewed.

Charges Falsified, Claim.

"We always intended to come back," she said, "and Mr. Malone has now completed the task which took him to Germany. He is in good health and he confidently expects to be cleared of the charges against him. Those charges resulted from falsification."

Mrs. Malone said her husband is now in Berlin. Recently he completed settlement of a claim for $90,000 against Paul and Martin Polka, brothers, for a loan made when they operated the Pickwick motion picture theater in Park Ridge. The Polkas are the owners of a spa at Bad Kudowa, Germany.

"It has been painful to stay away from our home and friends," Mrs. Malone said, "and I never realized the value of friendship until I came back to find every one so gracious and kind. I'm sure a host of friends will come to Mr. Malone's rescue when he returns. He was always helping the under dog, even though he sacrificed his own fortune."

Depends on the Weather.

Asked about the date of her husband's return, Mrs. Malone said that would depend on the weather. Malone is made ill by hot weather, she said, and if the summer proves to be hot he may wait until autumn.

Under the drastic German law to protect that country's currency Malone will not be permitted to bring home any of the money received in settlement of his claim, except a small amount for traveling expenses. His friends here say he has lost nearly all his extensive Cook county real estate holdings through foreclosure.

REPORT NICARAGUAN PRESIDENT TO FLEE NATION TOMORROW

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, June 4.—(AP)—The newspaper La Nueva Prensa said tonight President Juan B. Sacasa, a virtual prisoner in his residence atop Tiscapa Hill since the National Guard revolted last week-end, would resign Saturday and flee the country by airplane.

The newspaper La Prensa asserted the president said:

"I was not the man for the situation, because of my utter horror of violence and bloodshed. I could be accused of weakness, but never of unworthiness, and it would be an unworthy act to continue in the presidency. I am going."

The National Guard's revolt resulted from its leaders' disapproval of what they claimed was a plan by Sacasa to limit unfairly the number of candidates for the presidency.

U. S. to Stay Out.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Secretary Cordell Hull announced tonight, in commenting on the political disturbance in Nicaragua, that the United States would not intervene "directly or indirectly in the domestic concerns of any American republic."

His statement was prompted by communications received by the state department from the governments of both Chile and Peru, inquiring as to this government's intentions.

Their representations were made, Hull said, apparently under the erroneous impression that the United States had been asked by the Nicaraguan government to intervene in its belief.

DANCER SLAYS GIRL AND SELF OVER ROMANCE

Shoots Former Fiancee at Rooming House.

Phoenix, Ariz., June 4.—(AP)—A frantic pursuit of pretty Donna Mary Park, 26, night club dancer, by Irving La Zarr ended in death for both here today after apparent entreaties for marriage failed.

The double tragedy occurred while the two sat quietly conversing on the front porch of a rooming house shortly before dawn.

Nat T. McKee, justice of the peace, said La Zarr sent a bullet into Miss Park's head at close range and then shot himself in the temple.

"My daughter told me she couldn't go on with the show business," Mrs. Elizabeth Park said in Los Angeles, "and when La Zarr insisted on remaining in it she thought the engagement ended."

Letters written by Miss Park to La Zarr last November, while she was at Jeffersonville, Ind., and he was traveling with Sally Rand's company at Montreal, indicated they had been lovers, officers said.

"The few weeks in Chicago with you certainly outweigh these weeks of worry," she wrote in one letter.

Her mother said Miss Park had been a member of the Chicago Opera company four years.

CUT OF FOUR MILLION IN SANITARY DISTRICT '35 LEVY APPROVED

Trustees of the sanitary district yesterday approved an ordinance directing the county clerk to reduce the district's 1935 bond and interest levy by $4,117,856. According to Ross A. Woodhull, president of the district, the reduction is a result of the recently completed $140,000,000 bond refunding program.

The trustees also approved plans for construction of a $3,000,000 flowage control works at the mouth of the Chicago river. Work is expected to start within a month and be completed in the fall of 1937, according to William H. Trinkaus, acting chief engineer for the district.

829 MILLION TAX PASSAGE IS SEEN IN SENATE TODAY

Congress Will Recess for G. O. P. Convention.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—The senate is expected to pass its finance committee's 829 million dollar compromise tax bill tomorrow, after which congress will take three day recesses over the period of the Republican national convention, with the probability of adjourning sine die on or shortly after June 15.

This was the plan announced today by Senate Majority Leader Joseph T. Robinson after the death of Speaker Joseph W. Byrns had upset plans to pass the tax bill today and removed any possibility of winding up the session this week.

No business will be transacted by either body at the perfunctory Monday and Thursday meetings during the period of the recesses, and the plan is to permit only those bills now in conference, including the tax measure and the 2 billion 425 million dollar relief-deficiency bill, to be passed.

Bills Doomed to Die.

This means death for the Copeland-Tugwell food and drug bill, passed by the senate last year; ship subsidy legislation; the "take the profits out of war" bill; the Pettengill long and short haul bill; the 975 million dollar Wagner housing bill; the billion dollar Norris rural electrification bill; the billion dollar Bankhead farm tenant bill; the new Guffey coal bill; the Wheeler-Rayburn trade commission bill; the O'Mahoney-Jones bills to extend the Jones-Costigan sugar act and graduate farm bounties, and all other "peanuts and popcorn" now pending.

Bills now in conference and which are to be passed, besides taxes and relief, are the Robinson-Patman antichain store bill, the Black bill requiring registration of lobbyists, the liquor tax bill revising all existing law regulating alcoholic beverages, and the George bill permitting PWA housing projects to pay municipalities 5 per cent of gross rent in lieu of taxes.

Two Major Questions.

Only two major questions remain to be disposed before passage of the tax bill in the senate. These are the motion of Senator James Hamilton Lewis [Dem., Ill.] to recommit the measure for further study, and the Black-La Follette substitute carrying cut President Roosevelt's demand for drastic rates on undistributed corporation earnings.

Senator Lewis' motion is conceded no chance at all, and the Black-La Follette substitute is expected to be rejected by an overwhelming majority. This will mean a conference fight with the managers for the house, the breaking up of which may require intervention by President Roosevelt.

The house leaders insist they will stand by their drastic graduated undistributed earnings rates, reaching a maximum of 42½ per cent, and the senate finance committee members are just as determined not to permit the undistributed earnings exaction to exceed a flat 7 per cent.

May Withdraw Substitute.

Today there were reports, which Senator Hugo L. Black [Dem., Ala.] refused to confirm or deny, that he would withdraw his substitute rather than see it defeated ignominiously by the senate. An overwhelming rejection of this plan, with the Democrats having a 3 to 1 majority, would constitute a humiliating rebuff to President Roosevelt. Black and La Follette, therefore, may withdraw their substitute in deference to the President's face, according to the unconfirmed reports.

The substitute plan would exempt $15,000 of the net income of all corporations and exempt the first 20 per cent of undistributed earnings. Undistributed earnings above 20 per cent would be taxed on a scale reaching a maximum of 30 per cent on all over 40 per cent retained. The existing corporation income tax rates, ranging from 12½ to 15 per cent, would remain unchanged, whereas the senate committee's bill would increase each bracket 3 per cent.

Voices Roosevelt Plan.

The Black-La Follette bill is far less drastic than the house measure but it carries out the Roosevelt-Tugwell philosophy of forcing the dissipation of corporate reserves and limiting expansion, which Senator Harry F. Byrd [Dem., Va.] has exploded by demonstrating that it would promote monopolies and crush small and new corporations.

The Black-La Follette substitute does not increase existing corporation income taxes, because President Roosevelt wants a pretext of raising more revenue without increasing taxes. He even wanted the corporation income tax, as well as the capital stock and excess profits taxes, repealed, on the contention of the treasury that 620 million dollars in new revenue would be raised by forcing dividends into the hands of stockholders in the surtax brackets.

Treasury to Take Bonus March Cost from Veterans' Bonds

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—The treasury of the United States is finding a little blessing in disguise in the soldiers' bonus, due to be paid a week from next Monday. At the same time many veterans are discovering jokers in their adjusted service certificates, for all men who owe money to the government are to have those debts deducted from the face value of their certificates.

Men who took part in the various bonus marches on Washington and who were fed at government expense when encamped at the capital and later had their transportation paid back home, now must repay the treasury for that board and bus and train fare.

Cake Is Eaten.

While the bonus army was clamoring at the gates of the White House in 1932, and every summer since then, there was no Marie Antoinette to suggest that the boys eat cake. Nevertheless, they ate, and now they regret that they can't have the cake, too.

F. J. Hoesch, finance officer of the veterans administration regional office here, reports that many of the bonus marchers are taking the news badly. Their transportation had been paid with loans from the government which became liens on their bonus certificates. And as long as the transportation was so easy to get some of the boys took a real ride.

Throughout the nation there are 5,160 war veterans subject to government lien against their bonus money for the amounts spent in sending them back from the 1934 bonus march, at government expense. These amounts are small, on the average.

Average Debt $15.

It will be recalled that in the bonus march to Washington in 1934 the veterans were sent to Fort Hunt, outside of Washington. There they were fed and sheltered and eventually sent back home, the government paying the freight. But before they departed each signed a warant, or receipt, in which the expense to the government was to be charged against their bonus certificates. The average deduction amounts to about $15.

There are more than four thousand cases of bad debts that will be collected through the New York regional office of the veterans administration. Most of them range from $3 to $50, although some run up to $200 or more. The latter are cases of men who were accidentally overpaid in disability compensation by mistakes made in the government offices.

EX-MATE'S ACTS CALLED A 'FARCE' BY ANN HARDING

LONDON, June 5.—[Friday.]—(AP)—Ann Harding, American motion picture actress, who is expected to arrive early today at Greenock, Scotland, told the Daily Mail in a radio message that her former husband's attempts to prevent her coming to England with their child were "an utter farce," the newspaper said today.

Miss Harding and her daughter, Jane, 7 years old, are aboard the liner Duchess of Atholl, on which they sailed from Quebec May 29 despite the efforts of Harry Bannister, former husband of the blonde actress, to prevent their departure.

"I am amazed at the degree of importance apparently given the futile and untenable efforts of Mr. Bannister to embarrass me," she was quoted as telling the newspaper. "His reported attempt 'to invoke the law regarding a fugitive from justice' is an utter farce, since the courts in the United States have given me sole custody of my daughter and severely restricted his rights to visit the child."

Reunion of 1,000 Marines Will Be Held Here Today

More than 1,000 former marines from Illinois and surrounding states are expected to attend a central western reunion to be held today at the Hotel La Salle under sponsorship of the Chicago Marine post of the American Legion. During the afternoon the marines will be guests of the Cubs' management at the Cubs' game with Brooklyn in Wrigley field. In the evening they will have a banquet at the La Salle. Wayland Brooks, Republican nominee for governor, former commander of Marine post, will be among the speakers.

DEMAND FOR WAR WITH JAPANESE GROWS IN CANTON

Southern Armies Are on March Toward North.

HONGKONG, China, June 4.—(AP)—Provincial armies of southern China tonight demanded to be sent to fight the Japanese.

Petitions from the Kwangtung and Kwangsi military, addressed to the southwestern political council, were published here along with similar urgings from numerous Canton public bodies.

They sought to press for resistance to Japan by the northern Nanking government.

Observers of the newest Chinese-Japanese crisis, now involving high tension between North and South China, believed most of the demands were inspired by the Kwangtung and Kwangsi provincial leaders, Chen Chai-tong and Li Chung-jen. Both these leaders have expressed a desire for war with Japan.

Occupy Several Towns.

Despite official denials, there was confirmation of Japanese reports that Canton troops actually have crossed the border of Hunan province, to the north, and have occupied several towns.

[Japanese reports reaching Shanghai from the Kwangsi capital of Nanking said the Kwangsi provincial military, with 100,000 troops already started into Hunan, had enlisted 60,000 more militiamen. Troops were being sent to the important Kwangsi province towns of Kweilin and Liuchow, where chieftains said they had 500 trucks ready to move them across the border at any instant.]

Reports received here said the Kwangtung military headquarters had revealed intelligence "indicating the national [Nanking] government is massing four divisions in southern Fukien province to oppose the advancing Kwangtung first army." The latter troops were reported entering southern Fukien.

Tokio Parley Worries Chinese.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

SHANGHAI, June 5 [Friday]. — Deep concern was expressed here today over the proposed conversations in Tokio of Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, British economic and financial expert, with Hachiro Arita, Japanese foreign minister, and other high Tokio officials. Leith-Ross is due to reach there tomorrow. The conversations will be concerned with what the Japanese describe as "the basic relations" of China and Japan as well as the far east.

Local Japanese papers say the time has arrived for an Anglo-Japanese rapprochement regarding China and also the far east, "possibly leading to a resumption of the Anglo-Japanese alliance."

N. Y. CIGARET TAX CHEATERS RAIDED BY U. S. AGENTS

Deal a Heavy Blow at Racketeers.

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Eighty-one agents of the treasury department, working in groups of three, raided twenty-five cigaret manufacturers and dealers in Manhattan, the Bronx and Brooklyn today.

The action marked a determined move to stamp out the sale of millions of untaxed cigarets in a nationwide racket which has robbed the government of hundreds of thousands of dollars in taxes in recent years.

The raids, carried out with military precision, were made as the climax of a three month investigation during which federal men purchased 38,000 cigarets from various dealers and manufacturers upon which no tax stamps were affixed.

Warants for 25 Persons.

Sufficient evidence was gathered to break the back of the racket, in the opinion of federal officials, and last night secret warants for twenty-five persons were obtained from United States Commissioner Garret W. Cotter.

The raiding squads, made up of two deputy collectors under the leadership of a special agent of the department of internal revenue, struck at the same time in all parts of town and within an hour most of the twenty-five persons named in the warants were under arrest and their places under guard.

All of those placed under arrest were held for arraignment on charges of violating the internal revenue laws.

Severe Penalties Provided.

Penalties provided for such willful violations as are alleged by the federal authorities are severe, ranging up to $10,000 fines and five year prison sentences on conviction and including confiscation of all raw materials, equipment, and property of the defendants to satisfy tax claims against them.

Under the internal revenue laws all cigarets pay a tax of 30 cents a hundred, which comes to 6 cents on a package of twenty, enabling a tax free cigaret to be sold at about half the price of a standard brand.

Mrs. Anne Gordon Suydam Granted Divorce in Reno

Reno, Nev., June 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Anne Gordon Suydam, prominent socially in Washington, D. C., today won an uncontested divorce from Henry West Suydam, Washington newspaper correspondent. She charged cruelty. Suydam gained fame as a correspondent during the world war. A former chief of the division of current information with the state department, he was secretary of the American delegation to the conference on limitation of armaments, in charge of press matters, in 1921 and 1922.

TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE ENDS LIFE.

Petersburg, Ind., June 4.—[Special.]—Nevin Brown, 46, Republican trustee of Madison township, DuBois county, killed himself last night by taking poison. He died in the office of Dr. D. E. Taylor at Velpen, where friends took him.

NAME BANKHEAD SPEAKER; BYRNS FUNERAL TODAY

Legislator to Be Buried at Nashville.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—As a shocked capital today mourned the sudden death of Speaker Joseph Wellington Byrns of Tennesee a sorrowful house of representatives convened for a few minutes and unanimously selected William B. Bankhead of Alabama as the new speaker.

The house then recessed, as did the senate, and plans were made for impressive funeral services to be held at noon tomorrow in the chamber of the house. President Roosevelt, members of the cabinet, diplomats representing many nations, and all members of congress will attend.

The body of the late speaker will be placed on a train bound for his native Nashville at 4:55 p. m. tomorrow. A special committee of ten senators and sixty representatives will act as an escort. Burial will take place in Nashville Saturday afternoon.

Roosevelt Expresses Sorrow.

President Roosevelt led in expressing the capital's sorrow. In a formal statement he said:

"Speaker Byrns belonged to that school of statesmen which is the hope and justification of our democracy. By a happy coincidence he represented for more than a quarter of a century the Hermitage district of Tennessee, a district of sentimental significance because it holds the sacred dust of Andrew Jackson; and there was about Speaker Byrns a simplicity and rugged honesty which we have come to associate with the name of Jackson.

"Fearless, incorruptible, unselfish, with a high sense of justice, wise in counsel, broad of vision, calm in adversity, and modest in victory, he served his state and the nation with fidelity, honor, and great usefulness. I personally mourn the passing of a steadfast friend of many years."

Suffers Heart Attack.

Mr. Byrns died at 12:15 this morning, seven hours after an unexpected heart attack. He presided yesterday over a three-hour session of the house and was in his usual good spirits and health when he went to his Mayflower hotel suite early in the evening. He was talking to his wife when he suddenly slumped in his chair.

Physicians were summoned and the speaker was revived. But at 9:30 p. m. he became unconscious, and at 11 p. m. slipped into a coma from which he never emerged. Death was attributed to a heart attack and cerebral hemorrhage.

Since Jan. 3, 1935, when he succeeded the late Henry T. Rainey of Illinois, Mr. Byrns had been intrusted with the arduous duties of herding New Deal legislation through the lower body of congress. Last year's tumultuous eight months session exhausted him, his friends said. He was an obviously tired man at this session.

Listed as 66 Years Old.

The Tennesseean was 66 years old, according to his biographies, but intimates who had known him since he came to congress 27 years ago said he was several years older.

Bankhead, the new speaker, was majority leader of the house. He was prevented from attending the last session by illness, and his friends feared for his health if the present session is prolonged. As he took the chair today and feebly rapped with the gavel, Bankhead was so affected by the death of his old friend that his voice faltered and his hands trembled.

John J. O'Connor, Tammany Democrat of New York, became acting majority leader in Bankhead's place. There will be no attempt made at this session to straighten out the majority organization lineup which was thrown into confusion by the speaker's deathe. O'Connor will remain chairman of the powerful rules committee in addition to acting as majority leader.

Many Members Weep.

At the seventeen minute session of the house today many members wept openly. Because of his easy going nature, his unwillingness ever to assume the dictatorial powers which the speaker may exercise if he chooses, Byrns had virtually no enemies. Both Republican and Democratic members respected him for his fair and impartial rulings.

The speaker's chair being vacant, the house was called to order at 11 a. m. by South Trimble, the clerk. Almost every member was in his seat and a strange quiet ruled where restless disorder was customary. The galleries were packed.

The prayer was read by the Rev. Allen A. Stockdale, former pastor of the First Congregational church of Washington. Handkerchiefs were brandished by the statesmen and there was much furtive wiping of eyes as the minister intoned Tennyson's "Crossing the Bar":

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me,
And let there be no moaning at the bar

Death is Announced.

Trimble briefly informed the house of the sudden death of "our beloved speaker." O'Connor was then recognized and the red haired Irishman gulped as he addressed the house.

"With no thought of disrespect for our speaker," he said, "it becomes necessary, in order that the house may function and the machinery of government not stop, that we proceed with the election of a new speaker."

This procedure was unprecedented. No speaker has ever died before while the house has been in session.

O'Connor sent to the clerk a resolution calling for the election of Bankhead as speaker. It was passed with a low rumble of "ayes" from both sides with not a dissenting voice raised.

O'Connor, Bertrand H. Snell [Rep., N. Y.], the minority leader, and Edward T. Taylor [Dem., Colo.], who came to congress in 1909 with the late speaker, left the chamber and a minute later marched down the center aile with Bankhead, whose head was bowed. The members started to applaud but quickly hushed when cries of "No!" arose.

Sabath Administers Oath.

Representative Adolph J. Sabath [Dem., Ill], dean of the house, advanced and administered the oath of office to Bankhead. The latter called the house to order in a low voice.

O'Connor submitted another resolution giving the majority leader the right to ask a recess at any time. This was necessary in order that the house may take three day recesses during next week when the Republican convention will be in session.

The gruff, sandy haired Sam D. McReynolds of Tennessee attempted to deliver a short eulogy of the late speaker but gave it up after a few faltering words. His resolution naming a committee to make arrangements for the services tomorrow was quickly adopted and the house recessed.

Senate Meets, Recesses.

Meanwhile, the senate which met at 10 a. m., had recessed immediately to await action by the house. Senators remained in their seats, chatting in low tones about the unexpected death of Byrns.

Informed finally of the house arrangements for tomorrow's services, the senate adopted a resolution introduced by Senator Kenneth D. McKellar of Tennessee calling for the senate to amend the ceremonies and to send a special committee of ten senators with the body to Nashville.

The popularity of the late speaker was attested in the many econiums issued today by statesmen of both parties. He was "Joe Byrns," not "Mr. Speaker" to most of those who knew him. The sorrow expressed was not, as is sometimes the case, the glib sympathy of the politician for one who has gone, but indicative of genuine feeling.

Noted for Impartiality.

While he may not go down in history, as some of his intimates declared today, as "one of the great speakers of the house," his year and one-half tenure in the chair was marked by an honesty and impartiality in rulings that gratified the minority and oftimes, it must be confessed, irritated the majority.

Byrns was especially noted for his "honest counts," when a point of "no quorum" was raised in the house. Such a point of order is one of the few weapons which a minority may use in the house to delay a stampede of legislation and cause more sober reflection.

Although, theoretically, a quorum of 218 of the 435 representatives is supposed to be present in the chamber at all times, less than 100 members and on many occasions only 30 or 40 members transact much of the business. When a point of no quorum is made, the speaker decides whether there are 218 actually present.

For Honest Counts.

Many an unscrupulous speaker in the past has declared a quorum present when less than 100 were in the chamber, but Byrns has been known to declare a no quorum when he could count more than 200 members. Inasmuch as a quorum call of the 435 members takes 45 minutes, many a bit of legislation has been saved from hasty consideration by the speaker's "honest counts."

Byrns was tall—close to 6 feet 2 inches—and rangy. His voice habitually was soft, but he sometimes raised it to a mighty shout when the house became too turbulent. His rugged features were accentuated by shaggy eyebrows that lent themselves to caricature. The eyebrows were the result of a practical joke played upon Byrns in his youth when he went to sleep in a barber's chair after asking for "a clean shave." The barber carried out the request to the letter and the eyebrows grew out bushy "to mark me for life," as Byrns whimsically remarked.

BYRNS 7TH TO DIE IN RANKS OF HOUSE SINCE LAST JANUARY

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—The death of Speaker Joseph W. Byrns raised the total vacancies in the house to twelve.

Byrns was the seventh house member to die since congress convened last January. The others were: Representatives Lloyd [Dem., Wash.], Rudd [Dem., N. Y.], Buckbee [Rep., Ill.], Thomas [Rep., N. Y.], Perkins [Rep., N. J.], and Andrew [Rep., Mass.].

The regular total house membership is 435. The membership now stands at 423. Other deaths prior to the opening of this session and resignations contributed to the vacancies.

PRESIDENT WILL GO TO NASHVILLE FOR BYRNS RITES

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—President Roosevelt will accompany the body of the late Speaker Joseph W. Byrns to Nashville for burial services Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Roosevelt announced his intention of participating in the final rites after a conference on funeral arrangements at the White House this afternoon. The conference was attended by Vice President Garner, Speaker Bankhead, and Secretary of State Hull.

The funeral train will leave here tomorrow afternoon at 4:55 p. m., several hours after an elaborate state service in the house chamber, which the President will attend. The burial service will be held shortly after the train's arrival in Nashville at 12:30 p. m. Saturday.

After the burial Mr. Roosevelt will reboard the train with cabinet members, senators, representatives, and other attending officials to return to Washington. The train will arrive in Washington early Sunday.

Monday night Mr. Roosevelt will leave the capital again on his scheduled trip to the Texas and Arkansas centennials. Early in the day it was believed that the President would continue on to Arkansas after the funeral, but he ruled against a hasty change in his schedule.

On his return to the White House Sunday Mr. Roosevelt is expected to consult with congressional leaders on the effect of the death of the late speaker on congressional matters. He will devote much of his time before the departure of Monday evening to the writing of three speeches he will deliver during the tour.

PRISONER RETURNED WEST.

John Jersky, 31 years old, 3510 Roosevelt road, who was wounded by a policeman on May 4 when he tried to evade arrest, was returned to Salt Lake City yesterday to stand trial for assaulting a deputy sheriff there eight months ago.

Swim Through the Summer In a Jantzen

Fit

Fashion

In this day and age when fashion standards are just as exacting on the beach as in the ballroom, swimming suits with a style sense are in demand. These striking new Jantzen suits have all the smartest 1936 details.

Fabric

These Jantzen suits are notable for their distinction of weave. The novel and unusual patterns add character to the suits—yet all have the same elasticity of stitch.

(1) (2) (3) (4)

1. The square back which has "shoe string" ties to adjust it, is a smart feature of this suit, which has braid trimming in contrasting color. In white, black, Bahama blue, turquoise, rose, pagan brown. 34 to 44. $7.95.

2. Adjusta-Bra rides into prominence on the wave for adjustable swimming suits. It's a perfect-fitting style and is so simple and practical. It comes in Bahama blue, Turq, rose, black, brown, maize, white. 32 to 42. $5.95.

3. Here's something new under the summer sun—a suit that stays up without shoulder straps. The secret is in the hem and detachable straps. Note laced neckline. White, Bahama blue, Turq, maize. 34 to 40. $5.95.

4. Bra-Tuck Mio has youth and smartness in every stitch. A braided contrasting strap makes the low back adjustable by running through the neck and tying. Rose, brown, white, Bahama blue. 32 to 40. $4.95.

including two trousers

LISTEN TO THIS! It's typical of what we're hearing from lots of men. "The suit I've been wearing all Spring is too heavy, these days. And summer lightweights are too flimsy. Hasn't anybody something in-between—a real middleweight?" That's a reasonable complaint, and a fair question. And one for which we are glad to now supply a perfect answer, with our new Carolina Worsteds! ★ These long-awaited "middleweights" were loomed by a famous old New England weaver, exclusively for Bond's. Their special construction brings you the cool comfort lacking in regular heavy-weights. Their tightly twisted wool yarns give them more body, and press-holding quality, than summer lightweights. And they feature all the new plaids, chalk-stripes and varsity checks that are getting such a big hand this season. You can put on one of them right now—and wear it, comfortably, all summer. ★ Start enjoying the clothing treat of the year, today or tomorrow. Ask for a Carolina Worsted!

75 degrees
Too warm for regular-weight 15½ oz. woolens and not steamy enough for a summer suit. Right down the alley for Bond's new "in-betweeners"—Carolina Worsteds.

85 degrees
"Old Sol" gets hot under the collar. But not the chap who wears a Carolina Worsted! He's going places in a suit that's wrinkle-proof and weather-proof. And he's mighty comfortable!

90 degrees
"Old Sol" puts on the pressure. Wise men put on Carolina Worsteds—give their bodies a chance to breathe—and forget that it's 90 in the shade, with no shade.

Aw Nerts!
The old "fire-ball" gives up in disgust. He's tried his whole bag of tricks and has lost every round to Bond's new middle-weight champion—Carolina Worsted.

PARIS STRANGLED BY RED STRIKE; CROWDS PANICKY

Rush to Hoard Food and Water Supplies.

Whether Blum can halt the strikes depends upon finding out what occult organization is instigating the movement and exactly what its aims are. Socialists, syndicalists, and communists all deny they are responsible. It is generally supposed that the communists are the real instigators, but nobody knows definitely. And if it is the communists, it is not known whether it is the French communist party acting on its own, or whether the orders have come from Moscow. If it is Moscow which started the strike, only Moscow can call it off, most observers think.

Aims Obscure.

Another question mark is the real aim of the movement. Last week it appeared as a sort of dress rehersal for revolution, to train workers in revolutionary tactics and whip up a fighting spirit. The dress rehersal is running so well, however, that the possibility of its being turned into a serious performance right now cannot be excluded. As a matter of fact, a revolution might very well succeed in France at this moment, owing to the disorganization of all capitalist forces.

One thing is certain about the strikes. They are not spreading entirely spontaneously, even though the movement may have gotten out of hand here and there. Several strikes which were formally ordered from union headquarters were against the wishes of workers on the job, it is learned. It is alleged that this is the case of gasoline tank employés and truck drivers who struck and occupied twenty-seven out of Paris' thirty gasoline supply centers. Roadside pumps tonight were rationing gas to motorists in anticipation of a complete stoppage tomorrow.

Mystery of Iron Discipline.

Another thing is that some mysterious organization maintains—or has maintained up to now—iron discipline in the occupied factories. The strikers give blind obedience to their chiefs who carry guns and organize the workmen along military lines. No liquor stronger than beer—not even wine—is tolerated.

Here is an a uthentic incident from the Renault works which illustrates the almost incredible authority of the strike leaders:

One factory foreman, held prisoner by strikers, encounters a strike captain who is polite and calls him "mister" in speaking to him.

"Don't call me mister," says the foreman. "You're boss here now, and if I might be allowed criticism of your bossing I'd like to say the factory looks like a pig sty."

"That's true," says the striker, who immediately assigns a squad to clean up the premises and keeps them toiling until the whole factory is spotless.

3 Women in Cabinet.

In announcing his official cabinet list of thirty-five ministers Blum revealed that three of its members are women, the first ever to be included in a French government. They are Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, daughter of the co-discoverers of radium, who will be undersecretary of scientific research; Mme. Suzanne Lacorre, 61 years old, a retired school teacher, who will be undersecretary of child welfare, and Mme. Cecile Brunschwig, a suffragist leader, who will be undersecretary of education.

Twenty of the new ministers are Socialists who are holding their first governmental posts and are hence not widely known. Most of the remaining portfolios are filled by Radical Socialists. Yvon Delbos, Radical Socialist, is foreign minister.

AGREE TO REVISE BELGIAN WAGES IF STRIKE ENDS

ANTWERP, Belgium, June 4.—(AP)—Authorities granted a concession to 10,000 strikers here today by agreeing to a revision of wage scales within a fortnight providing the strike is canceled immediately. An answer from the strikers is awaited.

A strike of dock workers spread to other unions with a total of 25,000 employés demanding wage increases. Delayed trains blocked freight yards and troops concentrated in the strike area to prevent disturbances.

GREECE NABS 200; STOPS SALONIKI GENERAL STRIKE

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

ATHENS, June 4.—An attempted general strike at Saloniki failed today because of severe measures taken by the authorities. Two hundred persons, mostly Socialists and communists, were arrested.

In the village of Volo, two communist deputies were arrested, charged with being the instigators of recent riots. Thirty-five other communists also were held, all charged with plotting to overthrow the régime.

The country is calm, but the gendarmerie is held in readiness in various towns.

Dixon Voters Approve Bonds for Grade School

Dixon, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—At the school election yesterday voters approved the proposal to issue $175,000 in bonds to purchase a new site and build a new grade school building. An issue of $70,000 to employ more teachers and a school nurse also was authorized.

SPAIN'S RADICAL CABINET PERILED AS STRIKES GROW

Syndicalists Refuse to Stop Walkouts.

MADRID, June 4.—(AP)—Signs of a growing split in the leftist front, which dominates the Spanish government, accentuated the gravity tonight of a series of growing strikes.

With nearly 250,000 workers out, there were widespread rumors a cabinet crisis is imminent.

A breach between Socialists and syndicalists might force Premier Santiago Casares Quiroga to resign, these reports said. Syndicalists, refusing to obey the government's order to end the strikes, are seeking to extend them.

May Ban Syndicalists.

The government, through Augusto Barcia, minister of state, threatened to ban syndicalists if they do not change their tactics.

"If the syndicalists persist in disobeying orders from the ministers of labor and the interior the government plans to outlaw them," he said.

In a series of sporadic labor disorders in various parts of the country three persons were killed and a number were injured.

Salustiano Avezuela, 67, director of the prison at Seville, was fatally shot while drinking with friends in a wine shop. His assailants escaped.

Fascist Student Slain.

At Santander, where a general strike is in progress, Pedro Cea, a Fascist student, was killed when strikers attacked and burned a drug store. In the province of Leon two churches were destroyed by fire which officials believe was set by incendiaries.

The Socialist headquarters at Saragossa was wrecked when a bomb exploded. Four persons were injured, one Fascist was wounded in another clash at Saragossa, and leftists and Fascists fought at Malaga.

Police guarded the cafés of Madrid after reported threats those places whose workers refused to join in the walkout would be bombed.

Garbage Strike Ends.

Fears of Barcelona health officials that the Catalonian capital might be swept by pestilence as a result of a garbage collectors' strike were dissipated when the strike was called off after two days. Refuse had been piled in the streets.

Representatives of 25,000 Asturian miners spent the day negotiating with the ministry of labor in an effort to arrive at some compromise, but apparently little headway was made.

TELLS NAZI PLAN FOR REVOLT OF POLISH SILESIA

KATOWICE, Poland, June 4.—(AP)—Otto Benettel, a witness at the treason trial of 113 Polish Nazis, confessed today he had attended a Nazi meeting where it was announced Polish Silesia would soon revolt and unite with Germany. The reich would help in the revolt, Benettel said he was told.

This contradicted the testimony of Josef Zayonc, one of those accused of founding the Polish Nazi movement, and it was announced Benettel would confront him later.

Government prosecutors were disturbed because some of the Nazis were repudiating statements they had made prior to the trial. They hinted the prisoners feared Nazi vengeance.

Find Body of Tug Captain on Wreckage of His Boat

LEAMINGTON, Ont., June 4.—(AP)—The body of Capt. Guy McCormick, 60 year old tugboat master, was discovered today on floating wreckage of his boat, one mile southwest of Point Pelee in Lake Erie. Capt. McCormick and a relative, Earl McCormick, 25, had been missing since Tuesday. Lifesavers said they feared Earl was dead. A cargo of gasoline and kerosene is believed to have exploded during a squall.

STEEL WORKERS TO ORGANIZE AS VERTICAL UNION

Decide Against Green's Craft Proposal.

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Open conflict in the American Federation of Labor flared tonight as the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers joined the John L. Lewis group and decided to organize the half-million workers in the steel industry into one big union.

After hesitating for eight months between the industrial union advocates led by Lewis and the craft union led by William Green, A. F. of L. president, the leaders of the Amalgamated announced after a short conference tonight with Lewis that they would join his committee for industrial organization.

Ridicules Green's Words.

Asked what action the executive council of the A. F. of L. might take, Lewis said "I can think of nothing so uninteresting tonight as Mr. Green's platitudes and generalities."

Announcement of the agreement was made in a statement issued jointly by Lewis and Louis Leonard, secretary of the Amalgamated.

The Amalgamated delegation, comprising Leonard and Vice Presidents Thomas G. Gillis, Edward W. Miller and Joseph K. Gaither, passed the entire day in continuous session.

Half Million Offered.

The Amalgamated, an A. F. of L. affiliate, was authorized eight months ago by the federation convention to proceed with organization of the steel workers. William Green, federation president and craft leader, appealed to all unions to contribute funds for this campaign but so far he has received only one offer—a proposal carrying with it $500,000 from Lewis if the Amalgamated would organize steel into one big industrial union.

The Amalgamated at its recent convention at Canonsburg, Pa., decided to accept Lewis' money but also agreed to certain proposals made by Green as the craft leader. Lewis, at a meeting last night gave the Amalgamated 24 hours to decide.

DELAY ATTEMPT TO GET PARKER IN N. Y. CUSTODY

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—A delay of a week or ten days in seeking extradition of Ellis Parker Sr., Burlington county, N. J., detective under indictment in Brooklyn for the kidnaping of Paul H. Wendel, was decided upon today by District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan of Brooklyn.

Wendel made a confession to the Lindbergh kidnaping which, although recanted, delayed the execution of Richard Hauptmann three days. He claimed his kidnapers forced him to make the "confession" by torture.

The indictment and arrest of Parker, which was a surprise, was not commented on today by Gov. Harold G. Hoffman, friend of the detective.

Meanwhile Parker's son, Ellis Jr., who also is under indictment in the same case, continued to be a fugitive from justice.

There were no more witnesses before the grand jury on the Wendel case today. As the case now stands, the two Parkers, Murray Bleefeld, Martin Schlossman [Bleefeld's brother-in-law], and Harry Weiss, a taxicab driver, are all under indictment in the abduction.

Since Gov. Hoffman has repeatedly declared in the past that he would not extradite Parker, if indicted, considerable legal skirmishing is anticipated.

Dane Elected President of World Labor Parley

GENEVA, June 4.—(AP)—Delegates from 48 nations including the United States elected C. V. Bramsnaes of Denmark president of the international labor conference today. A record number of representatives of left wing governments attended the session, including delegates from France, Spain, New Zealand, Mexico, Russia, Denmark, Sweden, and Belgium.

TWO LAST U. S. STERNWHEELERS TO LEAVE RIVER

St. Louis, Mo., June 4.—(AP)—The last of the government owned stern wheelers now are to go the way of all the picturesque fleets that once plied the Mississippi river.

Maj. Gen. T. Q. Ashburn, president of the Inland Waterways corporation, announced today the Iowa and Missouri, operating on the lower Mississippi division of the federal barge lines, would be converted into twin screw tunnel type towboats at a cost of $25,000 each.

Ashburn also announced contracts had been let for four refrigerator units to test the feasibility of transporting perishables by barge. He described each of the units as being "a large icebox" capable of carrying five tons. The first cargo will be beer between St. Louis and Chicago.

STEEL AND IRON STRIKE CALLED ON N. Y. BUILDING

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Structural steel and iron workers of New York called a strike today on a building being erected in West Fortieth street after the other principal labor trades pledged to support an effort to obtain union recognition.

Announcement of the strike and of the possibility that other construction jobs might be tied up was made by V. G. Schneible, representing the Structural Iron Workers local 40, and Patrick Waters, business representative of the International Association of Bridge, Structural, and Ornamental Iron Workers.

The iron and steel workers already have been successful in delaying construction on the new Bronx county jail and an addition to Bellevue hospital.

Add More Guards and Lights at John D.'s Home

Lakewood, N. J., June 4.—(AP)—Three new guards were added and a system of floodlights installed today at Golf House, the summer home of John D. Rockefeller Sr. The 96 year old millionaire arrived yesterday from Florida. No reason was given for the increase in the guards, who now number four.

HONEST VOTING LAW PASSED BY STATE SENATE

Measure Effective for Half of Population.

the third time within a year, by now are well known.

Maypole cited charges that have been made of election fraud in Evanston, "a lily white city," and in Zion, "another city of purity." He contended that elections aren't stolen on registration day but on election day, before the polls open and after they close. He turned the accusation of "bossism," raised by Horner in the primary, against the governor.

"I am unalterably opposed to these bills," concluded Maypole. "We ask you to apply the system to cities over 5,000 population, a proposal that was introduced in the house by two Horner supporters [Representatives F. W. Lewis of Robinson and Thomas P. Sinnett of Rock Island]."

Then Ward began delving into the governor's political history. He started off with a remembrance of the governor's remarks in the mansion one night when under consideration for inclusion in a special session was the subject of eliminating any doubt that the Republican party could participate in the April, 1936 primary.

Agreed to Kill Bills.

"Some one said," Ward commented, "that it would give the Republicans an opportunity to push permanent registration. The governor was interested, and when informed that it was so leaned over and scratched out the subject [eventually it was included]. You know, too, that he acquiesced in the 1935 Democratic caucus that agreed to kill honest election bills.

"Horner has tried to be a boss, although he decried against 'bossism' in the primary. He said he wouldn't stand for Harold Ward being a member of the senate executive committee, but the senate thought otherwise. He said he would have any one but Ward on a conference committee considering the liquor bill, and Ward wasn't on. That's the way he has tried to be boss.

"When the legislature ratified the child labor amendment to the federal constitution, the governor called me into his office at 3 o'clock the next morning. He ran his hands through his hair and moaned, 'can't we change this?' I replied in the negative. Sometime later at a mass meeting in my district he got up and said: 'We ratified the child labor amendment.' What consummate modesty!"

Believes Pay Rolls Padded.

Senator Richey V. Graham [Dem., Cicero] raised a laugh at this point by calling attention to the absence of much hair on the governor's pate.

"I wouldn't know," answered Ward. "It has been a long time since I've been in his office. But let me proceed.

"In the recent meeting of the state central committee Horner's men walked out, to be joined by him later, because they couldn't vote contrary to the method provided by law. Then there is the Iroquois Illinois league [Horner's campaign collection agency], and the charges of padded state pay rolls made by Senator James O. Monroe [Dem., Collinsville], in which I believe there is some truth.

"Passage of these bills will take votes away from President Roosevelt. The governor knows that, so apparently he is trying to prevent not only the reëlection of the President but of the whole Democratic ticket."

"What Else to Say."

"He's the greatest governor Illinois ever had," interjected Graham.

"Your late father-in-law [Mayor A. J. Cermak] put him in the governor's chair," responded Ward. "What else could you say?"

Later, Graham tangled with Senator Peter P. Kielminski [Dem., Chicago] when the latter said he knew that on this subject the governor and some of the members present had had a change of heart.

"Are you looking at me?" asked Graham.

"I am," said Kielminski, apparently having meant before that he had heard the rumor that Graham, absent on March 4 this year when similar bills were killed in the senate, would have voted against them had he been present. "Some people haven't any guts."

"Do you mean me?" queried Graham.

"If the shoe fits," replied Kielminski.

Up to State's Attorneys.

On the Republican side, Senator Earl B. Searcy of Springfield, minority leader, warned that permanent registration would be of no lasting good unless its provisions are enforced by the state's attorneys. The last word was had by Senator T. V. Smith [Dem., Chicago].

"The final smearing in the corruption of the bloodstream of citizenship," he said, "is dishonest voting, pay roll padding, and office holding. Passage of these bills will shove us at least 10 per cent ahead, and that is progressing fast."

The roll call showed that seven Democrats, who voted against similar bills on March 4, had switched to the affirmative side. They are Senators H. S. Burgess, Fairfield; Dr. W. L. Finn, Iuka; Robert M. Harper, East Moline; Martin B. Lohmann, Pekin; Louis L. Menges, East St. Louis; James O. Monroe, Collinsville, and Mark Penick, Quincy.

The senate and house which was meeting in perfunctory session, then adjourned until Wednesday, June 17, deciding not to meet next week out of deference to the sessions of the Republican National convention in Cleveland, O.

SOUGHT 6 YEARS IN KILLING HERE; SEIZED IN NORTH

Sherif Elmer Madsen of Itasca county, Minn., notified Chicago detectives yesterday that he is holding William Neveraski, 31 years old, who for six years has been sought as one of two holdup men who shot and killed a Chicago policeman and permanently crippled another. Although at first identifying himself as William Enzer of Grand Rapids, Minn., the prisoner has confessed that he is the fugitive, according to the sherif.

The shooting occurred the morning of July 18, 1930, after Neveraski and Harry Yetter, who now is serving a life sentence in the Joliet penitentiary, held up several gasoline stations. A police squad touring the district in which the robberies occurred cornered and captured the bandits in a garage at 2343 West 111th street.

Two of the policemen, Anthony P. Wistort and John Guiltanane, held the prisoners in the garage while the third member of the squad went to summon a patrol wagon. Neveraski drew a concealed weapon and began firing. Guiltanane fell dead and Wistort, shot in the spine, became a helpless cripple. Neveraski was seized in Grand Rapids for robberies and was identified by a heart pierced with a dagger tattooed on his right arm.

Box Concern Head Fined $500 on U. S. Tax Charge

Edgar C. Terhune, president of the Terre Paper Box company, 1824 Albert street, was fined $500 yesterday by Judge Charles E. Woodward in federal court after he pleaded guilty to charges of failure to pay an income tax of $2,327.63 for 1933. Louis E. Squire, his bookkeeper, also pleaded guilty and was fined $100. Warren Canaday, first assistant United States attorney, told the court that Terhune has paid the government $5,992 to cover the claim together with interest and penalties.

IDENTIFIED AS A ROBBER.

John Hannon, 26 years old, 438 North Lawler avenue, was identified at the detective bureau showup last night as the man who robbed Werner Ryser, 4627 North Winchester avenue, of $55 on June 1.

OPEN WORK HERE ON REGISTRATION UNDER NEW LAW

Board Names Sept. 19 as First Day.

Advocates of honest elections in Cook county were jubilant yesterday over passage by the state senate of the permanent registration bill. The machinery to put the new measures into operation this year was immediately set in motion.

Alexander McKay, chairman of the Chicago election board, at once called an informal meeting of the commission. At its conclusion he announced that the initial permanent registration days will be Sept. 19 and Oct. 6.

After Gov. Horner signs the bills, as he has indicated he will do, they will become effective on July 1, and citizens may register at the election commission's office under the new system. McKay urged, however, that all Chicagoans wait for the general registration days to avoid congestion. Much preliminary work must be done by the election board before permanent registration can be accomplished smoothly, McKay said.

Seeks Uniform System.

County Judge Jarecki was one of the first to express satisfaction over the senate's passage of the measure.

"The new law," Judge Jarecki said, "should be of inestimable value in helping to keep politics and elections clean. I shall make immediate efforts to bring together the election boards of Chicago and the nine downstate cities affected by the bill's provisions, so that a uniform system of procedure for the state can be worked out."

McKay and Judge Jarecki announced that as soon as copies of the bills can be obtained from Springfield, they will call into conference the Chicago election commissioners, department heads, and lawyer for the board to work out in detail the procedure to be followed in bringing the 1,500,000 voters now on the poll books under the new system.

$270,000 More Needed.

One immediate problem, McKay pointed out, is the cost of inaugurating the new system. This being the quadrennial registration year, all voters in the jurisdiction of the election commission were registered this spring. Of the $847,610 appropriated for the purpose by the city council, all except $390,000 has been spent.

McKay estimated that it will cost about $660,000 for the permanent registration of the voters here. Thus it will be necessary for the city council to appropriate an additional $270,000 this year for registration purposes.

That permanent registration will result in a saving to taxpayers is evident, officials said, from the fact that its first cost is the major one. Once permanent registration is established, McKay said, the administrative cost will be comparatively low. The new system may require the employment of more workers by the election commission, he said, but this expense will be considerably less than that of a new registration every four years.

Called Copies of G. O. P. Bill.

State and county Republicans hailed the honest elections bills as verbatim copies of a measure that was first urged for passage three years ago by State Representative Elmer J. Schnackenberg, minority leader of the house. These included Perry B. McCullough, chairman of the Republican state central committee, and Robert C. Rohn, acting chairman of the Republican county central committee.

Schnackenberg issued a statement declaring that since he first introduced the bill in 1933, Republican members of the legislature have fought "consistently and courageously" for the principles it embodies.

ART OBJECTS OF BANK ARE SOLD BY WATCHMAN

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Bit by bit for the last three weeks Louis Lubelsky, 54, trusted watchman, has been taking apart the Excelsior Savings bank and selling it to an antique dealer.

This morning he carted off too large a chunk and suspicious Detective McFarland followed him. He entered the antique shop and unrolled two oil paintings, slashed from their frames.

Clocks, vases, and bric-a-brac of varied description, were displayed to McFarland as purchases made from Rubelsky. The total value was $2,600.

Rubelsky confessed. He was the only working member of his large family in the Bronx, he explained. He has worked fifteen years for the bank.

FRANCE, BRITAIN AGREE ON END OF ANTI-ITALIAN BAN

Seek Promise by Il Duce to Let Europe Alone.

PARIS, June 4.—(AP)—France and Great Britain are willing, diplomatic sources said tonight, to lift sanctions from Italy if Premier Mussolini agrees to maintain the present status of the Mediterranean and of central Europe.

They reached an agreement, said diplomatic sources, through their ambassadors after a talk May 15 between Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden and France's incoming premier, Leon Blum.

Lifting of sanctions would permit Italy to borrow money to finance the development of Ethiopia.

Delay League Session.

Officials here confirmed that France and Britain have agreed to postpone sessions of the league of nations' council from June 16 until June 29. This delay will allow them time to complete proposals for settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian issue.

Diplomatic sources said they understood Blum is willing to negotiate with Reichsfuehrer Hitler if the British insist. Hitler, it was said, has sounded Paris and London on the matter.

Blum has announced his foreign policy will be based on the "two closely linked ideas of efficient mutual assistance and progressive disarmament." He hopes to play doctor to the ailing league and also wants to tie Britain, Germany, soviet Russia and France in a "master" pact of mutual assistance and disarmament within the league.

Haile Embarrasses Britain.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—The British government's embarrassment at the presence of Haile Selassie in London was accentuated tonight when it appeared that the refugee emperor's interpretation of his status differs appreciably from that outlined by Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin to parliament.

The British view is that since the defeated Ethiopian ruler is traveling officially incognito, he is automatically expected to refrain from participating in any way in the furtherance of hostilities.

The emperor, however, said tonight: "The fact that I am visitng England incognito does not bar me from doing whatever lies in my power to help the cause of my pepole."

Informed that on the day before his [the emperor's] departure from Addis Ababa, Premier Mussolini issued orders under which he would have been maintained on his throne as sovereign of the central Amharic provinces, with Ethiopia as an Italian protectorate, Haile Selassie retorted that if Mussolini wished to communicate with him, he is not far away.

The emperor emphasized that although he had left Ethiopia, he had not renounced his rights to sovereignty.

Italy Tightens Money Export Law.

ROME, June 4.—(AP)—Italy is about to tighten restrictions on the exportation of money. After June 10, according to an interministerial decree announced by the Stefani agency, an individual may take only 300 lire—about $24—out of the empire. The decree reduces the amount from 2,000 lire—about $160.

An exception will be made for tourists who buy lire with their foreign money.

FLOODS PERIL TOWNS IN BRITISH COLUMBIA; RAILROAD MAN DIES

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 4.—(AP)—Flood waters took one life and menaced many towns in southern British Columbia today. Andres Ekren, a railway lineman, fell into the swollen water sat the confluence of the Fraser and Nechako rivers at Prince George and was drowned.

Dikes crumbled before the increasing pressure and thousands of acres of rich farm lands in the southwestern part of the province were under water. Men worked strenuously with sandbags. Agassiz, about 75 miles up the Fraser, was isolated.

Reports to the provincial government tentatively set the damage at $300,000, but the figure did not take in reports from the northern part.

Former Pastor Arrested on Youth's Morals Charge

Oregon, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—The Rev. Nathaniel Mooring, 49, of Forreston, ordained minister who has been without a pulpit for the last seven years, was arrested last night on a morals charge involving a 21 year old Forreston youth. Sherif Delos Blanchard, who arrested him, said Mooring admitted the charge. The prisoner, who lives with his wife and two children, has held pastorates in St. Louis, McLeansboro, and Tallula, Ill., and in Lancaster, Wis. The Ogle county grand jury will hear his case tomorrow.

POLISH RIOTERS BURN SHOPS AND HOMES OF JEWS

Town Near Warsaw Swept by Violence; 50 Hurt.

WARSAW, June 4.—(AP)—Anti-Jewish disorders and incendiarism broke out in the nearby town of Minsk Mazowiecki today.

The town has been in a turmoil since Sunday, when a Jew is alleged to have slain a Polish sergeant in a drunken brawl. Nearly 50 Jews have been wounded, seven of them seriously. Today's disorders occurred during the sergeant's funeral.

The district governor of Warsaw visited Minsk Mazowiecki, which is 30 miles from this city, and ordered stern measures taken to restore order.

Fight Incendiary Blazes.

A fire brigade from Warsaw was stationed in the town to fight incendiary blazes. A synagogue and many Jewish homes and shops were damaged by fire.

Five thousand of the 6,000 Jews in Minsk Mazowiecki are seeking refuge in Warsaw from the anti-Semitic rioters.

Following a political battle between Ukrainians and radicals, anti-Semitic outbreaks occurred in Skola, East Galicia. Many Jews were injured, at least one of them seriously. Jewish shops were demolished in the attacks.

Army Rule Looms in Palestine.

JERUSALEM, June 4.—(AP)—The Palestine government is rushing arrangements for the proclamation of martial law in order to deal more effectively with current disorders, it was learned tonight on the highest authority.

The contemplated action of the government is believed to be due to its inability, after almost seven weeks of continuous rioting, bombing, shooting, arson, and killing, to suppress the Arab demonstrations against British policy in Palestine.

Hitherto civil authorities, reinforced by almost 10,000 troops, police and special watchmen, have contended with the demonstrations by dispersing assemblies, routing attackers of Jewish settlements and banishing Arab leaders. Under the program now being rushed to completion the military will run the entire country on a wartime emergency basis.

Four persons were injured today when a Jewish owned bus was bombed at Haifa. The Haifa postoffice also was bombed.

Noble J. Puffer, county superintendent of schools, announced yesterday that pupils of schools under his direction will visit the Chicago Zoölogical park at Brookfield tomorrow.

PRISON DOESN'T CONVINCE ALFRED BIGAMY IS WRONG

Alfred Estrin, 44 years old, who was released from Joliet penitentiary in 1932 after serving two years of a one to five year sentence for bigamy, was held to the grand jury in $5,000 bond on a similar charge yesterday by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan in the Felony court.

In 1913 Estrin married Miss Jeanette Cohen and they had five children. In 1927 Estrin left his wife and in 1930 she discovered that he had married Miss Cecile Rubinstein. Estrin was sent to prison, and on his release his first wife forgave him and he returned to live with her.

A short time later Estrin disappeared again, and recently his first wife discovered he had married Miss Esther Oppenheim, with whom he has been living at 2531 East 72d street.

"You seem to be a hopeless case," Judge Hartigan told Estrin at the hearing yesterday.

DRIVERS TO GET MITE OF RELIEF FROM DETOURS

It Won't Be Much in Tieup of Street Repairs.

BY HAL FOUST.

North Michigan avenue, closed for resurfacing this week, will be opened to trafic tomorrow and Sunday and closed again for a resumption of work on Monday.

Barricades are also to be moved tomorrow noon in Leif Eriksen drive so that trafic can use this south side outer boulevard between 39th and 53d streets, but motorists will still be detoured around the stretch between 53d and 57th streets.

Tough on the Motorist.

This promises just a small measure of relief for week-end trafic from the tangle of detours that last Sunday stalled holiday motorists in probably a dozen bottlenecks caused by construction work. While a few barricades are being removed, still others are being added to the hurdles throughout Chicago's street system. The changes are too rapid for the motorists to become acquainted with temporary routes.

A list of detours was prepared yesterday by the Chicago Motor club to guide recreation drivers this week-end. It represents the extent of the patchwork on the city's street system being done with about $13,000,000 of "easy money" and vehicle tax funds without creating any new arterial. This amount of money could have built about twenty-six miles of elevated highway.

Location of Barricades.

DIVERSEY BOULEVARD — At Chicago river bridge.

SOUTH PARK AVENUE—At 51st street.

STONY ISLAND AVENUE—56th to 63d streets.

SACRAMENTO BOULEVARD — Roosevelt road to Congress street.

79TH STREET—Cicero to Crawford avenues.

COLFAX AVENUE—95th street to Anthony avenue.

67TH STREET—Kedzie to Central Park avenues.

GUNNISON STREET—Nagle to Mason avenues.

CENTRAL AVENUE—Roosevelt road to Madison street.

IRVING PARK BOULEVARD — Kedzie avenue to Outer drive.

Outside Chicago two detours have been added to the several that have existed since the construction season got under way. Bartlett road has been closed between Lake street and Algonquin road; 171st street has been closed between Oak Park avenue and 94th avenue.

AIMEE M'PHERSON EXTORTER'S 'PRAYERS' AT TEMPLE REVEALED

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4.—[Special.]—Valentine Philip McAuliffe, 42, who surrendered yesterday in San Diego as the man who mailed "nude photo" extortion letters to Evangelist Aimee Semple McPherson, once knelt and prayed in the evangelist's Angelus temple while he gave the place and its pastor the "once over," it was realved today.

He won the sympathy of the evangelist's feminine followers to the extent that they prayed with him for recovery of the use of his legs so he could discard his crutches. The women held McAuliffe's hands while he prayed, and served him sandwiches and cake.

Arraigned today in San Diego on a charge of theft from a garage, with the federal mail charge awaiting disposition against him, McAuliffe said he intended to use the $10,000 he hoped to extort from Mrs. McPherson to send Dorothy Harper, the daughter of a woman benefactor, "through college."

CHILD AWARDED $2,500 FOR ARM BROKEN IN CRASH

Jennie Kantorski, 13 years old, 2126 Armitage avenue, was awarded $2,500 damages yesterday for a broken arm she incurred in an automobile crash at Milwaukee avenue and Leavitt street on Dec. 14, 1934.

The verdict was returned by a jury in Circuit court before Judge Michael Feinberg against the Milk Dealers' Bottle exchange, 2355 Blue Island avenue, whose truck was said to have caused the accident in which Jennie was hurt while crossing the street. She was hit by a careening car that had just been hit by the truck.

A verdict of $10,000 against the Arcole Construction company, Nile Center, was returned in favor of Charles K. Buckels, 27 years old, 1717 Fielding avenue, Evanston, by a jury before Judge Joseph E. Bailey of Peoria, sitting in Circuit court here. Buckels' hip was injured on April 25, 1935, when struck by one of the defendant's trucks on Skokie road.

Goes to Chair for Killing 2 After Children's Quarrel

Ossining, N. Y., June 4.—(AP)—Damiano Cosentino, 38, died in Sing Sing prison's electric chair tonight for slaying two of his Brooklyn neighbors as the result of a children's squabble. He killed Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fontano after their child threw mud on Cosentino's daughter.

EASTERN TIME FOUND TO CUT TRAFIC DEATHS

Ten Fewer Fatal Crashes in Hours Affected.

The Chicago Motor club reviewed yesterday police reports of March and April trafic accidents and found that there were ten fewer fatal crashes and sixteen fewer personal injury mishaps during the hours of these months affected by the adoption of eastern standard time than there were during the same hours last year under central standard time.

Eastern standard time gave an added hour of daylight in the evening, the period of day with the highest automobile accident toll. In the last hour of daylight in March and April of this year there were 6 street crashes causing deaths and 120 causing personal injuries. During this same hour by the clock in 1935, when this hour was dusk or darkness, there were 11 fatal and 160 injury accidents.

Early Morning Comparisons.

This additional sixty minutes of light in the afternoon, with its saving of 5 fatal and 40 personal injury accidents, was obtained at the expense of losing an hour of light in the morning. In the last hour of darkness in the morning during March and April of this year there were 1 fatal and 44 personal injury accidents, as compared with 6 fatal and 20 personal injury accidents during the same clock hour [daylight under central standard time] in 1935.

These figures show a net saving of 10 fatal and 16 injury accidents that can be attributed to the city's change of time. The change in time, and possibly a degree of luck, are the only factors involved in the saving, according to Oscar M. Gunderson, engineer for the motor club, because trafic volumes are distributed through the day by the clock rather than by the position of the sun. Persons who drive home at 6 o'clock do so whether that hour is before or after sunset.

Below Five Year Average.

Even when compared with a five year average, which includes part of the light trafic years of the bottom of the depression, the records show a reduction of accidents in the hours affected by eastern standard time. Balancing an increase in fatalities in the early morning with a decrease late in the afternoon credits eastern standard time with avoiding 6 fatal accidents as compared with the average for March and April during the last five years.

The police statistics do not show how many more lives and limbs were saved; the figures merely record accidents that caused one or more deaths or injuries, without reporting how many were killed or injured in each accident. Hence the awkward expression "fatal accident," rather than simply "death."

Summer Situation Unchanged.

This summer there is no story to tell of eastern standard time as it concerns the motor toll, because this standard is the same as the long established daylight saving time, so there is no summer experience with central time as a basis for comparison. In the fall, however, trafic engineers hope to find an even greater benefit from the time change than was experienced this spring, because the hour of added daylight will come at the peak of the evening rush of motorists homeward.

QUIZ BEGUN ON HOURS AT SHOP OF MAN WHO UPSET N. Y. WAGE LAW

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—John Hofman, chief inspector of the state labor department, today started an investigation of Joseph Tipaldo, Brooklyn laundry owner, who admitted he is stepping up the working hours of his women employés from 40 to 49 a week. Tipaldo's defiance of the state minimum wage law for women led to the law's death Monday in the United States Supreme court.

"That is clearly a violation of the hours law for women in industry, which restricts hours to forty-eight," Hofman said.

Tipaldo recently disclosed that he was erecting an $8,000 addition to his plant with what he expected to save in increased hours. When he first defied the minimum wage law he contended he could not afford to pay his girls $12.40 for a 40 hour week. By increasing hours he was able to expand his plant and double his force of twenty girls.

JUDGE SENDS 1ST WOMAN TO JAIL IN SAFETY DRIVE

Gets 10 Day Term; Cries Upset Court.

Mrs. Ethyl Peterson, 48 years old, 9 North Ada street, the mother of a grown son, was sentenced to ten days in the county jail yesterday for reckless driving by Judge Gibson E. Gorman in the Safety court. She is the first woman to receive a jail sentence since Judge Gorman opened his drive on trafic law offenders on May 1.

Joseph Suchow, 1015 North Washtenaw avenue, testified that Mrs. Peterson drove her car into his parked automobile at Ada street and Washington boulevard. While the hearing was in progress Mrs. Peterson interrupted the court by shouting: "I didn't have a drink today!"

Is Found Near Collapse.

Judge Gorman ordered her examined by Dr. M. H. Levy, physician at the county jail. Dr. Levy reported that the woman was on the verge of a nervous breakdown, and she then admitted she had taken drinks before going to court.

Elmer W. Muller, 31 years old, 2056 Augusta boulevard, a painter, was sentenced to 15 days for driving while intoxicated. He drove into the car of Don Trylovich, 1827 Fremont street, in front of the latter's home. Police testified that Muller was so intoxicated he had to be carried from his car.

Admits Drinking Beer.

Harold Fink, 21 years old, 3310 North Hoyne avenue, got a ten day sentence for driving while intoxicated. He was arrested Wednesday after driving erratically in the neighborhood of his home. He admitted drinking beer.

Rudolph Wojtyla, 32 years old, 2168 Carver street, a WPA chauffeur, was sentenced to ten days in jail for driving while drunk. He was arrested Tuesday at Armitage avenue and Leavitt street after members of a police accident prevention squad followed his car for several blocks.

Attorney Cleared of Charge.

A drunk driving charge against Attorney George Hagemeyer, 44 years old, 8032 Vincennes avenue, was dismissed after a third policeman who helped arrest him testified he was not drunk. On Wednesday the other two policemen said Hagemeyer was not drunk, but that Carlos Roberts, 8938 Baltimore avenue, whose car had collided with Hagemeyer's, insisted on such a charge.

Mrs. Louise Worthington Newcomet, 1242 Lake Shore drive, wife of Horace E. Newcomet, vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad, appeared in Safety court with a cane yesterday to press reckless driving charges against Trigg Thordarson, 32 years old, 1414 Leland avenue, a cost estimator and engineer of the Thordarson Electrical Manufacturing company, 500 West Huron street. Mrs. Newcomet was injured when Thordarson's car collided with her machine at Lake Shore drive and Irving Park boulevard on May 21. The case was continued to today.

Judge John Gutknecht in the Trafic court yesterday fined Kurt Buetow, 30 years old, 458 Deming place, $80 for driving 80 miles an hour in the Outer drive between Wilson avenue and Bittersweet place last Saturday.

FIVE POLICE CARS WILL BROADCAST SAFETY MESSAGE

Five automobiles equipped with loud speakers were put in service by the police bureau of accident prevention yesterday to spread the message of trafic safety. Capt. David Flynn, head of the police trafic division, said the cars, each manned by two specially trained policemen, will tour the city, particularly in the vicinity of schools, their loudspeakers preaching the "dos" and "don'ts" of safe driving and safe walking. Motorists and pedestrians committing minor infractions will be warned politely by the amplified voices from the trucks.

LEGION IN COUNTY PLANS 2D ANNUAL JULY 4 PROGRAM

The Cook county council of the American Legion will hold its second annual Independence celebration at Soldiers' field on July 4, Sidney T. Holtzman, commander, announced yesterday. He issues an invitation to the public to spend a safe and sane Fourth with the Legion.

Col. A. A. Sprague is the general chairman of the Fourth of July committee. Members of 214 posts in Cook county are expected to participate in the celebration. Last year 80,000 persons attended the event.

Drills and maneuvers, band concerts, athletic events, fireworks, and a Queen of the Lakes contest will be included in the day's program. The queen contest is open to all unmarried girls between the ages of 18 and 25 years, residing in any city of the Great Lakes region. Entry blanks are available at headquarters in room 1044, 127 North Dearborn street.

DOG QUARANTINE ORDERED IN FIGHT AGAINST RABIES

Aroused by the recent deaths of one child and several head of farm livestock from rabies inflicted by mad dogs, authorities of Elmhurst and Naperville townships in DuPage county imposed a dog quarantine yesterday. Owners were warned to keep their pets confined and deputy sherifs are under orders to shoot any dog found roaming at large in the townships, under penalty of a $100 fine for each failure to obey the order. Walter Wallace, one of two Elmhurst boys bitten by mad dogs three months ago, was the child who died of rabies.

1 KILLED, 7 HURT AS PAINT TRUCK HITS STREET CAR

Conductor on Way to Work Is Victim.

One man was killed and seven persons were injured yesterday when a painters' truck collided with an east bound Grand avenue surface car at North Long avenue. The truck burst into flames which were quickly extinguished by firemen. Six of those hurt were on the street car. More than a score of other passengers in the car were shaken and bruised.

Edward Cardner, 50 years old, 3323 North Neenah avenue, a Chicago Surface lines conductor who was riding on the front platform of the car on his way to work at the Kedzie avenue barns, was killed when ladders on the truck smashed through the front windows and tore away part of the platform.

Driver of Truck Hurt.

The injured, who were taken to the Danish-American hospital, are Joseph Calvi, 21 years old, 2017 North Austin avenue, driver of the truck; Thomas A. Emmett, 48 years old, 4845 Wabansia avenue, motorman on the street car; Mrs. Rose Schwartz, 39 years old, 2157 North Mason avenue; Mrs. Bertha Weingardt, 39 years old, 3453 Page avenue; Mrs. Rose Bruckner, 42 years old, 2637 74th court, Elmhurst; Mrs. Victoria Mizen, 39 years old, 2459 Hammond avenue, River Grove; John Mitchell, 26 years old, 2449 North Nordica avenue.

Motorman Emmett told the Cragin police that Calvi was driving on the wrong side of the street and that the truck was apparently out of control. The impact moved the street car back three feet, he said, and the protruding ladders rammed through the car and caused most of the injuries.

Four Injured in Crash.

Four men were injured early today in a crash of two automobiles at 82d street and South Chicago avenue. Two of the victims are from Gary. They are Zenon Barbowski, 21 years old, 1549 Jackson street, and Damon Robey, 21 years old, 303 Buchanan street.

In the car which struck the one in which they were riding were William Biehl, 21 years old, 8124 Langley avenue, and Gene Dunker, 22 years old, 8050 Maryland avenue.

August Scharfhausen, 45 years old, 5043 South Kolin avenue, a truck helper, died yesterday in the Southtown hospital from injuries received Monday when he fell from the running board of an automobile at 50th street and Kolin avenue. His skull was fractured.

Miss Louise Stehlin, 62 years old, 2016 Melrose street, was struck by an automobile and killed last night at Paulina street and Belmont avenue. Harold V. Logan, 37 years old, 1411 Thatcher street, Des Plaines, driver of the car, was held by Sheffield avenue police for the inquest today.

Two Injured in Crash.

Two persons were injured last night when a car driven by Joseph Campenelli, 23 years old, 901 North 23d avenue, Melrose Park, was struck in the rear by another machine driven by Mrs. Archie Vrbangin, 27, Crystal Lake, in Mannheim road near North avenue.

Angelo Virruso, 20, 1310 North 22d avenue, Melrose Park, one of six youths in Campenelli's car, and William Kenbush, 45, of Crystal Lake, companion of Mrs. Vrbangin, were taken to Westlake hospital in Melrose Park. Morton Grove county highway police held both drivers.

Melvin Dobson, 27 years old, of Route 64, Rockford, whose truck killed Herbert Emick Jr., 14 years old, who was riding a bicycle at Ogden and Scoville avenues, Berwyn, Wednesday, was charged with manslaughter yesterday in a warant signed by Herbert Emick Sr., 3946 Prescott street, Lyons, father of the boy. Dobson was released under $10,000 bond.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 425 persons had been killed by automobiles in Cook county since Jan. 1. In the same period 335 were killed and 6,921 injured in trafic accidents inside the Chicago limits.

THE MASSACRE

LANDON BEFORE THE CONVENTION.

In the week before the assembling of the Republican delegates in Cleveland it is apparent that Gov. Landon of Kansas is the man who has caught the favorable attention and approval of Republican voters. It does not follow that it will be the mature judgment of the convention to nominate him or that he is the only candidate who can be considered. He has, however, caught the public interest and won its fancy.

No one ever quite knows how these enthusiasms are created. Gov. Landon has qualities which apparently justify the liking so many people have for him. His popularity can be explained in terms of merit, although it would have been more predictable if he had been in public life a long time and had been conspicuously before the nation.

In American politics there is a quality which can be best described as savvy. It is one of the most valuable qualities a people can have in a system of government which periodically renews itself by reference to the popular will. Savvy is a political attribute enabling people to come to a fairly correct judgment of character, in many instances without the personal acquaintance which would seem to be required. Certain qualities of a man will make themselves apparent to the political sense which great masses of people have.

Gov. Landon made his meritorious reputation in a state whose affairs normally do not attract nation-wide attention. That is true of nearly all the states. Only two or three, because of their industrial, financial, and commercial importance, get the high light in the national news. A governor of New York, if he does remarkable things, will be known the country over. If he becomes notable in his state his national party may turn to him and put him at its head. That a governor of Kansas, without any particular effort being made to push him forward, should quietly step out into the commanding lead taken by Gov. Landon is remarkable, and the explanation must be sought in some personal qualities which people far away have sensed. They recognize a type of man in whom they have confidence.

Gov. Landon has made fewer speeches than other men known to be candidates. He has traveled less, been on the radio fewer times, and has appeared at few public assemblages. Nevertheless, he has a commanding lead and he is out in front because of apparent trust which many people who never saw him have in him.

Landon has the appearance of a good candidate. He comes from a vein of American life in which are found certain fundamental staples of American character which when endowed with a high order of intelligence leave very little to be desired for service in public life.

Here in Illinois the Kansas governor made no appearance in the preferential primary. His name was not on the ballot. No political promotion was given him. Senator Borah and Col. Knox were allowed the field. Yet Landon is running away with THE TRIBUNE poll, indicating what would have happened if he had made the primary a three lane race. Apparently the people who turned to Borah turn to Landon when given a chance.

ELASTIC PRINCIPLES OF A SOCIALIST.

Reports from the recent Socialist national convention at Cleveland gave a puzzled reader the impression that Milwaukee's mayor, Dan Hoan, leader of the Wisconsin Socialists, takes a change of principles as well as a change of clothes when he goes to conventions. It is hard, not to say impossible, to reconcile his public position on at least two questions as expressed at Cleveland with the record at home where the quest of votes is apt to be more vital than the promulgation of abstract principles.

At Cleveland the Milwaukee mayor was outspoken in his opposition to President Roosevelt. He warned against the continuation of his policies and advised delegates to beware of the formation of state or local parties likely to become burocracies of jobholders.

At home in Wisconsin Hoan's Socialists unite themselves with the Progressive Farmer-Labor federation and join in a trade for votes with the La Follettes, who have enjoyed the major blessing of the President's approval for more than two years. Wisconsin conservatives openly express the conviction that the La Follette determination not to let their party spread into the national field is in appreciation of the favors they have received from President Roosevelt and in anticipation of further evidences of his favor.

If Mayor Hoan's coalition with the La Follettes is more than academic his support of the Progressives must entail at least toleration of the President.

Hoan's abhorrence of the communists and communism was almost heart breaking during his campaign for reëlection a month ago. His public speeches rang with condemnation of the direct action fellows and he squirmed night and day in his efforts to rid himself of the incubus of their publicly declared approval.

At the Cleveland convention Hoan gave no aid to the right wing Old Guard Socialists of New York, who were trying to cast Russian domination out of the party, and in the final determination the Wisconsin delegation lined up with the leftists and against the Old Guard, who walked away from the convention to found a newer and more conservative Socialist party.

If the Socialists were politicians of less than the monopoly of the human virtues which they constantly proclaim it would look as if expediency played a greater part in the establishment of the Hoan policies than he would be willing to admit.

His abhorrence of communists at home and his acceptance of them in Cleveland is no less strange than his denunciation of Roosevelt at the convention and his allegiance to the party of the La Follettes in Wisconsin.

FOUR LAWYERS DISBARRED.

The Illinois Supreme court a few days ago disbarred four Chicago lawyers. The Chicago Bar association, whose initiative was responsible for at least three of these actions, deserves the thanks of the community. An important reason for the prevalence of crime and the disrespect for law in Chicago as in other cities has been the activity of unscrupulous lawyers. Many of them are clever and it is not always easy to obtain evidence sufficient to justify their removal from practice. The bar association has evidently gone to much effort in preparing its cases and carrying them to a successful conclusion.

Our system of criminal law assumes the innocence of the prisoner. He gets all the breaks. The burden is upon the state to prove that he is guilty of the charge against him. He is surrounded with all the protections which the bill of rights, fortified by the laws of evidence and the rules of procedure, can give him. This, of course, is as it should be if human liberty is to be preserved; but when, in addition to all the advantages to which he is entitled, the prisoner can hire the services of an unscrupulous lawyer, willing to go to any end to free his client and earn his fee, justice is almost certain to be defeated. Criminals who would otherwise be convicted are left free to carry on their trade. Murder and robbery are encouraged. The word goes round that if the right mouthpiece is selected the criminal has little to fear from the law.

The evil is by no means confined to criminal practitioners. The lawyer who betrays his client's interest in civil matters or takes unfair advantage of his opponent also breeds disrespect for law and creates in the popular mind the notion that law has nothing to do with justice.

Proceedings against men who are morally unqualified for practice constitute one of the most important services which a lawyers' association can perform for the community. Needless to say, it is also a service to the great majority of honorable practitioners because the presence of the crooked minority inevitably lowers the moral tone of the profession as a whole. It is gratifying to observe that the task of purging the bar of its unfit members is not being shirked.

A GOOD JOB—HALF DONE.

It is a singular coincidence that scheduled flying, first conceived as an aid to mail service, has become a far greater convenience to the business man himself than to his correspondence. Only where great distances are involved, such as on transcontinental flights, has air mail offered a spectacular advantage. While it is not only possible, but frequently occurs, that a business man may leave Chicago in the morning to attend a meeting in New York and return the same day, mail deliveries even to nearby points on the date of writing are practically nonexistent. True, the same ship that handles the passengers will also handle the mail, but the postoffice department has produced nothing to continue the expedited service beyond the airport unless a special delivery stamp is affixed in addition to the air mail postage. The previous administration gave the country air service. This one does not take advantage of it.

The postmaster general rested on his laurels with the job half done. The public is expected to be content with the novelty and presumably is not supposed to ask questions regarding delays at the terminals. Unfortunately, however, industry thinks in terms of utility, not innovation for its own sake. The benefits of speedy transit should extend from sender to receiver, which can be accomplished only through the elimination of cumbersome postoffice machinery in which an air mail missive is "just another letter."

GYP JOINTS AND THE BONUS.

[St. Louis Post-Dispatch.]

Through the murder of Charles Maginness last Thursday night the police have become aware of what seems to be a concerted plan on the part of St. Louis gamblers to fleece veterans of their bonus money. Maginness was killed in an alley near his home on the eve of the scheduled opening of a place in St. Charles known as the "400 Bar," where a craps game evidently was to be set up in the back room. Maginness was an associate of Sylvester Baldwin, notorious police character, and the ex-convict and gambler, Tony Foley. One theory of the murder is that Maginness was killed because of an attempt to "muscle in" on what promised to be a highly profitable racket.

The bonus is to be paid on the evening of June 15 in the form of bonds which veterans will be permitted to cash immediately. In St. Louis alone, millions of dollars for ready cash will thus become available for expenditure. Many, if not most, of the men who are to receive the money can make good use of it. Some are on relief. Others have bills to pay. But the temptation to experiment with a windfall will be strong, and the gamblers, like so many vultures, are circling around in the hope that they can separate the men from their money in the quickest possible way.

Maginness' murder has given rise to reports that more than a dozen gambling joints would be opened in St. Louis within the next few weeks to prey upon the veterans. The "400 Club," apparently, was only one of a chain of gyp joints being prepared. It is difficult to imagine anything lower than a general plan to divert a huge sum of money from the pockets of the veterans and the normal channels of trade into the hands of the gamblers.

A LINE O' TYPE OR TWO

"35 GIRLS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS from Waitresses' School."—Headline. Waitresses' schools have graduation day and Oxford capes and mortar board hats and a valedictorian and diplomas and a speech by dear old prexy and everything. It's a grand idea. I'm glad there's a waitresses' school, for I am sure a graduate of that excellent institution would never tell me, "Say, party, we hain't no more roast beef. What about hot dog?" I do hate to be called "party." But a waitresses' school graduate would never do that. She would be much more likely to say, "I'm very sorry, indeed, sir, but roast beef has been consumed by previous customers and we have now only the very warm canine." But just so she didn't call me "party." I absolutely am unable to eat when a waitress lady calls me "party."

THAT LONG DEFERRED CRISIS in France may happen any time and, CRASH—down comes the Vendome column. Modern progress has made it a bit hard on Paris mobs; in the old days of the Revolution and even during the Commune Paris was paved with blocks which tore up very easily and made lovely barricades. But now most of the streets are asphalt, which is distressingly hard to tear up. However, when a Paris mob gets started it can tear down or tear up anything, including the Eiffel tower, the bourgeoisie, and the Seine.

THE WORLD IS ON A SHUTTER AND NEEDS A DOCTOR CUTTER

Good morning, ah, good morning, Doctor Cutter,
As usual, I'll wander down your column;
There is no better way to learn a bit each day—
The Line may joke, but Life is real and solemn.

You answer many questions, Doctor Cutter,
Explain and warn and sometimes gently razz;
It's funny how such thrills can be in human ills,
As long as I am not the bird who has

A pancreatic cyst, good Doctor Cutter,
It has a certain mean and vicious sound;
And I will always quiver at cirrhosis of the liver,
But let me be away when it's around.

The things that you have taught me, Doctor Cutter,
You're a bloodhound when it comes to trailing facts;
I'm at home with boils and rickets, and the many round trip tickets
I've had with you right through digestive tracts.

And had he but your style, my Doctor Cutter,
Of hope the world would not seem so bereft—

Though you could jump a column, Doctor Cutter,
Since you can take conditions that are bad,
And manage to be cheerful while spilling out an earful—

EVAN S. TONIAN.

SOMEBODY ought to send out an expedition to find out what has become of Herr Hitler. He is most suspiciously quiet, but, of course, he's up to something. My guess is he's boring a mine shaft straight through the earth and some fine morning he's going to leap out in China or some place around there, pull at his foolish little mustache, and say blithely: "Good morning, world! Well, here I am again!"

A VOX POPPER SUGGESTS that the Republicans adopt as their campaign song the beautiful old ballad "I'm a little prairie flower, growing wilder every hour," so as to rebuke Mr. Farley, the w. k. postmaster general, who called somebody "the governor of a typical prairie state." But suppose the Democrats counter with this old ballad:

"The potatoes they grow small in Kansas,
The potatoes they grow small in Kansas,
The potatoes they grow small,
But they eat 'em hides and all,
And they wear no socks in Kansas."

The Republicans massed on one side of the street singing "I'm a little prairie flower, growing wilder every hour," and the Democrats on the other side of the street singing "The potatoes they grow small in Kansas" would certainly brighten up the campaign.

THE QUEEN MARY is a magnificent ship, but a lot of us are going to wait until she's equipped with motor buses so that if our rooms are back in tourist third (I know mine will be there) we can go up towards the bow of the boat to have picnics and get back home to our staterooms the same day.

MARY ALBER'S EYES.

If one did not know
One could never guess
Why Mary Alber's eyes
Are lusterless.

Mary Alber's eyes
Once were brown
And the loveliest
In Riverton.

But now her eyes,
Like a faded dress,
Are rings of rust
And colorless.

I happen to know
Why Mary's eyes
Turned colorless as Winter skies.

I'll inform anybody
How Riverton's vamp
Lost her brown eyes—
Send stamp.

ABORIGINE.

GOV. LANDON seems to have inherited several of the characteristics of his state. He is going like a prairie fire. And how a prairie fire can go!

YES! WE ARE QUEER.

EVERY one longs to be happy and to find his lot in life cast in pleasant places. Ambition we must have, but not the sort that inhibits enjoyment of the present. We sympathize deeply with the one who appears to have much, but who, nevertheless, is always grumbling because he is a bit short of his goal.

Such a person is wide of the mark by limitless space. Insecurity, lack of satisfaction, unachieved longings are likely to breed peculiarities of thought or conduct that may lead to a type of behavior that stamps us as queer. The one who rebels against circumstances that he cannot change destroys poise and occasionally mental balance. Some persons possess the power of ready adjustment to almost any situation. Others require longer periods as they are likely to view new scenes, new faces, new personalities with unwaranted aloofness.

Why do certain individuals adjust themselves easily and others with great difficulty? The answer is basically that of youthful impressions. The child who has grown to manhood or womanhood under the influence of a dominating mother deserves our commiseration. He has been overprotected, overcautioned, and overinstructed. He often presents a helpless picture—unable to make decisions no matter how trivial.

In such a home the father is not even vice president and, regardless of his standing in the community or in the world of affairs, has but little influence on the child's personality. Strong is the character that can survive under such a handicap and remold his outlook on life. These sensitive, cloistered, sheltered children—as adults—are easy prey to superstition, cultism, and introspective thinking.

When one develops a neurosis the very fact denotes an attempt to substitute for the realities of life something easy or at least more appealing. Fears, anxieties, prolonged periods of depression, doubts, etc., all characterize various phases of the condition. The individual may become an addict to self-pity and attempt to drown his sorrows with drugs or alcohol. Married life may be unsatisfactory even when linked with a normal partner. The victim may embrace an odd philosophy of life and regard himself as independent of the rules of society. He defends his attitude in saying "I am broadminded, 'way ahead of the times, modern." He may become a thrill seeker and, finally, after a few years of drinking life's cup to the dregs, tire of existence and threaten suicide on the slightest provocation. And all the while he knows that he is living a sham life.

The remedy, of course, lies in finding something that will bring genuine satisfaction—a type of gratification that comes as the result of effort. Ofttimes the creative instinct may be aroused, and frequently the patient may be encouraged to learn of things and affairs. The study of science offers in many cases a hopeful outlook and familiarizing oneself with the habits of living things—birds and plants—has saved many a queer person. The life history of mosses, ferns, and wild flowers of a given locality will, if mastered, develop logical thinking.

If such a person can but recognize the symptoms, cure is more than half accomplished. He may then be able to smile at his weaknesses and discount them to their proper values. The reading of an elementary book on psychology, particularly if it contains a good chapter on the emotions, will often help him to understand his many vagaries. While mental exercise is the objective yet it must be begun gradually, otherwise introspection may be unduly emphasized and the patient may feel that he is utterly unable to rise above his fears.

Perhaps each of us is a bit queer. It is no sign of greatness, however, to parade the streets in a straw hat in the middle of winter or to don a bearskin on the hottest day in summer. Nevertheless, the world requires the fostering of individuality. All men need not wear blue ties, nor all women blue dresses, but somewhere in between bizarre actions on the one hand and drab unity on the other lies the middle ground of what we call normal behavior.

RECOVERY PROBABLE.

J. W. writes: I had a mastoid infection 13 months ago. After the operation I could not wrinkle my forehead and my jaws were tight for some time. Was this facial paralysis? My ear is still draining and the back of my neck is stiff. My mouth, especially the roof, nose, and front wall of the throat have a peculiar "pulling" feeling. I also have dizzy spells. What does all this mean? Will I recover in time?

REPLY.

A simple bruising of the nerve during a mastoid operation may be followed by transient paralysis of the muscles of one side of the face. The paralysis is usually worse in the lower portion as that part of the face is supplied by the more superficial fibers of the nerve. The nerve may be completely severed without causing permanent paralysis, as it will grow out from the cut end. Some of your symptoms no doubt are the result of the infection; others of the operation. Recovery is probable. It is assumed that you are in skilled hands.

GAGGING.

Mrs. F. W. M. writes: What is the cause of a child gagging while eating his breakfast? His meal consists of a fruit, cooked cereal, toast, and a glass of milk.

REPLY.

Probably contraction of the stomach which may not be associated with nausea. The symptom may arise because there is a distaste for food or the odor may be unpleasant. Change the diet entirely, substituting other materials. Another plan involves delaying breakfast until the middle of the forenoon. In most instances the following régimen will be successful: First, brush teeth and rinse mouth thoroughly with some unsweetened mouth wash. Second, have child drink slowly a half glass of cool water that contains 2 teaspoonfuls of lemon juice and one lump of sugar. After one hour serve breakfast as usual. Sometimes there is a true digestive upset that must be investigated by the physician.

EXERCISE.

A. M. writes: A claims that a woman can lose weight just as quickly by doing housework as by walking in the open air. B claims that the latter method is better.

REPLY.

Although housework provides some exercise it may become drudgery and hence lose its value in building health. Walking in the open air is actually more beneficial, as one is usually carefree and happier.

DAY BY DAY IN THE MAKING OF THE CONSTITUTION.

BY JAMES MADISON.
[Father of the Constitution and Fourth President of the United States.]

Who Shall Appoint Federal Judges?

The judiciary clause of the Virginia plan is under consideration. It has been resolved that the federal judiciary shall consist of "one supreme tribunal and one or more inferior tribunals." Mr. Wilson opposed the appointment of judges by the national legislature. Experience showed the impropriety of such appointments. Intrigue, partiality and concealment were the necessary consequences. A principal reason for unity in the executive was that officers might be appointed by a single, responsible person.

Mr. Rutledge of South Carolina was by no means disposed to grant so great power to any single person. The people will think we are leaning toward monarchy. Dr. Franklin of Pennsylvania in a brief and entertaining manner related a Scotch method of judicial selection in which nomination proceeded from the lawyers who always selected the ablest of the profession in order to get rid of him and share his practice among themselves. Mr. Madison of Virginia disliked the election of judges by the legislature. On the other hand he was not satisfied with referring the appointment to the executive. He rather inclined to giving it to the senatorial branch. He moved that the question be passed for maturer reflection. The question carried, Connecticut, no; South Carolina, no.

From Across the Sea

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

MEXICO CITY.—The National Revolutionary party has just announced that it recognizes the absolute equality of women, in both the political and social sense, and will shortly undertake a program that will considerably aid the cause of suffrage in Mexico.

This program revolves around the following points:

1. Equal rights and opportunities for women.
2. Equal remuneration and guarantees for men and women when they perform equal work under equal conditions.
3. Equality of educational opportunities.
4. Equal civil rights in respect to matrimonial relations.
5. Equal civil rights to vote and take part in political life.

To the American woman these points may not seem to be great strides, but to the Mexican women they open the beginning of a new era. The National Revolutionary party also has pledged itself to establish educational and social service centers throughout the country with the purpose of aiding the Mexican women in their fight for independence.

The main obstacle in the path of women's suffrage has been religion, for it is admitted that the feminine sex is the bulwark of the church, a fact that is evident upon entering any cathedral during services. Mexican statesmen have feared that once women were granted the right to vote they would immediately become reactionaries. This has caused much dissension, particularly between the house of representatives, which has gone on record as opposing women's suffrage, and the National Revolutionary party, which has consistently defended it.

Last month the party announced that as a test ballot women members would be permitted to vote for the first time in the elections of the federal district. Contrary to all expectations [particularly the cries of those diehards who expected the women to make fools of themselves at the polls] the elections turned out to be the best organized and most peaceful that had ever taken place here.

Whether this was entirely due to the feminine influence the National Revolutionary party has never declared. However, by announcing its decision to continue with its program for equalizing women's rights the party seems to be convinced that women are in politics to stay.

WAGE ASSIGNMENT.

Chicago, June 1.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I signed with two others as co-makers on a note about six years ago. The maker skipped, the other co-makers lost their jobs and [1] left me holding a wage assignment. I have been paying weekly up to about two years ago, when I lost my job. If I find work again [2] will I still be subject to a wage assignment or [3] garnishment on the new job? The maker will collect his army bonus shortly. If he is located [4] is there some way his bonus can be attached, either by me or the loan people, to collect the unpaid balance and also the share I paid?

H. W.

1. We assume that you mean left you obligated on a wage assignment.
2. No, the wage assignment is only good on the original job.
3. The garnishment exemption is $20 per week to the head of the family.
4. No. TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

WITHIN THE LAW.

Chicago, May 29.—[Friend of the People.]—An electric liquor sign has recently been placed at the rear of a fruit store in our neighborhood. This is very unpleasant to all neighbors who sit out on their porches. It seems that so long as this liquor department and fruit store are under one management their sign could be placed in front of the store.

H. V. E.

This sign was erected on Jan. 15, 1936, on permit No. 96134. This territory is zoned for business and the sign has been erected and connected in accordance with the ordinances. There is an annual fee paid to the city for inspection and compensation on this particular sign. Under the circumstances we regret that we cannot be of assistance to you in the matter.

W. A. JACKSON,
Asst. Commissioner Streets and Electricity.

NO CHARGES, NO HEARING, NO REASONS.

Evanston, Ill., June 1.—All of us who are interested in library work in Illinois, and especially those who have been intimately associated with public library service, either as professional librarians or as trustees of libraries, deeply regret the action of Secretary of State Hughes in asking summarily for the resignation of Miss Anna May Price, the state extension librarian in his office.

Miss Price had no charges preferred against her, no reasons were given, no hearing was held. When she returned home from attending the annual convention of the American Library association at Richmond, Va., she found this demand for her resignation.

We feel that a great injustice has been done to a most faithful, competent, and useful woman in the state service. It is a matter of extreme regret that petty politics has entered into an institution and work that are not involved in any way with politics. Miss Price has served the state in a most effective manner for 22 years. She has had to do chiefly with "mothering" struggling and small libraries that really need expert and intelligent attention. She has seen the need of library service extended through rural areas and communities which had not the advantage of reading material. It was Miss Price who initiated the movement to have the state legislature allocate $600,000 from a general fund to replenish libraries with books because in most instances they had not been able to make purchases during the depression era. In all her work Miss Price has been most coöperative, never domineering, ever ready to give advice. Those of us who have served as library trustees for many years and have had occasion to come in contact with her and know her valuable service found her helpful and constructive. As a former president of the Illinois Library association Miss Price contributed greatly to its splendid work in the state.

FOR A FIRST BALLOT NOMINATION.

Chicago, June 1.—Landon should be nominated on the first ballot and by a majority that will show the country such a unified front and purpose that it will in turn engender more determination and create more votes than almost any other action. In other words, lick the Democrats in the first round.

What a tremendous vote getter it would be if every delegate voted for Landon on the first ballot! Such first time in history action would literally set the people afire with enthusiasm and throw such a scare into Democratic ranks that many of them would be licked before they started. What news, what headlines such a thing would make possible! Sponsor such a movement, Mr. Editor, turn all your guns and fire now in that direction.

E. B. OVERSHINER.

IT HAPPENED TO BE TRUE.

Chicago, June 1.—I cannot understand a paper, representative of a city in which at least 25 per cent of the population and business comes from below the Mason-Dixon line, insisting at every opportunity on casting slurs on that part of the country.

I refer particularly to the cartoon by John T. McCutcheon where the Black legion is represented as having been organized by the sons of southerners.

This accomplishes no purpose and certainly does not increase the love for your paper of the people of southern origin in Chicago.

Why do you do it?

J. L. WILDS.

POT VS. KETTLE.

Chicago, June 2.—I wonder if those who are squawking about Great Britain having money to build the Queen Mary and not paying her war debt squawked about Italy having money for a war and not paying her war debt. Britain's money was spent for something constructive; Italy's for something destructive! Furthermore, the Queen Mary is not owned by the British government; it is privately owned. Would it be out of place to suggest to those so-called Italian-Americans who rushed to Italy's rescue by sending her their gold and jewelry to help her win the Ethiopian war that they show an equal loyalty to the United States, the country that feeds them and provides them with home and opportunity, by paying Italy's war debt to the United States?

AGNES HARKNESS ANDERSON.

Chicago, June 2.—Yes, Mr. Jones, the United States not only set an example of repudiating debts to foreigners but has on many, many occasions repudiated debts to its own citizens. Take, for instance the seizure of private cotton during the civil war by the north. Did they ever repay those private southern owners for their cotton? Perhaps in a few cases they did, but in the majority of cases they did not. I know of no case in history where Great Britain has trimmed its own citizens.

Mr. Jones, have you forgotten [or perhaps you did not know] that only recently the United States government repudiated the gold clause in its own bonds, thereby trimming all holders of those bonds out of a fabulous amount? That sounds very much like repudiation or, if you prefer it, confiscation.

R. H. S.

DEMOCRATIC STRATEGY.

Chicago, June 2.—The Rooseveltians want recovery and prosperity to a certain extent, just about status quo, to make people believe "we planned it that way" and we would have more of it were it not for Wall street and the Supreme court.

On the other hand [besides spoiling their relief vote buying] more satisfactory conditions and a chance for every one to make a living, now and later, would prove most unwelcome to the administration planners, for where, then, would they find the pretext or excuse for making America over, the goal heralded by the precocious Tugwell?

So it may be assumed that for the coming five months the administration forces and politicians will be inclined to favor not worse and not much better economic conditions either; and then if they succeed in drawing the wool over a sufficient number of eyes they may feel free to proceed, pretext or not, to make their goal come true.

C. BOTKER.

IN PRAISE OF JUDGE GORMAN.

Chicago, May 22.—Please extend my thanks to Judge Gorman for the excellent work he is doing. In a short time at the pace Judge Gorman is traveling results of his fair and honest trials will show up on the streets by an improvement of motorists. I have been before Judge Gorman myself as a defendant and can honestly say that he fines and issues jail sentences only in relation with the seriousness of the offense.

MOVIE RELEASES.

Chicago, June 1.—Why do New York, Tampa, Waukegan, What Cheer show such outstanding movies as "Little Lord Fauntleroy" and "Show Boat" weeks and months before Chicago?

15 NEW WARANTS ISSUED IN PROBE OF BLACK LEGION

3 Confess Flogging, Then Plead Not Guilty.

Detroit, Mich., June 4.—[Special.]—As a grand jury investigation of the Black legion got under way here today, 15 more warants charging violence by the terrorists were issued and three of those named were arraigned.

The three were placed in the county jail, where 17 other men are awaiting completion of examination on murder and abduction charges in the "ritual" slaying of Charles A. Poole, young WPA worker.

The new defendants, Earl Angstadt, 35, of Ecorse; Fred A. Gulley, 26, of Ecorse, and Thomas F. Cox, 31, of Detroit, at first pleaded guilty to kidnaping and flogging Robert Penlan, Ecorse steel worker, then were allowed to change the plea to not guilty by standing mute. Held in bonds of $100,000 each, they will be examined Monday.

The other warants were of the John Doe type.

They Point Out Victim.

Instead of being identified by their victim, who was too frightened to accuse them, Angstadt, Gulley and Cox pointed out the man they took from his home last Oct. 12, at the point of a gun. Gulley told how Penlan was taken to the terrorists' "whipping tree," in Oakland county and lashed with a cat o' nine tails for indifference to Black legion rules about attending meetings. Angstadt and Cox confessed taking Penlan to the field, but denied he was flogged.

In his statement to Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea, Gulley told of other floggings, declared the Black legion responsible for a bombing at the home of the Ecorse mayor and named several local politicians as having attended Black legion meetings in a Knights of Pythias hall in River Rouge.

Among those he named as having attended was Kenneth Weber, who was an assistant to James E. Chenot when the latter was prosecutor of this county.

Says Grand Juror Attended.

Chenot, now a circuit judge, is conducting the one man grand jury investigation of the Black legion which began today.

Also named as having attended a Black legion meeting was Clyde Markland, present clerk in Judge Chenot's court.

Markland was implicated with his brother, Ray, former mayor of Highland Park and now on the staf of Prosecutor McCrea, at an informal meeting of the Highland Park police and fire commission.

Upon learning of the accusation, Judge Chenot disclaimed responsibility for Clyde Markland's presence in his court, stating he was an appointee of a former county clerk.

Clerk Quits His Post.

Shortly after, Clyde Markland, while denying Black legion connections, resigned his clerkship.

Prosecutor McCrea questioned his assistant, Ray Markland, who incidentally participated today in the investigation of the three charged with kidnaping and flogging, and obtained an emphatic denial of the accusations.

Only one witness, Inspector John A. Hoffman of the police special investigation squad, appeared before the grand jury today. He testified behind locked doors all morning and part of the afternoon and will be recalled tomorrow.

At Pontiac a one-man grand jury investigation of the terrorists will begin before Circuit Court Judge George B. Hartrick of Oakland county, Wednesday morning.

At Jackson four men were bound over to Circuit court for trial on charges of kidnaping and flogging Harley Smith, 46. The men held were Ray Ernst, suspended prison guard; his brothers, Clarence and Glenn, and Allen Bascom.

POLLS WATCHER FOUND GUILTY ON BALLOT CHARGE

Philip Zimmerman, 28 years old, 808 West 35th street, a Democratic election watcher, was convicted yesterday of illegal possession of seventeen ballots of the 57th precinct of the 11th ward in the primary election of last April.

The verdict was returned by a jury before Judge George N. Blatt of Joliet, sitting in County court here. Zimmerman faces a maximum penalty of one year in jail and a $2,000 fine, but Judge Blatt will hear a motion for a new trial on June 17.

A charge of voting illegally in the 22d precinct of the same ward is still pending against Zimmerman in County Judge Jarecki's court.

SNAKE INVADES NEST OF ROBINS; KILLED BY POLICE

Mrs. Mary Jasper, 1120 Noyes street, Evanston, heard a commotion yesterday in a robin's nest in a tree in her back yard. She looked up to see a large snake had attacked the nest, killing all four of the young birds. Mrs. Jasper called the Evanston police and Policeman Frank Mountain arrived soon afterward with a shotgun. He killed the snake, a blue black reptile 4½ feet long. Residents of the neighborhood said it probably was the snake which had been reported seen several times in the last three years by pupils at the Marywood school, 2128 Ridge avenue.

BOY FILM STAR TO CONTINUE IN AUNT'S CUSTODY

Parents Will Share in His Earnings.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4.—(AP)—Attorneys for principals in the Freddie Bartholomew custody controversy agreed tonight upon an arrangement whereby his aunt will continue to have his custody and his earnings will be shared by his parents.

At the conclusion of a conference of several hours, at which counsel for the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Llewellyn Bartholomew, and the aunt, Miss Myllicent Bartholomew, were present, Isaac Pacht, attorney for the parents, said the general terms of the agreement had been reached.

Reduced to Writing Today.

It will be reduced to writing tomorrow, he said, and submitted to the principals for their acceptance. If this is given the proposal will be presented to Superior Judge Harry Archbald on June 8 for his approval.

"Under the terms agreed upon the guardianship of the aunt would continue during the dramatic career of the boy," Attorney Pacht said.

"The mother and father would have free opportunity to visit the boy and would establish a home here for themselves and their other two children and resume a normal family life with the boy.

Create Trust Fund for Him.

"This does not mean that the proceeding in any sense is an adoption by the aunt. The parents would continue to be in the relationship of parents and child.

"Freddie's earnings would be utilized, first, for the establishment of a trust fund for the boy; second, for the support and maintenance of the mother and father and the other two children, and, third, for the support and maintenance of the boy and his aunt."

STEAMER LIMPS INTO PORT AFTER GOING AGROUND

Woods Hole, Mass., June 4.—[Special.]—The New York bound British steamship Fort Amherst, which ran aground last night off Martha's Vineyard, limped into Vineyard Haven, across the channel, today, after her twenty-six passengers were brought to the mainland by the coast guard cutter Argo.

Capt. Reginald Kane of the Fort Amherst declined to discuss the accident which damaged the ship's side and made it necessary for her cargo to be shifted before she could be brought to port.

Capt. Henry Stevenson of the lighter Eben S. Thatcher, which helped shift the vessel's cargo, said that Kane told him the Fort Amherst struck a rock considerably below the line while proceeding at slow speed during a heavy fog.

RECEIVER ADMITS PROFITING FROM BUILDING DEALS

Hurwith Contends It Is "Usual Practice."

Howard K. Hurwith, insurance broker who is receiver for 32 Chicago buildings, admitted in a Superior court hearing yesterday that he profited indirectly from the purchase of refrigerators for buildings under his control. He defended this procedure and the acceptance of fees for the insurance of his buildings on the ground that it is "the usual practice."

Hurwith was summoned before chancery judges of the court who are sitting en banc to determine standard practices for their guildance in the hearing of cases of receivers who have made insufficient tax payments.

The questioning of Hurwith began on May 11. The judges who heard him then were Walter P. Steffen, originator of the plan to set up rules of receivership procedure; Walter T. Stanton, Grover C. Niemeyer, Francis B. Allegretti, and Harry B. Miller.

Open Way for Defense.

After the hearing the judges decided to consider each of Hurwith's receiverships separately to give him an opportunity in each case to defend himself against removal as receiver.

Hurwith revealed yesterday that he is president of the Northern Finance corporation, which purchased—at a 4 per cent discount—credit paper issued by R. Cooper, Inc., dealers in refrigerators. Hurwith also testified that he had purchased refrigerators from the Cooper company for buildings he controls as receiver, but insisted it was ethical for him to do so.

Another witness questioned was George C. Baker, assistant secretary of the Consumers company, who testified that "my company apparently got coal business from Mr. Hurwith's buildings by placing its insurance with A. F. Shaw & Co." [Mr. Hurwith is connected with the latter firm.]

"It's a Common Practice."

Baker added that it is a common practice for business concerns thus to exchange courtesies. He testified that the Shaw company may have attracted other business than Hurwith's to the Consumers company.

"I got the commissions on the Consumers company insurance," Hurwith told the judges later in the hearing, "but I couldn't do otherwise. I obtained the insurance accounts and, according to the underwriters' rules, I am not allowed to turn my commissions over to anyone else."

Judge Steffen, as head of the chancery division of the Superior court, has criticized Hurwith's management as receiver because the taxes on buildings under his control are not paid in full.

R. O. T. C. HEAD SUBMITS PLANS FOR NEXT YEAR

Asks School Board to Buy Freshmen Uniforms.

Col. W. F. Morrison, head of the R. O. T. C. in Chicago, yesterday submitted his annual report to Superintendant of Schools William H. Johnson listing the organization's needs for the next school year. His recommendations for improving the R. O. T. C. in the 27 high schools where 8,370 cadets are enrolled are expected to be taken before the board of education this summer.

Col. Morrison recommended that the board purchase uniforms for freshmen who enroll in the R. O. T. C. next fall, pointing to an army regulation that prescribes the government is to outfit only students in the three upper classes. Heretofore the government has provided all the uniforms. Last year 3,000 freshmen, who comprise 40 per cent of the R. O. T. C. strength in Chicago, were equipped.

Could Still Enroll.

"The absence of uniforms would not prevent freshmen from enrolling, but the effect of 3,000 cadets parading in civilian clothes would be detrimental to morale" the report said.

Col. Morrison, in listing the needs for the 1936-'37 terms, said the R. O. T. C. teaching personnel, composed of 27 enlisted men, must be increased to 35 if efficiency is to be attained. To permit the instructors to give full time to classroom and field work, Col. Morrison asked the board to employ a man in each school to care for R. O. T. C. equipment.

Wants Bands Limited.

The R. O. T. C. bands, although necessary in the corps, should be limited in size since many of them are out of proportion to the unit strength, Col. Morrison said. Seven schools where R. O. T. C. training is given only three days a week should be brought up to the standard of five days a week next fall, he urged.

COP FOR 10 YEARS, BUT CAN'T FIND CENTRAL STATION

Park Policeman Daniel Skord surprised Judge John Gutknecht in the Trafic court yesterday by admitting that although he has been a policeman for ten years he didn't know where the Central police station is.

Skord offered that excuse when he was put on the defensive by Andrew J. Callinan, 33 years old, a railroad employé, who was arraigned in court for parking illegally. Callinan, who gave his address as room 324 in the Union station, said the policeman forced him to drive around for an hour before giving him a summons.

"I was searching for the station," Policeman Skord offered. Then it came out that he didn't know the station was in the police building at 11th and State streets.

Judge Gutknecht discharged Callinan. Then he summoned Skord's superior officer, Sergt. James Flavin. "Although I can't do anything about him, I want you to know that this man is either too dumb or too crooked to be on the force," the judge told Flavin.

Gov. Talmadge Asks Prayers for Rain.

Atlanta, Ga., June 4.—(AP)—Crop losses due to the southeastern drouth passed the $100,00,000 mark today.

A $50,000,000 estimate for North Carolina topped the seven state list.

Georgia executives suggested prayer and federal aid to combat the menace which the elements have shifted to cotton, tobacco, and produce fields from wheat and cattle ranches of the midwest.

Consumer interest mounted with rising vegetable prices.

Weather observers said there was no prospect of immediate general rains.

Showers Help But Little.

Scattered showers helped to check forest fires burning on a 60 mile front in Southwest Virginia, but otherwise served for the most part only to crust top soil and lower temperatures.

Black loam fields turned gray in the heat and red clay to yellow. Dust blew before storm clouds in Alabama. Other states affected are Tennessee, South Carolina, and Maryland.

Eugene Talmadge, farmer governor of Georgia, urged "all preachers to have meetings Sunday afternoon to pray for rain."

Direct federal grants, without "strings," were proposed by Commissioner of Agriculture Tom Linder to meet "this act of providence." A Talmadge aid, he wired the suggestion to Representative Emmett Owen [Dem., Ga.] in Washington, D. C.

Potato Prices Soar.

A drouth sufferer wrote Senator Walter F. George [Dem., Ga.]:

"Will you ask the President would he take the Bible and straighten up the U. S. A. so we can get some rain?"

Produce dealers increased prices and called for supplies from other parts of the country to swell depleted stores.

Irish potatoes sold at $4 a bag wholesale in Atlanta, a hike of 100 per cent over the price two weeks ago.

'LOOP' FARMERS GET SPECIAL MAPS SO THEY CAN EXCHANGE VISITS

Plans have just been completed for the exchange of visits this summer among the 206 members of the Chicago Farmers, an organization of loop land owners started last December. For the convenience of members the locations of the farms are indicated on a special printing of THE TRIBUNE's new Chicagoland road map which shows the highways and byways in this area. At the top of the map a roster of the organization is printed with an index so that the farms may be easily found. These maps are for the exclusive use of members.

About 88 per cent of the Chicago Farmers own land in the Chicago territory covered by the map. A few own farms both inside and outside this area. Practically all of them have offices in the loop and find time to make frequent trips to their farms.

More than 90,000 acres of land are owned by the organization's members. About half of them have dairy farms and the other half general live stock and grain farms. Most of the dairy farm owners produce milk for the Chicago market. They have herds with a potential production of more than 140,000 pounds of milk daily, according to Porter Fox, president.

STUDENT SLAYS INSTRUCTOR AND ENDS OWN LIFE

Bethlehem, Pa., June 4.—(AP)—Envisioning failure on the eve of graduation, a Lehigh university senior shot and killed one of his teachers today and committed suicide.

WESLEY L. CLOW.

The student, Wesley L. Clow, 23, of Pine Castle, Fla., killed Charles W. Phy, 27, English department instructor, after demanding a reëxamination in a course in which he had failed. Clow then stepped from the recitation room and shot himself.

Harry Snavely of Lancaster, Pa., another student, said the instructor told Clow that written approval from the dean was necessary before a reexamination could be given.

Snavely said Clow stood for a moment, then said: "Well—"

At this, Phy, apparently sighting the pistol, shouted "O! Don't!"

Several shots rang out and Phy, wounded twice in the chest, ran from the room. Clow died about half an hour after Phy.

WOMAN IS HELD TO U. S. JURY ON LIQUOR CHARGE

Mrs. Mary Sola, 41 years old, 121 East 123d street, was held to the federal grand jury in bonds of $6,500 yesterday by United States Commissioner Walker on charges of violating the internal revenue law. Daniel D. Glasser, assistant United States attorney, told the commissioner that a quantity of liquor was found in a haystack behind Mrs. Sola's home. He charged the woman had sold alcohol to Harlan Crouch, Indianapolis bootleeger, who shot and killed John R. Foster, an agent of the alcohol tax unit, near Hammond on May 14.

Report Decline in Typhoid; Fewer Deaths in 93 Cities

Typhoid fever is steadily dying out in the United States, the American Medical association said yesterday in its annual report on the disease. Deaths from the fever in 93 large cities fell from 470 in 1934 to 385 last year, the report showed. In the area including Chicago, five cities, Grand Rapids, Milwaukee, Peoria, Youngstown, and Fort Wayne reported no deaths from the disease

Wins a Divorce from Stepson of Irene Rich

Mrs. Marjorie Blankenhorn, 21 years old, 1260 Astor street, was granted a divorce by Judge Rudolph F. Desort in the Superior court yesterday from John S. Mrs. Blankenhorn alleged that her husband deserted her five months after their marriage on Sept. 12, 1934.

Day By Day Story of the Experimental Farms

By Frank Ridgway

Wool to Market.

June 4, 1936.

SHEARERS completed their work of clipping the flock of sheep at the Tribune's Wheaton Experimental farm yesterday. The 299 sheep produced a total clip of 2,025 pounds or an average of 6.77 pounds per fleece. The flock included 102 head of yearlings.

Eighteen head of the sheep are grade Corriedales. They produced fleeces averaging 9.51 pounds. Their fleeces ranged in weight from 8 to 11½ pounds. Twenty-eight fleeces clipped from yearling Southdowns were weighed separately and ranged from 5 pounds to 9¼ pounds.

High Grade Praised.

All of the wool was sold at 32 cents a pound. The clip was loaded onto a truck and taken from the farm soon after the last sheep was clipped. J. Kaufman of the Caron Spinning Co. at Rochelle, Ill., bought the wool which is to be spun into worsted yarn. He says the Wheaton farm clip is the best clip he has bought in the middle west this season. Mr. Kaufman has been buying the Wheaton farm wool for several years and reports the shrinkage is extremely low as compared with most other clips.

There was an abundance of grease in the wool. This was due to the fact that the shearing had been delayed until after the sheep had had time to range outdoors in the sun on warm days. The grease content was high although the sheep were sheared when the temperature dropped down in the neighborhood of 50 degrees.

With the clip bringing between $900 and $1,000 the farm manager considers the production of sheep a profitable way of marketing forage. No grain or any other kind of concentrate was fed to the flock while the sheep were growing their last fleeces. They have been fed almost exclusively on alfalfa hay and grass.

Healthy Young Ones.

In addition to producing a high grade wool, the breeding flock has produced a good crop of healthy lambs. With slightly less than 200 ewes there are today more than 200 lambs at the farm. The wethers will be marketed in the fall and from the ewe lambs dropped this spring the best will be selected and added to the breeding flock next year.

The average of a little less than 7 pounds of wool to the animal was considered satisfactory because more than one-third of the flock is made up of yearling ewe lambs that have been kept for breeding purposes.

The 299 fleeces sold yesterday included four clipped from the backs of rams sheared more than a month ago, and also the fleeces from three yearling wethers. The wethers' fleeces weighed from 9 to 10 pounds each.

DAY ACQUITTED OF KILLING LOEB IN PRISON FIGHT

growled: "Well, let's get going. We'll be taking you back and taking some of that big head out of you." Day was returned to the penitentiary.

Attorney Byrne announced that Herman Silver, owner of a furniture store at 233 West 63d street, Chicago, has offered to act as Day's sponsor if the acquitted convict is paroled, and will give Day a job in the store.

Joseph Ragen, warden of Stateville penitentiary, previously quoted as saying he would oppose parole for Day, was out of town last night and could not be reached for comment.

Argue on Second Ballot.

The jurors disclosed that they took two ballots on Day's guilt. On the first ballot one refrained from voting and eleven favored acquittal. On the second ballot the twelve agreed. The jurors would not comment on whether the famous Franks slaying case of 1924 had any influence on the speed of their decision, but indicated that Loeb's reputation was a factor in Day's favor.

Loeb and Nathan Leopold murdered Bobby Franks, young son of an acquaintance, just for the thrill of killing. Leopold, too, is serving terms of 99 years and of life.

"There was no question but that the defense proved Day killed Loeb to protect himself from an attempted felony," one juror said. "He fought for the defense of his honor."

Furious Battle Described.

Both men were nude during the battle—Day, according to his testimony, by order of Loeb, who compelled obedience with a razor which he had smuggled in. The men met in the shower room by appointment to discuss what Day termed "14 months of hounding" by Loeb.

When Loeb demanded submission to indignities, Day testified, they fought desperately on the slippery floor. The razor changed hands several times, but Day had it last, inflicting 53 slashes on his adversary.

In his final argument to the jury yesterday morning, Defense Attorney Levy attacked the character of the state's witnesses, and accused State's Attorney William R. McCabe of Will county of playing politics in having Day indicted. After the indictment McCabe was defeated in the April Republican primary for renomination as state's attorney. He did not take part in the prosecution, delegating the task to his assistants, Walter O. Herschbach and Charles McKeown.

Assails Prison Régime.

Defense Attorney Byrne assailed the administration of Stateville penitentiary, asserting that Loeb and Leopold ran the institution, corrupting other convicts. Byrne and Levy declared that Day "had the right and should have killed Loeb."

Herschbach, in the prosecution's final argument, referred to Day as "Jimmy the mutilator, Jimmy the butcher." Herschbach offered no excuses for Loeb's conduct but declared Day might have been receptive. Though the jury was qualified to impose death, the state asked only for a life sentence.

Judge Wilson gave the jury 55 instructions. The jurors, qualified to impose death, were given five forms of verdicts, the death penalty, life imprisonment, imprisonment for not less than 14 years, manslaughter with not more than 14 years in prison, and acquittal.

Selection of a jury to try Day, begun on May 25, took four days. Introduction of evidence began last Monday. Testimony disclosed extraordinary privileges enjoyed by Loeb and other favored convicts at Stateville penitentiary. One convict testified for the defense that Loeb made improper proposals to him in 1934, offering him "anything in the prison or that money can buy" if he would yield.

TAX DELINQUENCY SERIOUS MENACE, SAYS STOCKWELL

Chicago and Cook county governments soon will confront the worst financial crisis in their history unless the tax delinquency situation is remedied, members of the Kiwanis club, meeting in the Hotel Sherman, were told yesterday by Harland C. Stockwell, assistant secretary of the Civic Federation and Bureau of Public Efficiency.

Some of the causes of delinquency, according to Stockwell, are the imposition of taxes heavier than depression afflicted real property can pay, the unsettled tax collection procedure, the inclusion of illegal items in tax levies and rates, and archaic organization and methods of recording tax collections in the collector's office.

MEEKER SEEKS CUT IN ALIMONY TO SECOND WIFE

Lawrence A. Meeker, insurance man, filed a petition before Judge Philip J. Finnegan in Circuit court yesterday seeking a reduction in the $75 a month alimony he was ordered to pay his divorced second wife, Ruth Campbell Meeker. His income, he said, makes it impossible for him to keep up his payments.

The couple were married in June, 1927, and were divorced in September, 1933. Mr. Meeker is now living with his third wife at 1350 North State parkway.

Yesterday's petition listed Mr. Meeker's 1934 income at $2,900 and his 1935 income at $1,579. During the first five months of 1936, he said, his income was less than $400.

TALE OF TOOTSIE, THE GOLDFISH, ENLIVENS TRIAL

And Canary That Brings Home the Bacon.

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—A goldfish named "Tootsie" that is said to jump from its bowl to answer the telephone for Detective Charles S. Corbett, and his pet canary that goes on errands for him to the grocery store, were described in the Drukman conspiracy trial today in an attempt by the defense to discredit Corbett as a witness.

Corbett, one of the first detectives to work on the case, also was the first person to charge that $100,000 in bribes had been offered to protect the three men, later convicted, who murdered Samuel Drukman on March 3, 1935.

He has not testified yet but is expected to be the state's chief witness against the five now on trial charged conspiracy to obstruct justice.

The Witness is Reluctant.

The Baron Munchausen stories ascribed to Corbett were brought out by Leo Healy, a defense attorney, in his examination of two witnesses. One of them was John A. Lynch, a stenographer in the office of District Attorney William F. X. Geoghan.

Lynch exhibited considerable nervousness when Healy questioned him about Corbett, who he admitted, is his intimate friend.

"Did Corbett ever tell you he had a canary?" Asked Healy.

"Yes," admitted the witness.

"Did he ever tell you that this canary could sing 'The Old Spinning Wheel in the Parlor'?"

Lynch's "yes" was drowned in an uproar.

And Good Old Tootsie.

"And did he tell you about his goldfish, 'Tootsie,' that jumps from its bowl and answers the telephone?"

The witness smiled faintly and nodded affirmatively. The jury was almost convulsed. Even the judge grinned broadly. But Hiram C. Todd, special prosecutor, jumped to his feet with a stern objection.

"Defense counsel has no right to attempt to discredit the testimony of a witness," he protested. "We'll be trying the case all summer if we proceed this way."

"Not all summer!" retorted Mr. Healy, "long before the summer is over we will prove that Corbett is a lunatic."

More Canary Stories.

The witness was permitted to tell more about Corbett, and he volunteered that Corbett had told him several stories about the canary.

Q. What else did he tell you? A. He told me that the canary goes to the A. and P. store for groceries.

"Now," continued the attorney, "isn't it a matter of fact that Corbett carried around in his pocket a small vial in which he carried what he called his tonsils, and he kept talking to you all the time about his tonsils?"

This was denied.

Alcatraz Warden Denies Report of Capone Fight

San Francisco, Cal., June 4.—(AP)—Warden James A. Johnston of Alcatraz Island, the government prison today said there was no truth in a rumor that Harmon Waley, kidnaper, had knocked out Al Capone, former Chicago gang leader, in a fight. Both are prisoners in Alcatraz.

PLAN HOSPITAL FOR NEUROLOGY RESEARCH HERE

State, U. of I. Will Join in Building Center.

The University of Illinois and the state department of public welfare are planning to establish in Chicago one of the best neurology and psychiatry research hospitals in the nation, A. L. Bowen, secretary of the department of public welfare, and yesterday at corner stone ceremonies for the $1,457,000 medical and dental laboratory building which the university is constructing at Wood and Polk streets.

The research hospital will be constructed in the same area, south of the Cook County hospital, adding to the university's present units there, Mr. Bowen said. These include a research hospital devoted to general diseases.

Officials at Ceremonies.

O. M. Karraker of Harrisburg, president of the university board of trustees, laid the corner stone for the laboratory building, and Dean R. D. Carmichael of the graduate school presided.

Dr. A. C. Willard, president of the university, said the new building would enable the university to "fulfill more completely its obligations to the people of the state and the nation in providing better medical and dental education." Dr. Frederick L. Noyes, dean of the college of dentistry, also participated in the ceremonies.

The cost of the neurology and psychiatry research hospital has not been estimated.

Benefits of Hospital Seen.

Mr. Bowen said it "will pay for itself by helping to curé mental and nervous diseases, thus reducing the cost of maintaining asylums and criminal institutions."

The corner stone ceremonies opened commencement activities of the university's medical, dental, and pharmacy schools. Graduation exercises will be held at 10 a. m. today in the Civic Opera building when 335 students will receive degrees.

570 ALIENS PASS COURSE OF STUDY IN CITIZENSHIP

Diplomas Are Given After Learning of U. S.

BY MARCIA WINN.

The 60 year old baker, who came to America from Bohemia 24 years ago, smiled broadly, his teeth white against his walnut face. "I have learned," he said happily, "about the citizens and history of America, the free country."

Joseph Madoush, 2836 Taylor street, was speaking. He was one of 570 aliens who were graduated yesterday from the school of citizenship sponsored by the board of education. He went to night school three months, and yesterday, in Simpson hall of the Field museum, he received a diploma tied up in a red, white, and blue ribbon and heard himself called, at the age of 60, a "young American."

Learns of Constitution.

"What else have you learned?" he was asked as he stood in a line with aliens of every nationality awaiting the processional.

"That the—what you call it?—the constitution goes like this—'We the people,' and that they made it in Philadelphia for the first colonies."

Other graduates, proud of their new knowledge, joined eagerly in the discussion. "I learned why America is a free country," a goateed Latvian merchant spoke up.

"I learned why is the government," declared a Greek matron, her dark eyes shining under a yellow hat. "Now I wait to be a citizen."

Courses teaching such knowledge as is a prerequisite for naturalization are given at the citizenship schools, which are held at night in public schools situated in areas of dense foreign population. These courses include the reading and writing of English, civics and history. Through all, however, runs an undercurrent of citizenship, and this was stressed again yesterday by speakers at the graduation exercises.

"Respect the Flag."

"You all know the word patriotism now," Dr. Charles J. Lunak, assistant superintendent of schools, said. "Well, you can't show patriotism by wearing a little flag in your buttonhole, but you can be good citizens by obeying the laws and by having respect for our flag and for our American ideals."

Many of the graduates, having won their citizenship diplomas in former years, this year received a sixth grade diploma, entitling them to do seventh grade work, or an advanced diploma, entitling them to enter high school. All the adult education work is under the supervision of Miss Frances K. Wetmore, who yesterday distributed the diplomas.

SEEK MISSING CARPENTER.

The police last night were seeking August Pearson, 53 years old, 3216 Seminary avenue, a carpenter, after his daughter, Ada, reported he had been missing since May 28.

HUSBAND IN CELL; WIFE ASKS SHARE OF INHERITANCE

Mrs. Frances E. Winslow, 28 years old, 1501 Jarvis avenue, appeared before Judge Joseph Sabath in Superior court yesterday and asked for her share of a $1,196 inheritance left to her husband, William, who is now serving a 15 year term in San Quentin penitentiary for robbery. The money is needed, she said, to care for the two children who were deserted with her in 1933, shortly before her husband was sent to prison.

Mrs. Winslow said she was married in 1925 at Waukegan and that she was compelled to place her children in institutions when her husband deserted her.

Judge Sabath issued an injunction on May 18, restraining Winslow's mother, Mrs. Florence Winslow, 902 Margate terrace, and Attorney F. Harold Bennett from disposing of Winslow's inheritance. He deferred until June 14 a ruling on the younger Mrs. Winslow's plea for a share of the money.

TRIBUTE IS PAID C. H. M'CORMICK IN FINAL RITES

Service Is Attended by City's Leaders.

Funeral services for Cyrus H. McCormick, one of the founders of the International Harvester company, were held yesterday afternoon in the Fourth Presbyterian church, North Michigan avenue at Chestnut street. A great throng of his friends crowded the interior of the church, the corridors, and the lawns outside.

Private services, attended only by members of the family and intimate friends, were held in the morning at Mr. McCormick's Lake Forest estate, Walden, where he died suddenly on Tuesday of coronary thrombosis at the age of 77.

At the public service in the afternoon the crowd included many of Mr. McCormick's associates and employés in the business established by his father, Cyrus Hall McCormick. Department heads, office clerks and stenographers, plant foremen, and even factory workers were there, mingling with many of Chicago's industrial and financial leaders.

Some Send Condolences.

Some of Mr. McCormick's closest friends, unable to be present, sent messages of condolence to the family. These included John D. Rockefeller Jr., Charles R. Crane, Gordon Rentschler, John H. Hammond, and William E. Dodd, United States ambassador to Germany.

The service at the church was conducted by Dr. John Timothy Stone and Dr. Harrison Ray Anderson. Neither mentioned Mr. McCormick's philanthropic and civic activities, but during the final prayer Dr. Anderson said:

"O, Lord, we praise thee for the gift of this life. We recall all in him that made others love him. We thank thee for all the goodness and truth that passed from this life into other lives and made the world richer and happier in its passage."

Buried in Graceland.

After the church services, the body was taken to Graceland cemetery. There another brief, private service was held, again attended only by members of the family and close friends. Mr. McCormick was buried beside the graves of his parents.

Directors of the International Harvester company, which Mr. McCormick formerly headed as president and chairman of the board, served as active pallbearers. They were:

|---|---|
| John A. Chapman | Harold F. McCormick |
| Thomas E. Donnelley | Addis E. McKinstry |
| Wm. S. Elliott | George A. Ranney |
| Maurice F. Holahan | Albert A. Sprague |
| James R. Leavell | Judson F. Stone |
| Sydney G. McAllister | John Stuart |
| Chauncey McCormick | John P. Wilson |
| Cyrus McCormick | |

One of Mr. McCormick's sons, Gordon, was in Honolulu and unable to return in time for the funeral. Members of the immediate family attending the services were Mrs. Alice Holt McCormick, the widow; Cyrus H. McCormick Jr., a son; Harold F. McCormick, a brother, and Mrs. Emmons Blaine, a sister.

PAIR TERRORIZE WOMAN IN HOME, SEIZE $350 GEMS

Two men entered the home of John O'Malley, 7735 Ridgeland avenue, yesterday, and after terrorizing Mrs. O'Malley and a colored maid, fled with $30 and jewelry valued at $350.

The pair entered by representing themselves as deliverymen. One of them choked Mrs. O'Malley, who is about 60 years old, to compel her to disclose where she kept the jewelry. He then kept guard over her and the maid while his confederate looted desk and dresser drawers.

Mr. O'Malley, who is a real estate dealer, said two men tried to hold up the household less than a month ago, but were frightened away when he returned home.

Two gunmen who posed as prospective tenants robbed Mrs. Edith Hughes, owner of a rooming house at 24 West Ontario street, of $100. The men tied Mrs. Hughes and her husband, William, to chairs with adhesive tape before leaving the place.

Train Kills 3 Boys Hunting Butterflies Along Tracks

Iowa City, Ia., June 4.—(AP)—Three high school boys hunting butterflies were killed here today when they jumped out of the way of a freight train into the path of the Rock Island's Rocky Mountain Limited passenger train. The victims were Robert Chehock, 15, and Darrell Ott, 15, both of Iowa City, and Bob Bruce, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bruce of Galena, Ill.

Mother Gives Her Life to Save Paralytic Son

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—William Mangan, 48, a paralytic, was in Jewish hospital today suffering from a fractured leg—his life saved through the death of his mother, Margaret, 73. Mrs. Mangan, a widow, of Brooklyn, took her son for a short walk last night. While they were crossing a street a truck bore down upon them. She thrust William aside and was crushed to death.

Dr. Wilbur W. Beckett, 79, Is Dead in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, Cal., June 4.—[Special.]—Dr. Wilbur W. Beckett, 79, vice president and medical director emeritus of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance company, died here yesterday. He was a member of the first graduating class of the University of Southern California in 1888. He was a past president of the California State Medical association.

HAROLD TEEN—SURPRISE

END TESTIMONY AT VICE TRIAL; CASE NEAR JURY

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Both sides rested late this afternoon in the trial of Charles [Lucky] Luciano and eight others as heads of the vice racket in this city after a day devoted to attacks on the character and testimony of important state witnesses.

The final defense witness, Patrolman George Hedit, reluctantly described an occasion on which he and one of Special Prosecutor Thomas E. Dewey's assistants took Mrs. Mildred Balitzer, a prosecution witness, to three night clubs early one morning. He said she was quite drunk when the junket was ended.

Fidgeting and ill at ease, the patrolman, who was assigned to guard Mrs. Balitzer and several other women witnesses, also admitted that she had always been quite sober when he took her to Mr. Dewey's office for questioning, but that she was not always sober when she left.

Mrs. Balitzer, a former drug addict and madam of a house of prostitution, gave damaging evidence against Luciano, testifying that she knew him and heard him admit he was head of the vice racket.

Summations of counsel probably will be lengthy, and it may be tomorrow night or Saturday before the jury begins considering the evidence.

LIFER CONVICT DENIED RELEASE TO WED WIDOW

Little Rock, Ark., June 4.—(AP)—Love failed to find a way today for a romancing Arkansas convict and his correspondence course sweetheart.

Gov. J. Marion Futrell blighted the long distance courtship of life termer Ed Hardwick and Mrs. A. C. Tuveson, Indiana widow, by turning a deaf ear to their plea for Hardwick's release.

"I have really looked for some ground on which to free Hardwick on account of Mrs. Tuveson," said the governor. "At this time I find nothing which will justify this course."

The 52 year old South Bend widow appealed personally in behalf of Hardwick, convicted murderer one year her junior. She told the governor she fell in love with Hardwick while they corresponded through a magazine column. Hardwick said he wanted his freedom so they could marry.

"In the last three years I have learned to admire and respect him more and more," Mrs. Tuveson said.

"In fact, I care a very great deal for him and now pray for his release because I love him.

"As to Ed's innocence, I personally haven't the slightest doubt."

E. Stanley Holland, 69, to Be Buried in England

Funeral services for E. Stanley Holland, 69 years old, who died on Tuesday in his home at the Union League club, will be held Monday at St. James Episcopal church. Interment will be in England, his former home, where two brothers and two sisters survive him. Mr. Holland came to Chicago 40 years ago. He retired eight years ago as vice president of Bates & Rogers Construction company, 111 West Washington street.

Robert E. Belknap, Former Chicagoan, Dies in Boston

MICHIGAN WILL RETURN RELIEF RULE TO COUNTY

Lansing, Mich., June 4.—[Special.]—In line with Republican state administration policies, but possibly in conflict with those of Washington relief officials, the state emergency relief commission today agreed to formulate a program which would return to the counties greater control over relief expenditures.

The commission members said they would submit the program to Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald tomorrow. They refused to make any comment on their probable recommendations until they have been filed in the executive office. It is presumed, however, that the plan will provide for formation of local welfare commissions.

Dr. William Haber, state emergency relief director and assistant WPA administrator, attended the conference with the governor at which it was decided to draft the proposed changes, several of which he has recommended frequently and was instrumental in incorporating in a recent commission report.

The governor ordered drastic curbs on expenditures for care of crippled and afflicted children. A deficit of $628,000 in the appropriation for the last fiscal year has been incurred, and the governor wishes to reduce expenditures during the fiscal year starting July 1 to keep the children's commission within its $1,400,000 appropriation. The governor demanded that all nonemergency expenditures be halted July 1 and that parents be required, after that date, to take a "poverty oath" as a requisite to provision of free treatment.

ARTISTS GATHER TONIGHT; SEEK NATIONAL UNION

The Artists union of Chicago is sponsoring an assembly of artists from states of the central west to be held in Recital hall of the Auditorium building tonight, tomorrow, and Sunday, in which they will attempt to unite with eastern groups in a national union.

More than 100 delegates from artists' unions and similar organizations in Michigan, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Indiana, Ohio, Kansas, and Missouri will attend, said Sydney Loeb, executive secretary for the Chicago Artists union.

"Eastern artists recently organized to pass opinions on the proposed bureau of fine arts provided for in a federal arts bill to be presented to congress," Loeb said. "We hope to set up a similar organization, then unite with theirs, to form a national union."

Among the subjects to be discussed are "repression and censorship of artists in government art projects and in exhibitions," public and trade union support of art, municipal art galleries and commercial art organizations.

Mail Box Thief Sentenced to 3 Years in U. S. Prison

Louis D. Miller, 40 years old, 911 Airdrie place, was sentenced to three years in Leavenworth penitentiary yesterday by Judge Charles E. Woodward in federal court after he pleaded guilty to charges of stealing from apartment mail boxes. Miller was arrested on April 29 when Miss Roberta Middleton, 926 Judson avenue, Evanston, saw him fleeing from her home after he had rifled the mail box. Miller admitted stealing nearly 300 letters, from which he extracted checks and cash totaling $1,417.

Discovers $1,600 Theft After a Maid Vanishes

Mrs. A. K. Richter, wife of an assistant produce superintendent for Swift & Co., yesterday reported to police the apparent theft of $1,500 in jewelry and $100 from her home at 9829 South Hoyne avenue. She said she discovered the loss after her colored maid failed to report for work yesterday. Police went to the home of the maid, whom Mrs. Richter had employed for a month, but could not find her.

Czechs to Build Big Forts Along Border of Germany

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 4.—(AP)—Construction of massive fortifications along the German border was approved today by the supreme defense council, presided over by President Eduard Benes. Money to finance them is to be obtained by loans already voted. The council fixed construction details, but did not publish them. Details also were discussed for strengthening the army's equipment.

News of the Radio Stations

BY LARRY WOLTERS.

Things the microphone doesn't tell you:

Clara, Lu, 'n' Em, off the air since last January, are all set to return as the headliners of a new evening show under sponsorship of a refrigerator company. Show starts Friday, June 26, and will be aired from 8:30 to 9 o'clock in the spot now occupied by Fred Waring, who will move to the 8 to 8:30 period. There will be an orchestra to support the Gossiping Girls, perhaps Ted Fio-Rito's or Henry Busse's.

Amos 'n' Andy are starting for their new home in the west after tonight's broadcast. Freeman Gosden [Amos] is taking a night plane for Hollywood and Charlie Correll [Andy] will follow in his own plane tomorrow morning. They'll be back on the air from the coast Monday evening. . . . The Maple City Four, novelty quartet, are leaving the WLS National barn dance for Hollywood and a movie assignment next week.

Walter Wicker is leaving Chicago radio for the west coast July 1. During the illness of Erna Phillips, Walter has been writing "Today's Children" alone as well as acting in the serial. Miss Phillips has been back at the studio for a day or two after a long siege. Even while laid up she went on writing the script for Edgar Guest's "Welcome Valley." . . . A Hollywood scout reports that Bette Davis wore gray trousers the other night when she appeared with Bing Crosby on the air. And sandals that revealed tinted toes!

Allan Grant, radio pianist, has not yet decided whether he will go with Ireene Wicker, the Singing Lady, when she moves to New York on June 26. Allan also provides the music on the Mary Marlin series and makes guest appearances on other programs. And he plays the piano for the Chicagoland Music Festival vocal contests. . . . The day after Wayne King's opening in New York, Alton Cook, a New York radio editor, wrote of him: "One does or doesn't like Wayne King's slow paced music, but after talking to him it seems too bad more people are not so unassuming, straightforward, and sincere. He's very likable."

Ted Weems' musical narrative, "The Martins and the Coys," based on the Hatfield-McCoy feud, has been getting a big play the last week. Fred Allen sang it, then Judy Canova did it with Paul Whiteman and Tuesday Ethel Shutta gave her version of it with Ben Bernie. . . . Other day Ted got a letter from E. R. Bradly of Anderson, Ind., telling of his part in the feud. "I got mixed up with the Hatfields," he explained. "I was at Olive Hill, Ky., when the scrap started—station wrecked, train cut in two—head end cut off and taken by the Hatfields. I got shot in the arm four times."

Will of Annie M. Brown Leaves $21,900 to Charity

Bequests to charity totaling $21,900 were included in the will of Miss Annie M. Brown, daughter of a Lake Forest pioneer, filed yesterday in the Probate court of Lake county at Waukegan. Miss Brown died April 2 in her home at 872 Church road, Lake Forest. Her will specifies gifts of $5,000 each to the Alice Home hospital, Lake Forest; the Presbyterian Home for the Aged, Evanston, and the First Presbyterian church in Lake Forest. Smaller bequests were left to other institutions. The balance of the $30,000 estate is to go to distant relatives.

Rev. Dr. Homer Tope Dies; a Temperance Crusader

Philadelphia, Pa., June 4.—[Special.]—The Rev. Dr. Homer W. Tope, 78, temperance crusader who had served for the last sixteen years as superintendent of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon league, died here today.

F. W. Farnsworth Dies; Advertising Executive

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Frank Walton Farnsworth, 56, executive of the Campbell-Ewald Advertising company of New York and former Detroit manager of the J. Walter Thompson company, died today.

GRANDNIECE OF PRESIDENT POLK IS DEAD IN N. Y.

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Mrs. Rollin P. Grant, 68, grandniece of James K. Polk, the eleventh President of the United States, died tonight at her Park avenue home.

A native of Nashville, Tenn., Mrs. Grant was the widow of Rollin P. Grant, former president of the Irving Trust company, who died in January.

Her full name was Saidee Polk Fall Grant. She was the daughter of Sarah Polk Getton Fall, niece and adopted daughter of President Polk.

She was first married to Matthew McClung Gardner of Nashville. Survivors are three sons, Robert Gardner of Pittsburgh, and Paul and Matthew Gardner of New York.

Dies of Heart Attack at Lodge Band Rehersal

William A. Champieux, 50 years old, 8754 Harper avenue, died of a heart attack last night as he was rehersing for a concert with a Knights Templar band in the St. Paul Universalist church, 6400 Dorchester avenue. He was a road superintendent for the Oxweld Acetylene company, 230 North Michigan avenue.

TOLEDO MAN FOUND DEAD.

Melvin Sherman, 60 years old, 305 Segar avenue, Toledo, O., a representative of the Nickel Plate railroad, was found dead in his room in the Fort Dearborn hotel, 125 West Van Buren street, late last night. He apparently had succumbed to a heart attack, according to the central police.

VETERANS MAY STAY ON RELIEF DESPITE BONUS

IERC Will Handle Each Case Separately.

Organized war veterans yesterday won their fight against any possible ruling that 22,000 Illinois veterans on relief would be dropped automatically from the rolls after they receive an estimated $11,000,000 in soldiers' bonus bonds on June 15. Instead, each case will be handled separately.

Officials of the veterans relief commission, who said they represented 163,000 veterans in various organizations, laid their plea before the Illinois Emergency Relief commission. The IERC then adopted a motion by Commissioner K. L. Ames Jr., state director of finance, which demanded that "the broadest degree of consideration be given the veteran before judgment is rendered that he shall lose his relief status."

Commissioner William H. Sexton, who seconded Ames' motion, pointed out that veterans must be given the right to buy clothes, household goods, and other necessities, including automobiles when they are necessary in helping them earn a living.

Between 10 and 12 per cent of all the veterans in Illinois are either on relief or on the pay rolls of the Works Progress administration, according to Omar Cooper, chairman of the American Legion state committee on relief.

The city council yesterday adopted the report of the joint city-county relief committee which urges that relief administration continue to be a state function after July 1, when most of the IERC's duties are scheduled to pass to the city and to townships outside of Chicago.

Order Wisconsin Trucks to Get Illinois Licenses

State highway police stopped 100 trucks bearing Wisconsin license plates at Des Plaines yesterday and warned the drivers they must get Illinois licenses. The police acted on orders from Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes, issued after Illinois truck operators complained that they were forced to buy Wisconsin licenses.

CITY-WPA PAVING TO HALT TONIGHT BECAUSE OF NSF

$918,000 for Asphalt Job Refused by State.

The city-WPA asphalt street resurfacing program will be halted tonight because the city lacks funds to pay 2,600 skilled workers whose services are needed in conjunction with the 6,700 Works Progress administration pay rollers. Ernest Lieberman, chief state highway engineer, said last night in Springfield that the city's appeal to the state for $918,000 in motor fuel tax money to carry on the work had been rejected.

Orders transferring the WPA workers to other projects, effective Monday, have been issued by H. K. Seltzer, director of WPA in Chicago. About 13,000 WPA workers will continue on other street projects not involving asphalt surfacing. The halt in the city work will not affect the park board-WPA street projects, including the resurfacing of parts of Michigan avenue.

Mr. Lieberman said it was impossible for the state to turn over the gasoline tax money to the city because plans and contracts for the WPA street work had not been approved by the highway department.

The city council earlier in the day adopted a resolution asking the WPA to furnish funds for the city's end of the work, to be repaid later. Robert J. Dunham, WPA administrator for Illinois, turned down the request with the statement that the WPA had almost exhausted its own funds.

The council also passed an ordinance authorizing construction and repairs of streets which are extensions of state highways or are arterials leading to them. The ordinance provided that plans be submitted to the state and requested $2,350,000 more in motor fuel tax funds be turned over to the city.

PREACHER'S TRIAL AS POLICE SLAYER GETS UNDER WAY IN TEXAS

Houston, Tex., June 4.—(AP)—Testimony that Police Chief Ed O'Reilly of Orange, Tex., took a pistol from the Rev. Edgar Eskridge the day before the officer was shot to death was heard today at the opening of the crusading Baptist minister's trial for murder.

A. Minchew, Orange radio repair man, said he saw O'Reilly and Eskridge sitting in the minister's automobile in front of his [Minchew's] shop when the action took place.

W. L. Blanchard, mayor of Orange at the time of the slaying, May 29, 1935, was the first witness.

In cross-examination Defense Attorney C. C. Collins attempted to bring out that there had been bad blood between O'Reilly and the preacher.

"Do you not know," he asked, "that the defendant had opened warfare against peace officers in Orange and Orange county, including O'Reilly, for failure to enforce the law?"

ROW OVER WPA IN NEW YORK ENDS, SAYS LA GUARDIA

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—A tentative compromise agreement between Borough President Harvey of Queens and WPA Administrator Ridder was reached today, and Mayor La Guardia announced that WPA highway work in Queens would be resumed at once.

The mayor's announcement indicated that the Harvey-Ridder fight had been definitly settled, but the warriors themselves didn't seem so sure about it. The agreement involved a letter which Harvey was to write to Ridder, and the administrator said he didn't know whether it would be all right until he saw it.

The letter, according to Harvey, was a clarification of the exact fields of work to be covered in the future by WPA and the regular borough engineering stafs.

Harvey didn't know whether he would withdraw his $250,000 slander suit against Ridder.

"No one is going to call me a liar," said Mr. Harvey. "If Mr. Ridder will take back what he said, I'll consider withdrawing the suit."

CLAIMS $100,000 FEE FOR WINNING A $45,000 LAWSUIT

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Max D. Steuer is justified in charging two clients $100,000 for winning a case which netted them $45,000 in damages, Official Referee Frederick Spiegelberg decided today, calling the fee "reasonable."

The Knickerbocker Theater, Inc., and the Clinton-Apollo Theater corporation retained Steuer to represent them in a dispute with the Greater New York Vaudeville Theaters corporation, R. K. O. subsidiary.

Steuer asked for $150,000. He said his clients told him he could set his figure if he won the case. Spiegelberg said he thought $150,000 was a little too much, but decided Steuer's services "were reasonably worth $100,000."

The two petitioners leased two theaters to the Greater New York Vaudeville Theater corporation.

There was a quarrel over pictures. The lessors charged violation of contract and engaged Steuer to represent them before a board of arbitrators. The board awarded $45,000 damages to the leasers and ruled that the lessees must live up to their agreement.

KNIFE WOUND IS FATAL.

These New Carson Fashions Make Terms with Summer

No use to defy Summer! Once she gets here to stay, she'll make her presence felt, no matter what. The only thing to do, we've concluded, is to meet her on her own ground, and come to terms with her. That's why we have made it a point in these fashions to consider coolness and comfort in cut, color, and fabric—without sacrificing a single fashion detail.

Novelty Weave "Tubbables"

A smart weave unsusceptible to mussing and agreeable to tubbing. Buttons file across each shoulder. There are deep, cool armholes. Rose, Nile, powder, oyster white, flesh, with contrasting sheer scarf. 12 to 18.

"Turnabout," a dress that shows its individuality by buttoning down the back, has a round neck in front accented by a bouquet of carnations. The same cool, waffle-weave fabric, in Nile, powder, oyster white, lilac, flesh, with contrasting piping. 12 to 18.

The same type of fabric in a finer weave fashions the frock with the polka dot sash and smart smocked shoulders, from which springs front fullness. In white, flesh, powder blue, maize. 12 to 20.

Misses' Moderate Price Frocks, Fourth Floor.

Pastel Washable Crepes

$5.95

Fagoting repeats itself in a series of rows down the front of this washable crepe frock. Smart oblong buttons supply a note of contrast. In white, blue, maize, flesh. 14 to 42.

Cotton Shop, Fourth Floor.

Washable "Elkskin" Crepes

$15

One of those cool-surfaced fabrics that get along so well with high temperatures. The style with the 7/8 coat has a tailored dress with tucks turning into pleats halfway down the skirt. In white with sunkist, green, navy, raspberry; banana with London tan; all white or all flesh. 36 to 44.

The suit frock with the cape-sleeved coat has an elbow sleeve in the dress. There's a deep V neckline with spaghetti trimming. Elkskin crepe in pervanche blue with raspberry; white with green, navy, or raspberry; all white or all banana. 36 to 44.

Women's Moderate Price Frocks, Fourth Floor.

MATERNITY SHOP

The frock is patterned in small flower clusters, in aqua with brown and white, white with copen or green. Sizes 12 to 20. Priced at

Vogue SAYS OF MATERNITY CLOTHES—

"Scrapped entirely is the old theory that a conservative surplice dress in a gloomy dark color is all you can wear . . . you find, adapted to maternity needs, the fashions of the moment: full sleeves, capes, box jackets, cool prints. With great skill, waistlines are lowered, and wrap-around effects adjusted by snaps."

The Maternity Shop at Carson's puts these words of wisdom into practice—by presenting this self-possessed young print suit frock, with pleats over the shoulder, a frilly mousseline jabot that centers detail interest above the waist, and a slim box coat.

CHICAGO WOMEN KNOW

AMERICAN FAMILY FLAKES SAVE TIME - SAVE WORK SAVE CLOTHES

MRS. GEORGE L. PLAMONDON
2814 N. Lakeview Avenue

Mrs. George Lawrence Plamondon, the former Florence Hoffman of Minneapolis, is one of Chicago's most charming and accomplished young matrons. Her interests are in her infant daughter Diane and her attractive looking home. This view of Mrs. Plamondon's living room reflects her charm and personality. Regarding the soap she uses in her home, Mrs. Plamondon states: "I trust my finest linens to American Family Flakes only, because I have found the pure mild suds are safe."

That's why American Family is the largest selling brand in Chicago

On the Gold Coast, North Side, South Side, West Side—yes, all over the town—women by the thousands have proved the advantage of using American Family Flakes as against cheap soap chips.

Cheap soaps usually make skimpy suds that simply won't get clothes clean unless you rub and rub. And it is this constant rubbing which wears out clothes—actually robs you of months of service you have every right to expect.

And the use of cheap soap chips is such a needless risk, with American Family Flakes at your command. Just read what these superb flakes do:

First, American Family Flakes' "double suds" float out grimiest dirt—without hard rubbing.

Second, American Family Flakes provide fastest washing with safety to clothes because they depend on "double suds" instead of harmful chemicals.

For ninety years American Family has demonstrated that it saves time, saves work and—SAVES CLOTHES. That is why more Chicago women use American Family than any other brand. You really can't afford cheap, harsh soaps that wear out clothes all too soon, and which require more soap to do the job. Try American Family Flakes your next wash-day—and note the difference.

5906 Midway Park

Mrs. Kilbridge is a devoted mother of six husky boys—Maurice, Bill, Jack, Jim, Joseph and Bob. Her wash-day problems have been greatly simplified by the use of American Family Flakes. As Mrs. Kilbridge puts it, "I simply can't afford to use cheap, harsh soap chips which require endless rubbing of clothes. I have found American Family Flakes prolong the life of my clothes because they soak out the dirt instead of having to rub it out."

MISS EDITH LEVERTON
1414 E. 59th St.

Miss Leverton is a music student at the University of Chicago. She lives on a strict budget. Miss Leverton says, "For my hosiery and lingerie I find American Family Flakes unexcelled. The gentle, double suds do not fade the colors and I find hard rubbing totally unnecessary."

POTATOES LEAD UPWARD SWING IN FOOD PRICES

Shoppers Will Find Few Items Marked Down.

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

The Tribune's weekly food survey reveals that the trend of retail prices is definitly upward this week compared to last. Today and tomorrow city and suburban shoppers will find few food items marked down from last week's levels. Several foods, including staples, fruits, and vegetables and meats, are higher.

Sugar and potatoes, the two old standbys that are usually on the housewlves' lists, are among the foods that are leading the upswing in prices. The beginning of the home canning season is helping to boost sugar prices. Many stores raised sugar last week. Others are following today and tomorrow, adding about 2 cents for a ten pound sack.

$1 a Peck Predicted.

Both new and old potatoes are higher. The prices already have been advanced to a high level for this season of the year. Wholesale and retail prices have been increased again this week and are expected to go still higher. Some are predicting that the retail price of potatoes will soon go to $1 a peck. Wholesale prices of new potatoes advanced as much as $1 a hundred during the last week.

There is a light crop of potatoes in the southeastern section of the country in Florida and the Carolinas due to cool and dry weather. The eastern markets that usually get their potatoes from that region have been forced to draw their supplies from Mississippi, Alabama and Louisiana, the territory that normally supplies the Chicago market in early summer, according to market reporters.

Old potatoes are scarce, most of them only fair in quality. Many retail merchants quit carrying old potatoes this week. But old potatoes are advancing in sympathy with the price of new potatoes.

Cabbage Prices Up.

Wholesale cabbage prices are advancing and some retail stores have raised their prices since last week. The recent cool weather has increased the demand for cabbage and receipts have been lighter than usual because of weather conditions in several southern states. Shipments of the Tennessee cabbage crop now are reaching the Chicago market.

Bananas, sweet potatoes, radishes and head lettuce are higher in most stores than last week. A few have raised their prices of green beans and spinach. The general quality of the lettuce crop is improving since shipments recently started from Washington and Oregon.

Wholesale prices of lettuce, cauliflower, dry onions, and fresh peas have advanced since last week. Cantaloupes, green beans, roasting ears, red raspberries, and fresh tomatoes are lower on the wholesale market than a week ago.

Few bargains are being offered this week-end in the butcher shops, although the recent upward trend in livestock and wholesale meat prices has been checked. Many stores are featuring pot and rib roasts of beef at about 2 cents a pound less than last week. Most other retail beef cuts are unchanged. The better grades of beef steers sold slightly higher this week than last at Union Stock Yards and there was practically no change in wholesale beef prices.

Strawberries Are Cheaper.

Most retail pork cuts are 1 to 4 cents a pound higher than a week ago. Live hogs sold steady to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher this week than last, while wholesale cuts of pork declined, loins dropping as much as $1 a hundred in some instances.

Lamb chops and leg of lamb are about 2 cents a pound higher than last week in most retail shops. Wholesale cuts of dressed lamb advanced as much as $1 a hundred during the week, reaching the highest level since June, 1930. Live lamb prices are beginning to drop. Farmers were paid 25 to 50 cents a hundred less for their lambs this week than last.

Strawberries, fresh cherries, beets, and fresh tomatoes are cheaper in most stores than a week ago. Most of the strawberries now are coming from Michigan and Illinois, where the crop is in full harvest.

TRIBUNE RECIPES

You've often wondered what to do with pie crust remnants? These suggestions may help you:

1. Roll grated yellow cheese into the pie crust remnants, dust with paprika, cut in thin rounds about butter cracker size, bake, and use as a basis for canapes.

2. Sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon, roll up jelly roll fashion, cut in very thin slices, and bake. Serve with tea.

3. Make tiny tart shells, fill with jam, and top with a dab of meringue.

PINEAPPLE PIE DE LUXE

1 fresh pineapple
¾ cup sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
½ cup pineapple juice
3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
Salt
2 eggs
⅔ cup milk

Cut the pineapple into cubes and cook gently with ¼ cup of the sugar and a tablespoon of its own juice. Stir in the lemon juice and let cool. Over the remaining sugar pour ¼ cup of hot pineapple juice. Blend the flour with the remaining pineapple juice, left cold. Combine these two mixtures, add the milk, butter, and beaten eggs, and cook in a double boiler until thick and smooth. Cool. Mix the drained pineapple with the custard and turn into baked pastry shells. Serve with sweetened whipped cream, or, if the egg whites are omitted from the custard, they may be used for a meringue.

CHICKEN MOUSSE IN TOMATO SHELLS

1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup milk
2 tablespoons gelatin
1 tablespoon cold water
8 tomatoes
1½ cups diced chicken
½ cup diced celery
⅓ cup whipping cream
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Make a smooth paste of butter and flour. Add milk gradually and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Add gelatin which has been softened in cold water. Add the celery and chicken. Season well with salt, pepper, and paprika. When cold and partially thickened fold in the stiffly whipped cream and mayonnaise. Add the lemon juice. Scoop the centers from tomatoes, drain, and fill with the chicken mixture. Chill thoroughly.

ENGLISH RUM CAKES

½ cup butter
1¼ cups fine granulated sugar
3 eggs, well beaten
½ cup milk
2 tablespoons rum
2½ cups cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt

Cream the butter to the consistency of whipped cream. Gradually beat in the sugar, whipping until the mixture is light and fluffy. Beat the eggs until light, and combine with the sugar and butter mixture, again whipping thoroughly. Combine the milk and rum. Sift together the flour, baking powder, and salt. Add the flour and mix alternately, beginning and ending with the dry ingredients and beating thoroughly after each addition. Pour batter into buttered muffin pans and bake for 10 minutes in a slow oven, 300 degrees F. Then increase the heat to 375 degrees and bake 15 minutes longer.

FUDGE BROWNIES

½ cup butter
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
2 squares melted bitter chocolate
1⅓ cups pastry flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
1⅓ cups chopped nut meats
2 teaspoons vanilla

Cream butter until plastic, then add sugar and cream until soft and fluffy. Add eggs and beat hard. Add chocolate melted over hot water and combine well. Sift flour, then measure. Resift with salt and add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Add nuts and flavoring. Spread ¼ inch thick in square cake pans lined with oiled paper. Bake 15 minutes in a slow oven [300 degrees F.]. Cut in squares while warm. Use a sharp knife so that nut meats will not pull cake apart.

CANTALOUPES HERE AGAIN; PERFECT FOOD FOR SUMMER MEALS

It's a sheer delight to have cantaloupes back on the market. In the crisp delicate meat of this fruit one finds a perfect summer food suitable for breakfast, lunch and dinner. This year make your cantaloupe a la mode with chocolate ice cream. It's really delicious. Or fill the half melon with red raspberries and sliced bananas, or fill the center with whipped cream and fresh fruit pulp.

To make an interesting cantaloupe fruit cup, place small sections of grapefruit in a sherbet glass—filling it about half full. Pour over this two tablespoons of grenadine sirup. Fill glass with small balls of cantaloupe, place cherry on top, and serve well chilled.

Cantaloupe balls combine nicely with these inexpensive ingredients to make a tasty fruit cup. Combine equal amounts of cantaloupe balls, sliced bananas, diced oranges, and shredded coconut. Sugar to taste. Mix well and chill.

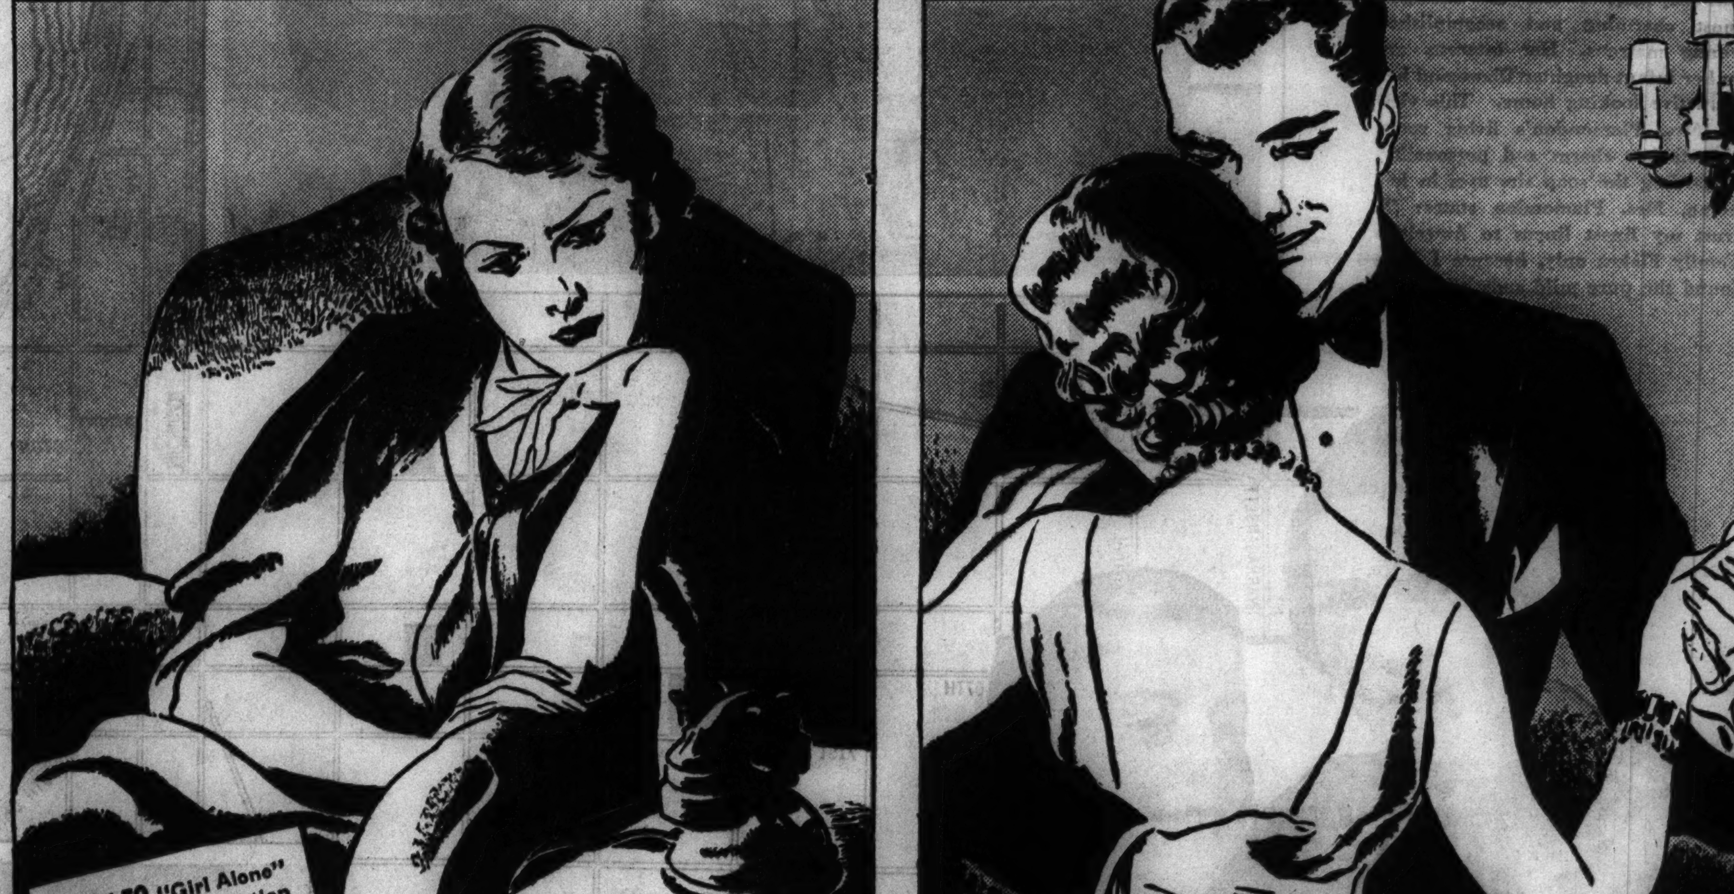
"Daddy and me—we're great salad eaters. And you can't tell us that ordinary dressings are anywhere near as good as Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise."

And you can't wonder at that! For Hellmann's is made differently. That's why it tastes so much more delicious . . . is so much richer and creamier . . . more full-bodied. You see, Hellmann's Real Mayonnaise contains only choice salad oil, freshly-broken eggs, special vinegar, and imported spices. No starchy fillers. It is all mayonnaise! And it's double-whipped for extra creamy smoothness.

So, why not get a jar of Hellmann's—today! And see how much better your salads taste with real mayonnaise! It costs but a trifle per salad.

HELLMANN'S REAL MAYONNAISE



CARELESSNESS—that often brings UNHAPPINESS

YOU may know girls like the one on the left—at home, unhappy, while others are out enjoying life.

Often they are victims of ill health that results from unwise dieting—from eating meals that lack sufficient "bulk" to provide needed internal exercise.

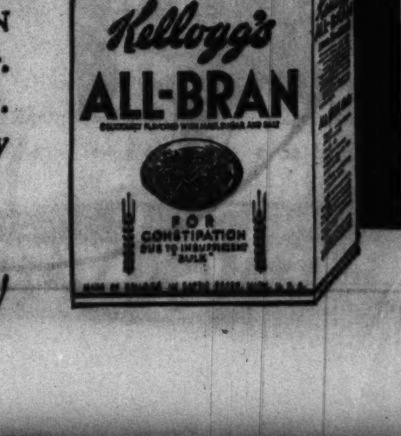
Common constipation results. Too often it isn't regarded as serious. Yet doctors will tell you that constipation can slowly undermine your health, leading to discomfort, lowering of bodily resistance, and disease.

Don't neglect constipation. Usually it is due to lack of "bulk" in the foods you eat. When it is, Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is a safe and pleasant corrective. Scientific tests in leading universities have shown that this delicious ready-to-eat cereal supplies the "bulk" needed to provide regular elimination.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN absorbs moisture in the body, forming a soft mass that gently cleanses the intestinal walls. It does not break down in the system as does the "bulk" in many fruits and vegetables. So it is often more effective.

Isn't it better to use this natural laxative food in place of patent medicines? Two tablespoonfuls of ALL-BRAN daily, served with milk or cream, are usually sufficient. Stubborn cases may require ALL-BRAN oftener.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is not a "cure-all"—but it does correct common constipation. It is guaranteed by the Kellogg Company. Enjoy ALL-BRAN as a cereal, or cook into appetizing muffins, breads, waffles, etc. ALL-BRAN has a tempting nut-sweet flavor. Eat it regularly for regularity. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.



Serve ALL-BRAN regularly for regularity

Salt Enhances Flavor of 'Sweet Tooth' Dishes

Sweet foods are enhanced by the addition of a bit of salt. For example, fudge recipes usually call for a speck of salt. Conversely, foods with a salty flavor are enlivened by something sweet. Hence the popularity of serving stewed figs, dried apricots, or raisin sauce as a garnish for ham.

A Few Cans Will Solve the Picnic Supper Problem

Excellent picnic suppers can be prepared from a few cans of something like spaghetti and meat balls, baked beans, tamales, and chili con carne, heated in a long handled sauce pan over the campfire. Raw vegetable sticks well wrapped in waxed paper may be taken along as accompaniment.

150 Chicks Hop in Sun on Hatchery's Dump Pile

Carlinville, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—Residents could hardly believe their eyes today when numerous chicks were seen hopping around the dump pile at a nearby hatchery. The poultry company captured the chicks and estimated that more than 150 had been hatched in the hot sun this week.

OLIVES ENHANCE BAKED DISHES AND A MOUSSE

Raise Foods Beyond the Commonplace.

The booklet, "Jellies and Preserves from Early Gardens," is on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 South Dearborn street and Tribune Tower, for 3 cents. By mail, 5 cents, stamps or coin. Address mail requests to Mary Meade, Chicago Tribune.

BY MARY MEADE.

An industry that standardizes its product sizes as extravagantly as do the ripe olive growers, what with their gradations of "select" [small] through "super-colossal," and running the whole gamut of "large," "extra-large," "mammoth," "giant," and "jumbo," is in for a great deal of fun poking. Still, that has nothing to do with the goodness or the popularity of the ripe olive itself, and who are we housewives to object as long as we're told exactly how many olives to the pound each of those sizes indicates?

The black sheen of the ripe olive as an accent on the relish platter and its distinctive flavor are a couple of points that we needn't discuss. Rather, it seems infinitely more important to inquire just how much use of ripe olives you're making in your every day [and company] cooking. All too often the innate possibilities of the ripe olive are neglected, and cooks simply don't think to add a chopped sprinkle here or there where it really might add a world of new interest.

One of our favorite dishes using ripe olives used to be an ordinary enough baked stuffed egg affair. Now it's a luncheon dish to be served to the most discriminating guest without apology. We make it like this:

6 hard cooked eggs
Salt, paprika, mustard, melted butter
1½ cups medium white sauce
¾ cup grated American cheese
2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
½ cup chopped ripe olives

Halve the eggs lengthwise and remove the centers. Mash the yolks, and season to taste with salt, paprika, mustard, and melted butter. Refill the egg whites. Lay the halves, stuffed side up, in the bottom of a shallow buttered baking dish. Combine the white sauce with the cheese, pimiento, and olives. Pour over and around the stuffed eggs, and sprinkle with buttered crums. Bake in a moderate oven until the sauce bubbles and the crums are slightly browned.

Crabmeat and Olive Soufflé.

3 tablespoons butter
3 tablespoons flour
½ teaspoon salt
1½ cups milk
1 cup flaked crabmeat
4 tablespoons chopped ripe olives
3 eggs

Make a white sauce of the butter, flour, salt, and milk. Cool and add the crabmeat, olives, and well beaten egg yolks. Fold in stiffly beaten whites. Pour into a buttered baking dish, set in a pan of hot water, and bake in a moderate oven until firm, about 35 to 45 minutes.

Chicken Macaroni Moussé.

3 cups cooked chicken
3 tablespoons granulated gelatin
½ cup cold water
2 cups hot chicken stock
1½ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 cup chopped celery
1 cup chopped ripe olives
1 cup heavy cream

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender. Drain. Chop the chicken. Soak the gelatin in the cold water, add the boiling stock, and stir until completely dissolved. Chill until fairly stiff, then beat until fluffy. Fold in the drained macaroni, chicken, celery, and ripe olives, and season to taste. Whip the cream and blend in lightly. Turn into a chilled mold and place in refrigerator until firm. Serve as main dish, completed by tiny hot rolls, preserves, and a hot or iced beverage.

BAVARIAN CREAM DESSERT USING FRESH BERRIES

Another fresh strawberry dish to be included as a dessert in the summer menu is a smooth Bavarian cream:

STRAWBERRY BAVARIAN CREAM.

2 quarts strawberries
¼ cup cold water
2 tablespoons granulated gelatin
½ cup boiling water
1½ to 2 cups sugar
1 cup whipped cream
Pinch of salt

Wash and hull berries, keeping the most perfect ones for a garnish. The remainder should be mashed and rubbed through a coarse sieve. Sprinkle gelatin on top of cold water and when water is absorbed, add half a cup of boiling water and stir until the gelatin is dissolved.

Stir the dissolved gelatin into the strawberry juice and pulp, add sugar and set the mixture in the refrigerator to cool. When it begins to set, add 1 cup of whipped cream and beat until the mixture is stiff and smooth. Slice the whole berries crosswise and line a mold, pour in the mixture and chill in the refrigerator.

Brothers Quarrel Over Pie So Two Detectives Eat It

Rockford, Il., June 4.—[Special.]—Called to settle a dispute between two brothers over ownership of a raspberry pie, Detectives Richard Whale and Roy Johnson settled the controversy with little trouble today. The detectives cut the pie in half and ate it while the two quarreling youths looked on. With the cause of the dispute removed, the officers said, the brothers readily ended their fight.

HERE'S HOW TO DRESS UP SALADS FOR WARM DAYS

It's difficult to find a more fascinating subject than salads these spring days. Just to look at a freshly made, well chilled salad has a cooling, stimulating effect on most people, especially when it exhibits a crispy background of salad greens.

Salads have that cool look, too, when they're colorfully "prettied up." Pear halves tinted a lovely pink, filled with snowy cream cheese, and garnished with watercress are most attractive. Chilled pineapple slices tinted green, topped with cottage cheese, and garnished with mint make another combination worth trying if you'd bring psychology to bear in dealing with a hot and irritable family. Mayonnaise may even be tinted with the pure vegetable coloring.

Our old standby, potato salad, may be dressed up with paper thin radish slices scattered over the top. Did you know that cubed potatoes are delicious with the addition of cubed apples and diced celery? Garnish the top of salad as it lies in its crisp nest of greens with slices of apples, the bright red skins left on. [Caution—be sure to dip the slices in lemon juice.]

Gelatin salads are especially tempting in spring and summer menus. Beautiful designs may be made on the top of the large molds by covering the bottom of the mold with a thin layer of the gelatin mixture, just enough to hold the design in place. Arrange the fruits or vegetables in artistic designs, and then when well set add the remaining chilled mixture.

For summer buffet parties ring molds give a delightful air, somehow so different from the old home served salad. The centers of the large ring molds may be filled with a mixture of fruits, vegetables, seafood, and chicken salads. Or right in the center of the mold may be placed a suitably sized bowl of salad dressing.

Tomato aspic rings may be filled with such things as cottage cheese and slivered almonds, cole slaw, cucumber, pineapple, and celery salad, potato salad, ham salad, or seafood salad.

The combinations of color and flavor are endless when it comes to filling these gelatin molds. Don't overlook the beauty of an avocado ring, filled with grapefruit and orange sections and garnished with maraschino cherries with stems and leaves of watercress.

NEW, SPECIAL PROCESS HAMS NOW AVAILABLE IN ANY SIZE PORTION

A new ham, made tender by a special process, can now be purchased in steaks, half or whole hams, ham shanks and butt ends. It is possible to cook the thick steaks in twelve minutes and serve them so lusciously tender that they can be cut with an ordinary dinner fork.

The whole and half hams can be baked in approximately half the time required for an ordinary cured ham, and can be cut into very thin slices without breaking.

The cooked ham shank and butt ends, when ground or diced, combine nicely with out ingredients, in preparing a la kings, summer salads, or ham stuffed baked tomatoes and green peppers.

Baby's Bath Tray Should Be Well Equipped

This Means Safety and Efficiency to Mother.

BY GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS

Today we will list and describe the articles the baby will need for the ritual of his bath. These articles usually are kept together on a tray, or in a box.

There are on the market boxes divided into compartments for this purpose, also special trays with attractive containers and jars, of both expensive and inexpensive make.

But the informal, homemade equipment can be just as satisfactory, even though it may not appeal to your esthetic sense. Mayonnaise jars with covers and other similar containers can be used and labeled with strips of adhesive tape, which takes both pen and pencil. A towel or other covering should be used to keep off insects and dust and dirt.

This tray should be put on the bath table, or some other convenient place during the bath time. This saves the mother many steps, and so speeds up the bathing.

This tray will contain: [1] Jar of oil, [2] Jar of boiled water. [3] Jar of boric acid solution. [4] Jar of absorbent cotton [balls], and toothpick swabs. [5] Soap or soap jelly, and container for it. [6] Dish for oil, and [7] safety pins.

The oil is used on the baby's body. Ask your doctor what he recommends. It may be olive or sweet oil, liquid albolene, or some special baby oil.

The boiled water is for bathing the eyes. It should be boiled fresh each day.

The boric acid solution is used, on the advice of the doctor, for washing the eyes if there is any redness. The doctor will tell you the proportion to use—either one level teaspoonful to a glass of freshly boiled water, or two teaspoonfuls to this amount of water. It is, of course, put in a sterilized jar.

The absorbent cotton is used in the bath, and there should be both large and small balls, or pads torn off the rolls. Some mothers use cotton balls as wash cloths. Swabs, or cotton tipped toothpicks, will also be needed. They can be bought ready made, or they can be made at home by twirling a small piece of cotton around the end of a toothpick [hands washed first, of course]. Some mothers use a little spiral of cotton instead. Take the cotton off the stick before using.

The soap used should be the purest obtainable. Fine castile is ideal because it is so mild. Ask your doctor the kind he prefers. Some doctors advise soap jelly, in which case you will be told how strong to make it. The soap should be kept in a covered container.

Safety pins of assorted sizes will be needed, but the practice of using a pin cushion or a cake of soap as a pin cushion is very dangerous. If the mother makes it a practice to keep all safety pins closed, she will save herself many anxious moments and protect her baby from the possibility of swallowing opened safety pins, or have them stuck in him in other ways. Needless to say they should be kept out of his reach in a covered receptacle.

There are a few additional things which may be included if you can afford them, or if your doctor advises having them. These are: [1] A medicine dropper, if the doctor has suggested this for oiling the baby's nose. [2] Soft hair brush, if the baby has a long down. [3] Ointment for red chafed skin, though with proper care this should not be needed [a film of olive oil does wonders], and [4] a bath thermometer. Many doctors advise the use of this, but it is possible to gauge the right temperature without one—elbows, for instance, are excellent.

Though not on this already overloaded tray, you may also need in your bath paraphernalia a hot water bottle and cover for it, and paper bags for waste cotton, swabs, and so forth.

Vallee's Early Boss Seeks $470,000 in Suit Over Contract

New York, June 4.—(AP)—A complaint that rich rewards of the radio and the movies turned Rudy Vallee against his former "father, employer, and partner," was voiced by Charles Bellak today in a $470,000 damage suit charging the bandmaster with contract breaking.

An autographed photograph of Vallee was shown the court to support a contention Bellak was all those things to Vallee in the days when he "didn't have a dime." On it was written the "father, employer, partner" sentiment.

After Vallee signed a contract with the National Broadcasting company, Bellak said an NBC official told him he was wasting his time trying to retain Vallee's services as "anybody would be afraid to buck NBC."

As president of the Ruvall Orchestra corporation, Bellak seeks $170,000 damages from Vallee and $300,000 from NBC.

Proper Care Is Best Safeguard of the Teeth

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.

It's confusing to read some of the reports made by dentists themselves on teeth preservation. We are brought up on the theory that certain foods are necessary to the health of the mouth and teeth. Yet, the other day I read one address given at a convention, in which some of our theories about foods were decried. But one conviction on which all the dental authorities are unison is that the clean tooth is apt to cause the least trouble.

I was talking about teeth with Kate Smith, whose mouth boasts that rare possession, two completely perfect rows of teeth. She told me that she uses not two brushes alternately, which is the common practice recommended, but seven brushes which she uses on successive days. Her theory is that, this way, each brush gets a chance to be thoroughly dried out after its washing, and there is no danger of the bristles becoming soft. Much has been said and written about the radio star's beautiful teeth. She verified to me the use of bicarbonate of soda directly on the brush as a cleansing agent. And for stronger, firmer gums, she tells me, she has been brushing teeth and gums with sodium perborate.

Recently, statistics have been broadcast on the number of school children whose teeth are imperfect. The percentage is astonishingly high in view of the modern educational methods on this particular score.

It is the parent's job to see that the youngsters do their teeth scouring and that they do it properly and well. Left to themselves, the youngsters will simply slide the brush across the tooth surface, which is not the way to clean teeth and preserve a beautiful mouth for adult years. Too, many parents are careless about the brush used, refusing to buy a new one when it is needed. The right equipment for even the small ones is the two brush supply, the child taught to rinse each carefully after use, and hang the brushes up where they will dry thoroughly.

According to CULBERTSON

THAT VITAL FIRST PLAY.

The number of times that a contract is won or lost by the first play of declarer is amazing.

Apparently, a great many players go on the theory [if such tomfoolery can be dignified by the term "theory"] that the first play is in the nature of a preliminary, a sort of quick "warm-up." They reach more or less automatically for a card in the dummy before they give the situation in general, or the special problem created by the opening lead, more than a cursory thought.

Obviously, the sensible method is to leave the card led in the middle of the table while the dummy is being spread, and only after a tentative plan of attack has been formulated to play from the dummy. In today's hand the declarer never could recover the error made on his first play.

West, dealer.
Both sides vulnerable.

The bidding:

| West | North | East | South |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 dimd. | Double | Pass | 1 heart |
| 2 dimds. | 4 hearts [final bid] | | |

West opened the queen of diamonds and no sooner was the dummy spread than declarer reached for the five of diamonds, winning the trick with the king from his own hand. He then led the singleton spade up to dummy, intending to establish a spade trick for a diamond discard, or if West had the spade ace and didn't put it up, to "steal" a spade trick. But West hopped up with the ace and led the jack of diamonds. Now [too late] declarer saw his error. He had to play dummy's ace or concede the trick. In fear and trembling, the ace was put up and East ruffed. Since the only immediate entry to West's hand could be in the trump suit itself, East properly returned a trump. West won with the ace and cashed his good ten of diamonds for the setting trick.

Consideration of the bidding by declarer would have indicated clearly the correct first play. Since West had rebid his diamonds when vulnerable, missing the two top honors and with comparatively little compensation in other high honors [North's hand was testimony to this fact], it was likely that he held a six card suit. Declarer could afford to lose one diamond trick, but not two. In other words, he could not afford to have a diamond honor ruffed away in addition to losing the small diamond in each hand. That being the case, dummy's ace should have been played on the first trick. Next, to establish an entry to the South hand for a lead up to dummy's trump tenace, the king of spades should have been laid down. West would win and might give the partner a ruff in diamonds, but note that in this case South merely would drop his losing diamond on the trick. Now East could not put West on lead except by leading his one remaining trump, and therefore East could not ruff away South's king of diamonds.

Thus, declarer, by proper play to the first trick, would have held his losses to three tricks: one in trumps, one in diamonds [East's ruff], and one in spades.

TODAY'S QUESTION.

Question: The dealer bid four spades [vulnerable], which every one passed. I was on lead with the following hand:

♠ J 10 ♥ A J 5 ♦ Q 9 8 4 ♣ Q 10 7 5.

What should I have led?

Answer: Your safest opening is the jack of trumps. Any other opening is a sheer guess and puts an honor in jeopardy.

Carrie Chapman Catt Asks Farm Women to Join Peace Crusade

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Carrie Chapman Catt, 77, today challenged 1,500 countrywomen to be peace crusaders on into old age.

"Once grandmothers sat in a corner by the fire and knitted stockings for their grandchildren," said silvery haired Mrs. Catt. "There are new duties, much more thrilling ones, for old ladies in our time. Be a crusader and leave the world with more common sense in its head than it had when you came into it."

Mrs. Catt and Secretary of Agriculture Wallace were guests at the third triennial banquet of the Associated Countrywomen of the World, filling a huge hotel ballroom.

Wallace said that progress in an attack on the agricultural problem is slow, "but we should not be pessimistic."

To such an audience the woman who saw the suffrage cause clear through, and then espoused peace, talked in humorous though dead-in-earnest vein.

She harked back to the days when "women speakers in this country were pelted with bad eggs and rotting vegetables" and "our famous Independence hall in Philadelphia was torn down and set on fire by a mob because a woman was speaking there."

Ferry Hall's commencement program will open this evening with a concert and faculty reception. There will be a commencement luncheon and dance tomorrow, a baccalaureate service Sunday, and commencement exercises Monday evening in the Presbyterian church of Lake Forest.

Here's That Utterly New, SAFE Way To GET RID OF UGLY FAT

It's the drugless Welch way that has been responsible for weight losses of 7 pounds a month, or more

HERE, at last, is a SAFE way to reduce. A way that does NOT call for strict dieting, exercising, or taking drugs. A way that actually increases your mental and physical energy as pounds of ugly fat seemingly melt away.

Please read carefully: In a recent test, held under the direction of the eminent Dr. Damrau of New York, 14 people who were gaining at the rate of 1⅔ pounds a month, followed this method. And the average loss registered was 7 pounds a person in a single month—WITHOUT STRICT DIETING OR EXERCISING.

What You Do

Now, all you have to do is this: Mix ¾ of a glass of Welch's Grape Juice with ¼ of a glass of water—and drink before each meal, and at bedtime. Then eat sensibly—and this is what happens.

First, Welch's Grape Juice satisfies your craving for rich, sweet foods. You have less desire to over-eat fattening foods—yet you do feel comfortably satisfied.

Second, the grape sugar in Welch's is quickly burned up—producing vital energy—and, most important, helps nature to burn up excess fat.

Thus, weight is lost naturally and safely. Often at the rate of 7 pounds a month, or more.

Only One Thing To Watch

In following this proved, SAFE way to lose ugly fat, eat sensibly—and then there is only one thing to watch. Use only the genuine Welch's Grape Juice. In order to get the finest, selected, premium grapes grown we pay more than anyone in the United States. That is why Welch's is always full strength. No adulterants; no artificial coloring—Certified Pure. Insist upon Welch's.

Welch Grape Juice Co., Westfield, N. Y.

Irene Rich is over 40, but weighs the same as at 16. She says, "Eat sensibly—drink Welch's Grape Juice."

"Gives Quick Pep and Energy"

"Red" Woodworth, All-American Star and Coach at Morgan Park Military Academy, says: "Welch's Grape Juice gives my boys strength and energy without adding health-destroying fat. The minerals and vitamins are valuable in helping to build red blood, strong bones and teeth. I recommend it for all growing children and athletes. I have also found it excellent between meals as a quick energy pickup-drink for children and grown ups."

Takes Swim at Glen View

It may be a little too cool for some to swim these early June days but Miss Barbara Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Austin of Glencoe did not find it so when she was invited to the Glen View club the other day. She is being graduated from the Roycemore school in Evanston today and next fall she will enter Vassar college. With her parents and her two younger sisters, Patricia and Elizabeth Ann, Miss Austin will spend August in England but she will be at home until then.

Parties Crowd Calendars for Brides-to-Be

Misses Preston, Kirkland Among Guests.

BY JUDITH CASS.

WHEN two girls who have been to school and college together and who came out in the same season get married within a week of each other it is bound to create something of a problem for their friends. To avoid the possibility of conflicting dates, every one who wishes to entertain for them must consult the calendars of two popular young couples instead of one.

In the case of Miss Margery Preston and Miss Eleanor Kirkland there will be at least three parties in which both girls will be involved. Miss Preston is giving a luncheon for Miss Kirkland on Sunday, June 14, at Mrs. Frank Wetmore's house in Wheaton which Miss Preston's parents, the Howard P. Prestons, have taken for the summer. If the weather permits, there will be tennis and swimming after luncheon.

Miss Kirkland will reciprocate by entertaining for Miss Preston at the dinner-dance at the Onwentsia on Thursday, the 18th. Miss Barbara Fortune, who herself will be a bride next fall, is giving a dinner for both Miss Preston and Miss Kirkland on Friday evening, the 19th, at the home of her parents, the John L. Fortunes, on Astor street.

If Miss Preston were not to be married to Harry M. Nacey Jr. on June 20, five days before Miss Kirkland and James Scott Kemper Jr. are married, she would have been one of Miss Kirkland's bridesmaids. Miss Kirkland and she were at the Girls' Latin school and Vassar together, and both came out in 1934.

Preston Wedding to Be Small One.

Miss Preston's wedding will be a quiet one in the Prestons' living room in Wheaton at 4:30 o'clock the afternoon of the 20th, with a reception afterward for the small group of relatives and close friends who witness the ceremony. Her sister, Miss Virginia Preston, will be her only attendant, and John Nacey will be his brother's best man.

Miss Eleanor Beatty of New York, who was Miss Preston's roommate at Vassar, is coming out a week before the wedding to visit Miss Preston. Some of the other parties planned for that week are a dinner Tuesday evening, the 16th, at the Racquet club with Miss Anne Lynch and her brother, Reges Lynch, as hosts; a dinner to be given by Richard Baum and Daniel Burnham II. at the Tavern club the following evening, and a cocktail party at the home of Miss Florence Hermes on the afternoon before the wedding.

Miss Preston picked out a house in Knoxville, Tenn., where Mr. Nacey is in business, shortly after she and Miss Kirkland returned from Bermuda this spring. She and Mr. Nacey will be at home there the middle of July.

Ashcraft-Huntress Wedding June 29.

Miss Betty Ashcraft and Douglas Knickerbocker Huntress have decided to be married on June 29 at St. Chrysostom's church. It will be a large wedding at 4:30 o'clock, with a smaller reception afterward at the Woman's Athletic club.

Miss Marion Huntress of Washington, D. C., Mr. Huntress' sister, will be Miss Ashcraft's maid of honor, and her cousin, Miss Virginia Ashcraft, who will be married herself in the fall to Gerald Hewitt Smith of New York, will be one of her bridesmaids. There will be five other bridesmaids, Miss Mary Young, Miss Beatrice Norton, Miss Dorothy Glidden, Miss Suzanne Fitch of Biltmore Forest, N. C., and Mrs. George P. Braun. Miss Fitch and Mrs. Braun were Miss Ashcraft's roommates at Ogontz.

Jack Huntress, Mr. Huntress' elder

MAJ. GEORGE A. STOWELL of the marine corps, who has been in charge of recruiting here for several years, has been ordered to Portsmouth, N. H., to command the marine corps barracks. In preparation for the transfer, he was sorting out his uniforms in his hotel room while the Negro maid looked on with interest. A friend dropped in for a moment to comment on the transfer and addressed him as "Major." After the friend had gone the maid inquired:

Viewpoint—
Luck—
Headwork—
Sign Language.

"Are you-all really a soldier?"

"Yes," replied Maj. Stowell.

"Well," she said, "I thought you was an actor with all them uniforms."

AN Irish sweepstake winner stopped off in Chicago a few days ago on his way to England. He was Fred Booth of Ottawa and California and brother, by the way, to the Lois Booth who now is Princess Eric of Denmark. Mr. Booth had bought six sweepstake tickets, which he had distributed in his household. He had offered his cook first choice of the six, the gardener second, the baby's nurse third, the chauffeur fourth, his wife fifth. He himself kept the sixth—and left over ticket. And his ticket won.

A FETED elderly gentleman now visiting in the city is Daniel W. Ellis, whose fresh complexion and quizzical blue eyes belie his eighty-odd years. One of his stories concerns a vacation shack near Washington Court House, O., where he and his brother like to spend lazy days. It seems that the other morning they were being lazier than usual. One of them, looking out the window, said it looked as if it might be raining. The other disagreed. To settle the argument they sent the dog outside to see if he came back with a wet coat.

Offer Tickets for Concerts at Ravinia Park

Plans for the series of summer concerts by the Chicago Symphony orchestra at Ravinia park are almost complete. Willoughby Walling, chairman of the festival committee, announced yesterday that an advance sale of ticket coupon books was being organized by north shore groups, and that a downtown office to further this purpose would be opened in suite 1639 McCormick building, Van Buren street and Michigan avenue.

Popular prices will prevail. By coupon book admission to Ravinia park will be 50 cents and a reserved seat in the pavilion 50 cents. Without coupon books the price of each will be 75 cents. A coupon book of twenty tickets [good for either park admission or reserved seats] is priced at 10 dollars.

Village chairmen for the north shore drive include: Durand Smith, Lake Forest; Charles Z. Henkle, Highland Park; Howard R. Will, Ravinia, and John Eugene Davis, Glencoe. Augustus Knight is general chairman of this group. Other chairmen will be chosen shortly.

The wooded park, for many years the scene of summer opera, has been made available through the generosity of Mrs. Louis Eckstein. Plans for the concert series call for four concerts a week, Thursday to Sunday evenings, inclusive, for five weeks. July 3 has been chosen as the starting date. Various guest conductors are under consideration.

Quadruplet Sisters Are 21; Thoughts of Wedding Far Away

Hollis, Okla., June 4.—(AP)—Pretty in pink net dresses, the quadruplet sisters—Mona, Mary, Roberta and Leota Key—celebrated their "marriageable" birthday, the twenty-first.

"Thoughts of marriage are still pretty far away," Roberta said. But Mona had an added thought:

"You never can tell."

But Mary believed:

United States Senator Gore of Oklahoma sent them four boxes of candy.

THROUGH THE LOOKING GLASS

We have the Queen Mary and all the excitement attendant on its maiden voyage to thank for the introduction of a delightful bon voyage basket—a basket of beauty offerings—that you can see in one of our Chicago shops. It's a cunning thing and one of the nicest going away gifts ever devised. If you've been tearing your hair about choosing gifts for the lucky gals who are departing these shores here's your answer.

The basket itself is in cream wicker with bands of brown, and all the beauty offerings tucked into its depths are packaged in the same colors. While the basket itself isn't large enough to be cumbersome around the most crowded stateroom it does contain a number of nice things—a cleansing cream, a night cream that defies the drying effects of ocean winds, skin tonic, a flattering foundation face powder, and makeup items. These will easily last the length of the voyage. There are fluffy swansdown puffs, too, in vivid colors, and the beauty offerings, basket and all, are wrapped in cellophane and dolled up with a satin bow.

This is one of the niftiest of beauty gifts. It has imagination and should be doubly dear to the heart of popular travelers who are always swamped with fruit and flowers. The shop that has it can arrange to have it shipped direct to the stateroom for you with a trim card all set in place.

We wouldn't confine this to travelers alone. The graduate would adore it; so would the bride about to set out on a honeymoon. The cosmetics are of the very best.

Mother Robin, Two Babies Make Safe Trip on Tank Car

After a three day ride on a railroad tank car from Cedar Rapids, Ia., a mother robin and her two babies arrived safely yesterday at the Zion Candy company in Zion. The mother had built a nest around a brace on the car, which was loaded with syrup. J. L. Weber, station agent for the North Western railroad at Zion, said the nest would not be disturbed.

Wise Shoppers Select Beach Outfits Early

Smart Selection Available in City's Shops.

BY RHEA SEEGER.

Thinking shoppers don't wait on weather before selecting smart beach togs. They buy all the smartest and newest ideas at the beginning of the season, whether it's warm enough to swim, lounge on the beach or acquire a good tan. The newest loot goes out with such speed that only an early buyer gets the entire assortment from which to pick and choose.

Swim suits are more or less regulation, they simply can't shrink in area, they've been reduced to the minimum for the last three seasons, but enterprising swim suit designers manage to do a lot of changing with colors, buttons, halters, or other necklines, and textures. Wool suits are semi-rough, with all kinds of knitted effects copied from the rage for knits.

All the smartest thin wool suits are lined with soft wool jersey. The satin lastex affairs also go into the texture tricks with plenty of good results and the colors are exciting enough to keep you busy for an hour trying to decide which to buy.

This summer the designers have brought out some good novelties that will stand frequent baptism, which is something. Heretofore all these tricky, decorative affairs were for spectators only, it was as much as impossible to take them into the water and expect anything but disappointment when you were fished out . . . now you can wear stunning dressmaker suits, that can take a plunge as good as the sleek tailored wool outfits.

The secret is the stunt of the jersey underlayer and the sanforized printed cotton top. The pique numbers are especially good. They are available with or without the wool underlayer.

Beach coats of the pepperell sheeting are the best looking coats we've seen in weeks. The blues and yellows and whites are grand for beach lounging. Striped terry cloth capes and coats satisfy the urge for color; the pastel and whites and solid brighter colors are abundant, with very reasonable price marks.

Shop now while the collections are so bewilderingly plentiful . . . the best things go out never to return . . . a lot of us have discovered that sad fact when we trotted down to buy something two days after we caught a passing glance when we didn't or couldn't take time to stop.

Fashion photograph . . . the smartest of all white beach outfits. The suit is worn over fitted shorts. The suit buttons down the front with countless tiny covered buttons of the same white pique. The Chinese cut coat also is of white pique. It ties at the waistline, has short sleeves, and a tiny coolie collar. The floppy sun hat is also of white with a mesh crown.

Leeds and Bride Rewed; Follows Ceremony at Sea

Miami Beach, Fla., June 4.—(AP)—William B. Leeds and his bride, the former Olive Hamilton of Pittsburgh, were remarried here today to insure legality of their first wedding on May 23 at sea aboard the tinplate heir's yacht Moana. The sportsman heir and the comely former telephone operator he rescued from the surf at Atlantic City, N. J., six years ago, were wed by County Judge W. F. Blanton in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sailing Baruch.

White Pique for Beaches

From a Chicago shop. Spanking white cotton pique fashions a new beach ensemble. The shorts are fitted and worn under the one piece tunic effect suit that buttons all the way down the front with dozens of tiny pique covered buttons. Over this unusual suit, the flared Chinese looking beach coat also of the same white pique. The big floppy hat is of stitched white material with a wide meshed crown.

Norma Shearer Poses for Artist Again; Gets Old Pay—$10

Hollywood, Cal., June 4.—(AP)—Norma Shearer, movie actress, whose weekly pay check runs into four substantial figures, earned $10 today as a model for Artist James Montgomery Flagg.

She posed as Juliet. When the sitting was complete she said, "You always gave me ten dollars for posing. Do I get it this time?"

"You do," Flagg replied. As in the days long ago, when she was a commercial model, he handed her the bill.

Log Cabin Dwellers Mark 61st Wedding Anniversary

Logansport, Ind., June 4.—[Special.]—Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Farmer, 83 and 81, respectively, observed their 61st wedding anniversary today at their log cabin home nine miles southwest of here. They have resided in the present home for forty-seven years, and throughout their married life have resided in log houses.

Marmion Academy Will Exhibit Ancient Volumes

A collection of valuable manuscripts and books from the library of St. Meinrad's abbey, Benedictine mother house, near Evansville, Ind., arrived yesterday at Marmion Military academy near Aurora for display among scholastic exhibits in the school's observance of youth citizenship day on Sunday. The books were loaned on condition that they be insured in transit and guarded while on exhibit. Upon their arrival yesterday they were taken to a bank vault from which they will be removed only for the display. Included in the shipment is a copy of St. Thomas Aquinas' "Summa Angelica de Casibus Consciente," printed in 1491, thirty-five years after Gutenberg invented printing.

Good Morning!

It is a costume film of the year 1844, and the story concerns Ferdinand II., a Bourbon king—who inaugurated a railroad from Naples to Caserta—his court and allies, and liberals who sought to dethrone him.

The story, unmistakably bearing down on the idea that the happenings of that day were a first gun presaging future Italian history, has lightness and merriment. The acting is excellent. Especially was I impressed by Armando Falconi as the nonchalant monarch. Reginald Owen done in Italian, if you ask me!

The film has a lot of atmosphere, much lovely scenery, and interesting staging. Dialog is in Italian, but the English titles are enlightening. There is some pleasing music.

An Italian news reel, glorifying the Fascists, and a travelogue of Italy are also on the program, which was delighting Italian patrons the afternoon I visited the theater.

Sunday School Parade in Brooklyn Draws 200,000

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—The annual parade of the Brooklyn Sunday School union, which has assumed a position of importance in the borough's calendar since its inception 107 years ago, brought fully 200,000 persons into the streets this afternoon. They found the current Long Island tercentenary celebration was as much a part of the parade as the churches have been of Brooklyn's history.

Don Quixote's Mills.

Tilting with windmills is fun when they are as unusual to look at and as easy to piece as "Don Quixote's Mills." The block appears to be composed of diagonal stripes of unsymmetrical windmills in red and blue, with yellow squares at intervals, against a white ground. The entire quilt is composed of pieced blocks, each square measuring 16 inches. A five inch border, finished with a one-half inch binding, gives the quilt an over-all size of 90x106 inches.

New Theater at Ottawa to Replace One Which Burned

Ottawa, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Plans were announced today for construction of a new theater on the site of the old Orpheum theater, which was destroyed by fire four years ago. The Ottawa Amusement company, owners and operators of the Roxy and Illinois theaters here, said the site had been purchased and that construction will begin soon on a $100,000 building, which will be opened Sept. 15. It will seat 1,200.

Veloz-Yolanda Make Contract for One Movie

Roles to Include Speaking and Dancing.

BY GEORGE SHAFFER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Hollywood, Cal., June 4.—[Special.]—The current wave of making motion picture personalities out of popular dancers [Astaire, Eleanor Powell, Bill Robinson, Ruby Keeler, Harriet Hoctor] has swept Veloz and Yolanda, favorite Chicago ballroom couple into a one-picture acting contract with Paramount studio. They'll not only dance, but have speaking rôles in "Champagne Waltz" and their featured colleagues in the cast will be Gladys Swarthout, Fred McMurray and Jack Oakie.

Lew Ayres, whose last movie job was as director of Republic's civil war story, "Hearts in Bondage" [about John Ericsson and the Monitor and Merrimac], has again become an actor, at least for long enough to make a featured rôle in "Lady Be Careful" at Paramount.

This cast also includes Mary Carlisle, comedian Benny Baker, Buster Crabbe, Grant Withers, and Barbara "Bobby" Coshade, young woman who was southern California's champion diver in 1928. Miss Coshade's rôle requires her to rescue Ayres from drowning when his small boat capsizes near her yacht.

Since Freddie Bartholomew started boxing lessons his grown up friends call him "Tiger" Bartholomew.

Jean Harlow spent three days in a hospital — explanation being given that she wanted to rest up after completing "Suzy" and that she was "under observation." Now she is shooting retakes at Triunfo, a village in San Fernando valley.

Every noise in the factory which is in the locale of the M. G. M. story "Violets in Spring" will be a musical note. It's a musical two reeler concerning the effect of psychology on love making and features Jean Chatburn.

Walter Pidgeon, appearing opposite Mary Ellis in "Fatal Lady," tells that he once quit acting to take a job in a Boston bank but was lured back into the profession by the kind words of Fred Astaire, who heard him sing at a social gathering.

Marlene Dietrich is taking her hard boiled American chauffeur, Ernest Bridges, to Europe with her when she goes abroad to appear in a couple of pictures for Alexander Korda, producing in England. Her husband, Rudolph Sieber, will meet her in Europe.

Evelyn Venable says her husband, Hal Mohr, cameraman, hasn't eaten a bite of meat or fish since marrying her two years ago. Evelyn always has been a vegetarian, but says: "I didn't ask Hal to become one. He just said that if I got along as well as I seemed he wanted to try it."

Four half forgotten featured players of the silent era are playing together in an all-color independent film, "The Phantom of Santa Fe," being made by the Edgar Rice Burroughs-Tarzan Movie corporation. Those featured are Norman Kerry, Frank Mayo, Carmelita Geraghty, and Nina Quartero.

During the filming of the Bill Powell-Carole Lombard film, "My Man Godfrey," at Universal, Director Gregory La Cava requested Carl Laemmle Jr., until recently chief production executive at that studio, to leave story conferences when a disagreement arose. The incident took place after the Laemmles sold out their interests in the one time giant film corporation to Charles R. Rogers and Cheever Cowdin.

The Edgar Rice Burroughs-Tarzan independent movie firm has bought from Universal all the material screened in Alaska and the arctic circle on the production "Tundra." This was one of the intended Laemmle special productions for release this summer, with Alfred Del Cambre, former Southern Methodist football player, as its hero. Hookup scenes are now being shot indoors here and the film will be put out as a hot weather special in August when the sight of icycles on the screen is likely to be most appreciated.

Julie Haydon [Donella Donaldson], one time Oak Park, Ill., girl, who remarkably resembles what Ann Harding looked like two years ago, has demanded that her new Paramount contract forbid any advertising mention of the fact she looks like Ann.

Warner Brothers announce plans to film "The Black Legion," based on newspaper revelations of the Michigan terrorists.

Joe E. Brown may be made a member of the board of Mercersburg academy in Pennsylvania, where his son is a student.

TITO SCHIPA QUIZZED ON HIS LOVE FOR DUCE ON TRIP INTO MEXICO

[Copyright: 1936: By the New York Times.]

MEXICO CITY, June 4.—Officials of the National Federation of the Cinematograph tonight addressed a series of questions to Tito Schipa, famous lyric tenor, in large display advertisments in newspapers. The federation based its action on the necessity of being able to pass opinion on the singer's personality and the convenience of his being allowed to sing in the capital's principal movie and theater building. The questions follow:

"What class relations has Tito Schipa with Benito Mussolini?

"What is his opinion on the political and social régime now prevailing in Italy?

"Does Tito Schipa consider the United States had any right to annex from Mexico the state of Texas and other land lost during the last century?

"What does Tito Schipa think of Mexico's present situation as regards the struggle for social and moral improvement of the proletariat?"

The federation insists the tenor reply in tomorrow's newspapers. Schipa arrived last night for a series of three concerts and is being given a tremendous popular reception. Tonight he said: "I am an artist. I am not a politician and never took any interest in politics. I am a patriot and love my country."

Telling Housewife Her Job Is Easy Is Infuriating

BY DORIS BLAKE.

Giving tips to June bridegrooms the other day, we forgot to mention a most important one in our brief list of "don'ts."

DON'T, even to be funny, say to your wife: "But what have you been doing with your time all day to make you busy?"

We hear from sources, mostly long-suffering wives, that the insinuation that because the woman is around home all day it's been one long holiday stretch, is just one of those things that cannot be appreciated, even when humor is known to be the intention. Better try to be funny at some other expense, men! If your private conviction is that your helpmate hasn't enough to do to keep her busy the whole day you'd better keep the little secret to yourself.

The resenters, we find, are not the gadabout wives to whom you may say anything in fun or in earnest without penetrating their indifferent shells. They are the women who are putting in time on the job and believe that they are putting in a pretty full day. Allowing for time off for afternoon bridge or tea party, there still is a lot of planning, shopping, and other jobs to be attended to when there is no maid.

Even when there is help the conscientious woman finds her day filled with manifold little duties which may not show up impressively to the man. And the more earnest she is about seeing that the mending is done, the closets kept tidy, clothes sent to the laundry, food ordered and cooked properly, the more that death sentence of appreciation, "you haven't anything to do all day," hurts.

We don't know why women can't take hubby's little joke on this score more good naturedly. Maybe the resentment is a throwback to the old days when woman's work truly never was done, and women still were thought by their menfolk to have a "cinch." Anyway, we are just tipping off the newly wed men to watch their step on this kind of fun.

Another pointer for husbands that we have been asked to mention by one who claims to have suffered unnecessarily has to do with the masculine way of taking a story, or a joke, out of the little woman's mouth and telling it the way it should be told.

Says one complainant: "If I hear once again that: 'I'll tell it. Women never get anything straight!' he's going to get something aimed so straight at his head it will be just too bad!"

That's the way they feel, men, and the women are becoming better as straight and fancy throwers, I warn you.

Warners Give Star Rating to Four Players

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Four featured motion picture players—Bette Davis, Errol Flynn, Olivia de Havilland, and Anita Louise—were elevated to stardom by action of Warner Brothers officials meeting here today.

Announcement that the company's advertising budget for the coming season would be larger than any in the company's history and that it would be concentrated almost entirely in newspapers was made by S. Charles Einfield, advertising director. The company plans 60 feature films for the coming season.

PARAMOUNT PROGRAM.

Vice President Neil Agnew of Paramount Pictures told the company's annual sales meeting in Chicago yesterday that the company would attempt the largest production schedule the industry has known during the coming year.

He said that 40 pictures were definitely planned for release during the first six months of the 1936-'37 season with possibility of 70 to 80 for the full year.

The productions were planned, he said, to give a maximum of diversification and included one "lavish musical," one all-color film for the last half of the coming season, and two stories each starring Marlene Dietrich and Claudette Colbert.

The first of the forty films will be released in August, he told the company gathering.

Her Husband's Past

By Elizabeth York Miller

SYNOPSIS.

Nell Martin elopes to London with Eric Cameron, an older divorced man, who had been visiting in Wellsport, her home town, ignoring her parents' plans to marry Dick Holmes, her childhood sweetheart. Eric has two children, Meg, 17, and Robin, 15. Mrs. Beaumont, the mother of Hilda, his first wife, lives with them. Hilda has married again. Granny tortures Nell with constant reminders of Hilda. The family move to Wellsport where Eric has an engineering job. A solicitor's clerk, Skyner, calls and tells Nell that Hilda's husband had died and she is in London destitute. Nell arranges to send her a weekly sum secretly. Meg receives a string of pearls from her mother from London. Eric suggests looking up Hilda. Nell threatens to leave him. Granny says she'll go away, but breaks her leg and has to stay. She arouses Eric to jealousy of Dick Holmes. Eric stays home alone one evening while the rest of the family attend a concert. He finds a note left by Dick Holmes, arranging an elopement and thinks it is for Nell, but later that night Meg is missing. She has left a note telling her father she has gone away to marry Dick.

INSTALMENT XLI.

A FEARSOME SPECTACLE.

Eric stared thoughtfully at his son.

"What is it specially you think granny ought to be told?" he asked.

"Why, you know—that there's 'a stranger coming to our house.' Anyway, that's how Gram Martin put it."

Robin's outspokenness made his father feel oddly uncomfortable. He laid his hand on Robin's shoulder.

"So that's why you've been so helpful to Nell," he said. "Good lad, Robin. After what Meggie's done. . . . Well, I'm glad you feel that way about it. Yes, I agree with you, granny ought to be told."

Robin grinned. "She'll raise Cain," he said.

Eric hadn't given much thought to granny's reactions on the subject. He frowned and knocked out his pipe, putting it into his pocket.

Then he got up, stretched his arms and yawned. He was very tired after last night. Meg hadn't exactly broken his heart, but she had hurt him terribly. He suddenly found himself possessed of a fellow-feeling for Andrew Martin which he hadn't had before. There was some poetic justice in what had happened.

"If only"—thought Eric—"I could get a laugh out of this!"

He would simply have to forgive Meg, if only to square himself with his own conscience. The trouble was, however, that he doubted very much whether it would matter at all to Meg if he didn't forgive her. To withhold his pardon would probably hurt nobody but himself.

"Divorced people have no business to have children," he told himself moodily.

Of course if they already had them . . .? Then they shouldn't get divorced.

He saw all at once why and how he had to forgive Meggie.

She was going to have a life of her own now, and it must start with every possible chance for happiness. She could hardly have stretched her desire for revenge so far if she hadn't been in love with the Holmes boy. All that mooning about like a ghost lost in a fog was a symptom of the love malady. Curious that none of them had suspected it.

Eric turned to Robin.

"I think I'll act on your advice now and tell granny about the stranger that's coming to our house. If I put it off I'll funk it altogether."

"Good luck," said Robin, with a grin.

Granny was in her room letting Nell help her with a foot bath.

"Here, give me that towel, and don't you dare move that bucket of water," Eric said to his wife. Robin had made him suddenly solicitous for Nell.

Granny shouted at him.

"I won't have you drying my feet, if that's what you mean."

"Either that, or you can do it yourself," said Eric.

Nell, on her knees, protested mildly.

"Don't be silly, Eric. We're almost through now. . . . Yes, you can take away the footbath if you like."

"Get me my bedroom slippers," granny ordered her slave. "I don't know what I'll do now that Meggie's gone. Who's going to wait on me?"

"That sounds ungrateful," said Eric. "I haven't noticed Meg waiting on you very much lately. When it isn't Nell, it's Robin. But it isn't going to be Nell any more. We've got to look after her—all of us."

Granny thrust out her lower lip and gave Nell a considered look.

"What's the matter with you?" she demanded. "Law's-a-mercy, don't tell me you're a-going to have a baby!"

Nell nodded with a faint, shy smile.

So after all, it wasn't really Eric who broke the unwelcome news.

When granny was angry, her back always behaved as though someone had thrust a ramrod down it.

She swallowed hard and then brought out her ultimatum.

"That"—she said—"is the very last straw. It is something I do not mean to tolerate."

"Well, what do you think you're going to do about it?" Eric asked with a feeble display of humor.

The old woman silenced him with a dramatic gesture and drew herself up to her full height.

"I see now why Meggie threw herself into the arms of the first man who'd have her. I see now why you've never made the least attempt to get into touch with Hilda. You knew this was going to happen. This—this woman you've married and brought into your children's home—she did it a-purpose. She thinks it will help to bind you to her. Ha, one of these days she'll find out her mistake. My Hilda isn't far off, and she's biding her time. I dreamt about her last night, and this afternoon I told the cards to find out what's going to happen. Hilda's coming nearer and nearer to us, and that woman—that husband-stealer—knows it. . . . Look, see her cringe. She knows Hilda's on her track—look at her turn pale and shrink away from me!"

Never had there been such an awe-inspiring sight. Prudence Beaumont, in her bare feet, tall and dominating, pointing with a rigid arm at the trembling girl who to her queer reasoning had usurped her daughter's place, was a fearsome spectacle.

But from Nell there burst a thin, involuntary scream.

Granny's vision was uncanny. Was it mind reading on her part? Or was it just because she knew the weak spot in her enemy's armor and struck at it for all she was worth?

As he turned away with his arm around Nell, the parrot let out an apologetic pipe.

"Come again," said Polly.

But it was a spiritless invitation.

"This time," said Eric, "she has burned her bridges. We'll have no more nonsense from her. Of course, my sweet, you realize that she's not quite sane. You're not taking it seriously, are you? You're not quite so foolish as all that, are you, my darling?"

He bent anxiously over Nell. She hadn't fainted, but she lay very still where he had put her on the bed.

Her eyes looked dark in the half-light; her face the color of death.

"Darling, speak to me. Tell me you forgive me for all the misery I've inflicted on you with that wicked old woman."

Nell cleared her throat.

"It's the truth—everything she said," she whispered.

"In another moment I'll be annoyed with you."

Nell moved her head wearily from side to side.

"Hilda is near—she is biding her time—and when that time comes she'll strike. She knows that she has me at her mercy. She knows that already. She can get you any moment she wants to."

"Look here, I'm going to telephone for the doctor," said Eric.

Natives of Borneo Must Have Comics; Buy Them by Bales

New York, June 4.—(AP)—"They can't read of course, but they like the picture anyway."

J. A. Lehman, pier manager of the Bush terminal, was speaking about the fondness of natives of the Dutch Indies for funny papers, as a freighter put to sea, Borneo-bound and loaded with laughs.

The Dutch ship which set forth this week with her hold crowded with bales of colored comic sections of American newspapers was only another of many, Lehman said.

Not only in Borneo, but also in Sumatra, Java, and Celebes, the natives have learned to demand that the newspaper, customarily wrapped about store purchases in that part of the world, be printed in colors and amusing figures.

Senior Program at Notre Dame to Open Today

Wabash Commencement to Be Monday.

Notre Dame, Ind., June 4.—[Special.]—Notre Dame's 92d annual commencement program, during which 426 seniors will receive their degrees Sunday, will get under way tomorrow with alumni registration.

The Rev. John F. O'Hara, C. S. C., president, will address the graduates at noon tomorrow in a private ceremony.

Saturday's program will feature class day exercises and the award of honors, the laying of the corner stone for the new $300,000 biology building, and the annual alumni banquet.

Athletic events Saturday include finals of the national Catholic interscholastic track and field meet and the commencement baseball game with Michigan State.

Mr. William Mayo will give the commencement address Sunday afternoon. The Most Rev. Edward F. Mooney, D. D., archbishop of Rochester, N. Y., will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning. Archbishop Mooney, Dr. Mayo, his brother, Dr. Charles H. Mayo, and Francis P. Garvan, New York City, founder and president of the Chemical Foundation, who will preside at Saturday's corner stone ceremony, will receive honorary doctorates of law at Sunday's exercises.

EXERCISES AT WABASH

Crawfordsville, Ind., June 4.—[Special.]—The 98th annual commencement of Wabash college will be held Monday morning in the college chapel.

Activities of the commencement season will begin Saturday morning with the semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees. The Baldwin oratorical contest will be held at 2:30 o'clock. Following the contest Wabash will meet its traditional rival, Butler university, in a baseball game.

The alumni banquet will be held Saturday. Rufus C. Dawes of Chicago, Dean Bernard C. Gavit of the Indiana university law school, and Dr. Jordan J. Laing of the University of Chicago are to speak.

Baccalaureate services are to be Sunday morning with Dr. H. S. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational church of Evanston, Ill., the speaker.

ANNAPOLIS CEREMONY

Annapolis, Md., June 4.—[Special.]—In an impressive ceremony today 261 midshipmen at the Naval academy received the degree of bachelor of science.

The graduates and other midshipmen, together with a brilliant audience which crowded Dahlgren hall, heard Admiral William H. Standley, chief of naval operations, acting secretary of the navy and the ranking officer of the service, speak of the elements of character essential for an officer of the navy.

Two hundred and eleven of the graduates received commissions as ensigns of the navy and 25 as second lieutenants in the marine corps. Nine members of the class will leave the service because physically deficient.

Kenneth C. Lovell of Mountainsburg, Ark., was not allowed to graduate because he has been unable to pass the final swimming test. He will be given a test later.

ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. and Mrs. E. True Shepard of Wilmette announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann, to Ellsworth Banks Cregier, son of Mrs. N. Banks Cregier of Chicago. The wedding will take place on June 20 at the Drake hotel. Mr. Cregier's father, the late Nathan Banks Cregier, was the son of De Witt Clinton Cregier, mayor of Chicago in 1889 and 1890.

Mrs. and Mrs. William Hoyt Bennett of the North Shore hotel announce the engagement of their daughter, Bessie-Kim, to Robert Lewis Muir, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Muir, of 706½ Hinman avenue, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Cogley of Oak Park announce the engagement of their daughter, Adelaide, to Frank H. Stamm Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Stamm of Oak Park. Miss Cogley attended Mundelein college and Mr. Stamm went to Beloit college. No date for the wedding has been set.

Square Lines Distinctive

WOMAN'S AND MISS' FROCK.

Square lines at the neckline gives this frock its wealth of distinction. They contribute toward cool comfort and are attractive without the addition of a collar. The yoke also is cut squarely across and square buttons further carry out the motif. While the pattern includes provision for long sleeves, in case you want to bear this model in mind for your autumn wardrobe, the sleeveless version will be most acceptable for summer. There is a clever, brief cape to be attached when added charm is desired for more formal wear. Around the home and in extremely hot weather you will find the sleeveless frock quite appropriate and exceedingly smart, but when the weather is more temperate and you wish to go marketing or attend a sports event, simply fasten the little cape to the frock by means of the buttons which enhance the neckline.

The bodice of the frock is adequately shirred into the waistline. The belt is simple, with the square buttons repeated. The skirt is plain, being generously flared without benefit of plaits. This frock takes to the laundry tub like the proverbial duck to water, and the absence of superfluous trimming and plaits makes pressing it a joy rather than a task.

Style No. 2995 is designed for sizes 14, 16 and 18 years, and 36, 38 and 40 inches bust measurement. Size 16 requires 3⅝ yards of 39 inch material for both dress and cape.

Legion Auxiliary.

Cook County council of the American Legion auxiliary will tour the art exhibit at the Stevens hotel from 10 to 12 o'clock today, afterward meeting at 1:30 o'clock in the red room of the Stevens hotel.

Parties Crowd Calendars for Brides-to-Be

Misses Preston, Kirkland Among Guests.

brother, is coming from Boston to be his best man. A younger brother, Benton; George Lewis, William Rodenberg, who like Mr. Huntress is a former Washingtonian in business here; Thomas Adams of Washington, Edward Hutson of Huntington, W. Va., and John Summers will be ushers.

With all the preparations for her wedding Miss Ashcraft is not too busy to take an active part in the activities of the Chicago Ogontz association. Wednesday the group held a business meeting and luncheon at the Ambassador East hotel, and on June 12 the annual luncheon will be held at the Ambassador West.

Miss Ashcraft has been nominated for the presidency to succeed Miss Elizabeth Alger, who will be married in July to Richard C. Johnston Jr. of Kenilworth. Mrs. George P. Braun has been nominated for vice president, and Miss Louise Vested and Miss Josephine Otter are renominated for treasurer and secretary. Miss Jane Darling, who is being married tomorrow, is a director of the association.

Plan Many Parties for Miss Ashcraft.

Among the parties already planned for Miss Ashcraft and her fiancé is a dinner that Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Jefferson, the former Margaret Dawes, are giving on June 17 at the Homestead in Evanston. That same day Mrs. Ferris White will be hostess at a buffet luncheon and shower. Miss Vested is entertaining at luncheon on the 16th, and Miss Young is having a luncheon and shower on the 18th at the Woman's Athletic club. Miss Dorothy Glidden will give a luncheon at the Midlothian club on the 20th.

Mr. Huntress and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Bermuda, and until autumn will be at the home of Miss Ashcraft's parents, the Raymond M. Ashcrafts, while the Ashcrafts are at their summer home in Lakeside, Mich.

Cushing-Schmid Nuptials June 18.

Mrs. Gardiner B. Van Ness is lending her home in Wellington avenue for the marriage of her niece, Miss Jacque Cushing, to Karl Morton Schmid on June 18. The ceremony at 4:30 o'clock will be performed by the Rev. R. Everett Carr, pastor of St. Peter's Episcopal church, with a reception following.

Miss Jane Cushing will be her sister's maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Carol Spedick of Oyster Bay and Miss Eleanor Blevius of Cambridge, Mass., who were at school with Miss Cushing.

Richard Schmid will be his brother's best man, and ushering will be Willard Jaques, Jack Haverkamps, and Miss Cushing's cousins, Gardiner B. Van Ness Jr. and Radford Van Ness. After a honeymoon in Bermuda Mr. Schmid and his bride will live on the near north side.

Louise Conway Will Be Bride on June 27.

Miss Louise Conway and Gail Belden are to have a large wedding the afternoon of June 27 at the Congregational church in Winnetka, with a small reception afterward at the home of Miss Conway's parents, the Barret Conways.

Betty Conway, the bride's 13 year old sister, will be her maid of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Barbara Barrett, who came out the same year that Miss Conway did; Miss Jean M. Smith, one of Miss Conway's school friends; Mrs. Francis D. Weeks, and Miss Helen Huntington of Cincinnati, who were her classmates at Wellesley.

Elliott Belden will be his brother's best man, and Robert Conway, Miss Conway's brother; Marvin H. Dixon, Francis D. Weeks, Sherman Whitmer, and Finlay Cameron will be ushers.

Mr. Belden and Miss Conway already have found an apartment in Evanston and will be at home there the third week in July.

Mrs. Marjorie Roby Is Wed in East.

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Lynde this morning are announcing the marriage of Mrs. Lynde's daughter, Mrs. Marjorie Janney Roby, to John McCreary Adams of New York last Saturday at Parsippiny, N. J. Mr. and Mrs. Lynde and Miss Eleanor Janney, the bride's sister, went east for the wedding, which took place in the century old Presbyterian church in the little New Jersey hamlet.

The news will come as a surprise to all but Mrs. Adams' closest friends. She has spent most of the last winter in New York. She and Mr. Adams are taking a house at Glen Cove, Long Island, for the summer, and in the autumn will make their home in New York.

Friends of China Elect Officers.

The American Friends of China who met yesterday for luncheon at the Arts club had a pleasant surprise when a guest, Robert Ekball, talked informally about the excavations that are being made in northwest China by the eminent Swedish archæologist, Dr. Anderson, for the Friends had expected that the meeting would be purely a business one. Mr. Ekball, who has been in China with Dr. Anderson for several years, was the guest of Mrs. Harley MacNair yesterday.

Mrs. William B. Hale was reëlected president of the organization and Dr. Walter Lichtenstein again is treasurer. The other officers are: Vice presidents, Mrs. John Paul Welling, William B. Greenlee, and Theodore Hume; secretary, Miss Lucy Driscoll. Half of the dues are devoted to the Berthold Laufer Memorial fund, which is used for research work along Chinese cultural and educational lines.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dern of Glencoe are receiving congratulations upon the birth of their second son, to be named Bruce MacLeish Dern, yesterday morning at the Presbyterian hospital. Their elder boy, Johnny, will be 4 years old next Thursday.

Lawrence A. Downs has returned from New Orleans where he went to make the acquaintance of his first grandchild, Mary Katherine Oakley. He will return to the Louisiana city for tiny Mary Kay's christening on Sunday, June 14. Mrs. Downs remained in New Orleans. The baby was born on May 29 to the former Mary Kay Downs and her husband, Dr. John F. Oakley.

Mrs. Eames MacVeagh Is Here for Visit.

Mrs. Eames MacVeagh, who with Mr. MacVeagh, is living in Washington, D. C., now, is in the city for a fortnight's stay. She is at the Seneca and is being kept very busy by her many friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Connor of East Elm street are returning today from a month's trip to Italy. Mrs. Connor's sister, Mrs. Herbert Holland, who was staying with the Connor children during the absence of their parents, is moving back to her own apartment in Oakdale avenue.

When the Queen Mary sails from New York today the following Chicagoans will be aboard: Mrs. Ralph S. Greenlee, Mrs. Welch Dickinson, Mrs. Charles H. Chadwick, Mr. and Mrs. John Peale Bent, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Castle and their twin daughters, Josephine and Carolyn; Miss Clara E. Laughlin and her nieces, Betty and Mary Laughlin; Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Craig and their daughter, Daphne, and Henry Field.

The women's golf season at the Skokie Country club will open today with a blind bogey event in the morning, followed by luncheon and bridge. Miss Lorraine Hayes is chairman of women's golf at this north shore club.

Two Latin Schools Hold Exercises Today.

Within a few minutes after the seniors of the Chicago Latin School for Boys receive their diplomas at commencement exercises at 10:30 o'clock this morning, workmen will begin to transform the gymnasium into a garden for the dance the junior boys are giving there this evening for the graduating class.

Arbors, a summer house, Japanese lanterns, and a yellow canopy overhead are some of the decorative details which have been planned. As soon as the seniors of the Girls' Latin school are graduated at exercises at the Drake hotel this evening, most of them will be hurrying over to the boys' school for the dance.

WEDDINGS

Miss Nancy Wilds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Wilds of Kenilworth, was married to William Ward Davidson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Davidson of Evanston, last night in the Kenilworth Union church, the Rev. Herbert L. Willet officiating. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the residence of the bride's parents. The bride wore a white satin gown trimmed with lace used by the bride's great-great-grandmother, whose gown was made in France.

Miss Gertrude Herndon was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Charlotte Wilds, Miss Eleanor Thomson, Miss Patricia Davis, Miss Lucy Sparkman, Miss Jean Davidson, Miss Lucie Dix, and Miss Eloise Pope. Charles Roy was best man and ushering were Jack Blanchard, Ernest Luckas, Jack Kaufman, John Riddell, John Lucker, and Winston Slater. Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will be at home after July 1 at 2554 Prairie avenue, Evanston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward John Burnell of 6831 Paxton avenue announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Phyllis, to Garrett Rezeau Tucker Jr., son of Garrett R. Tucker of Ridgewood, N. J., on Tuesday, June 16, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, at Johnson chapel, Amherst, Mass. Following the ceremony there will be a reception in the Lord Jeffrey inn in Amherst.

Miss Burnell is just finishing her course at Mount Holyoke college and Mr. Tucker is being graduated this month from Amherst college. Mr. Tucker and his bride will spend a month in Havana and Nassau and then will be at home in New Haven, Conn., where he will attend the Yale law school in the fall.

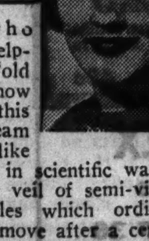
Must Women's Skins look "OLD" At 30-35-40?



WOMEN who once were helpless to fight off "old skin" at 35 now know how to avert this tragedy. A new cream applied at night like cold cream, acts in scientific way to free skin of that veil of semi-visible darkening particles which ordinary creams cannot remove after a certain age. So gentle! And often only 5 days is enough to bring out rose petal softness and white, clear look of youth. The way it eliminates ugly pimples, blackheads, freckles is a revelation! Ask for Golden Peacock Bleach Creme. Only 50c, at all good drug or department stores.

THE GUMPS—GUESS WHO?

Champs Get 18 Hits Off Four Pitchers.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

From a three hit shutout on Wednesday the Cubs leaped into an 18 hit orgy yesterday as a parting salute for the New York Giants, who also have pennant ambitions. The violence of the assault made a short day of labor for Clydell Castleman, made a relief effort by Carl [Lefty] Hubbell a matter of a few minutes and lifted the fourth place champions to an 8 to 5 triumph.

The fondness the Cubs displayed in a big way for the above mentioned pitchers and in a lesser way for Dick Coffman and Fred Fitzsimmons was welcomed by Lon Warneke. Given a handsome lead in the first few innings, the Arkansan was able to complete his third game in ten starts. Only Bill Terry and Mel Ott gave Warneke much trouble. Ott took a hand in all the enemy scoring episodes by hitting two homers and one single.

Castleman Fades Again.

Castleman was forced to surrender his job after four innings, which probably surprised nobody, including himself. It was the seventh straight time he has been flattened in less than regulation time since the season started.

Ethan Allen and Billy Herman probably regret that Castleman had to leave town so soon. Herman touched the luckless lad for a single and double No. 21. He also nicked Hubbell and Fitzsimmons for singles. Allen's contribution to the misery of the enemy was four singles, two of them off Castleman in the second and third, one off Coffman in the fifth and one off Fitzsimmons in the seventh. English, playing shortstop again because of Jurges' arm trouble, was one of the few held to one hit, but he cut it loose at a good time. He drove in the last of the four runs in the third.

Get Excited on Bases.

The Cubs hopped on Castleman for three successive hits with one out in the second, but got a bit excited on the bases and only one scored. The first happening was a strikeout for Hartnett. Next was a single to right by Demaree. Allen punched a single into left. Cavarretta singled past Terry to score Demaree and put Allen on third. A double steal was started, probably in anticipation of English hitting the ball. English missed and after a bit of throwing Allen was nailed at the plate. English then fanned for the third out.

Warneke had two Giants out of the way in the third before encountering Ott's bat. Terry planted himself on first by beating out a bounding single which Herman knocked down, but couldn't hold. Warneke pitched one wide ball to Ott, but the next wasn't wide and the little man dispatched a drive over the right field brick wall. This eighth homer of the year by the visiting delegate put the Giants in front by 2 to 1, but not for long.

A bounding infield single by Warneke opened the shelling of Castleman in the noisy third wher four Cubs scored. Hack followed with a single to right. Mancuso tried to catch Warneke napping off second, but the throw was wild. Warneke legged it to third and Hack to second. Warneke went home on Herman's single to right, Hack stopping at third. There was a lull while Whitehead was tossing out Galan.

Hartnett Beats Out Hit.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 4.—The ever surprising White Sox this afternoon gave the league leading New York Yankees another ferocious drubbing, 16 to 3, to take the series, two games to one. Today's affair quite outdid the 11 to 9 Chicago triumph in the series opener, partly because John Whitehead's four hit pitching was magnificent throughout, whereas the Sox had to suffer through a seven run first inning before gaining Tuesday's verdict. It was the first series the Yanks have lost at home this year and it established the Sox as the only team up on the Yanks in the season series.

Rip Radcliff, whose two homers and a single were dominant factors in Tuesday's victory, was a big dealer again today, although not a deciding factor. Rip knocked his No. 5 homer and two other singles and scored four runs. Luke Sewell knocked his third homer and Zeke Bonura drove in four runs on three hits and scored four runs himself. The Sox made 16 hits for 24 bases and drew 11 passes.

John Spaces Hits Well.

Whitehead, in registering his fourth victory of the season and the Sox's fourth over the Yanks in seven games played, spaced his hits well, there being one each in the second, third, fourth, and fifth innings. One of these was a homer by Rolfe after one of John's two passes, after two were out, in the third. The other run was an unearned counter in the fourth. Only 16 men faced Whitehead in the last five innings.

Monte Pearson, most successful pitcher in the league until today with eight victories and one defeat, made his first start of the year against the Sox but did not survive the inning. He walked five and allowed one infield hit for three runs before he went away. Pearson was followed by Broaca, Brown, and Kleinhans, all of whom were received by the Sox without a semblance of mercy.

Pearson Goes Away.

The White Sox's first 1936 look at Pearson was indeed a surprising experience. Radcliff walked on four pitches. Then Pearson showed some of the stuff that had made him the American league's biggest winner up to today. He struck out Kreevich and Haas. Bonura walked and the bases were loaded when Piet beat out an infield roller for his first hit in 18 trips to the plate. Hayes, Dykes,

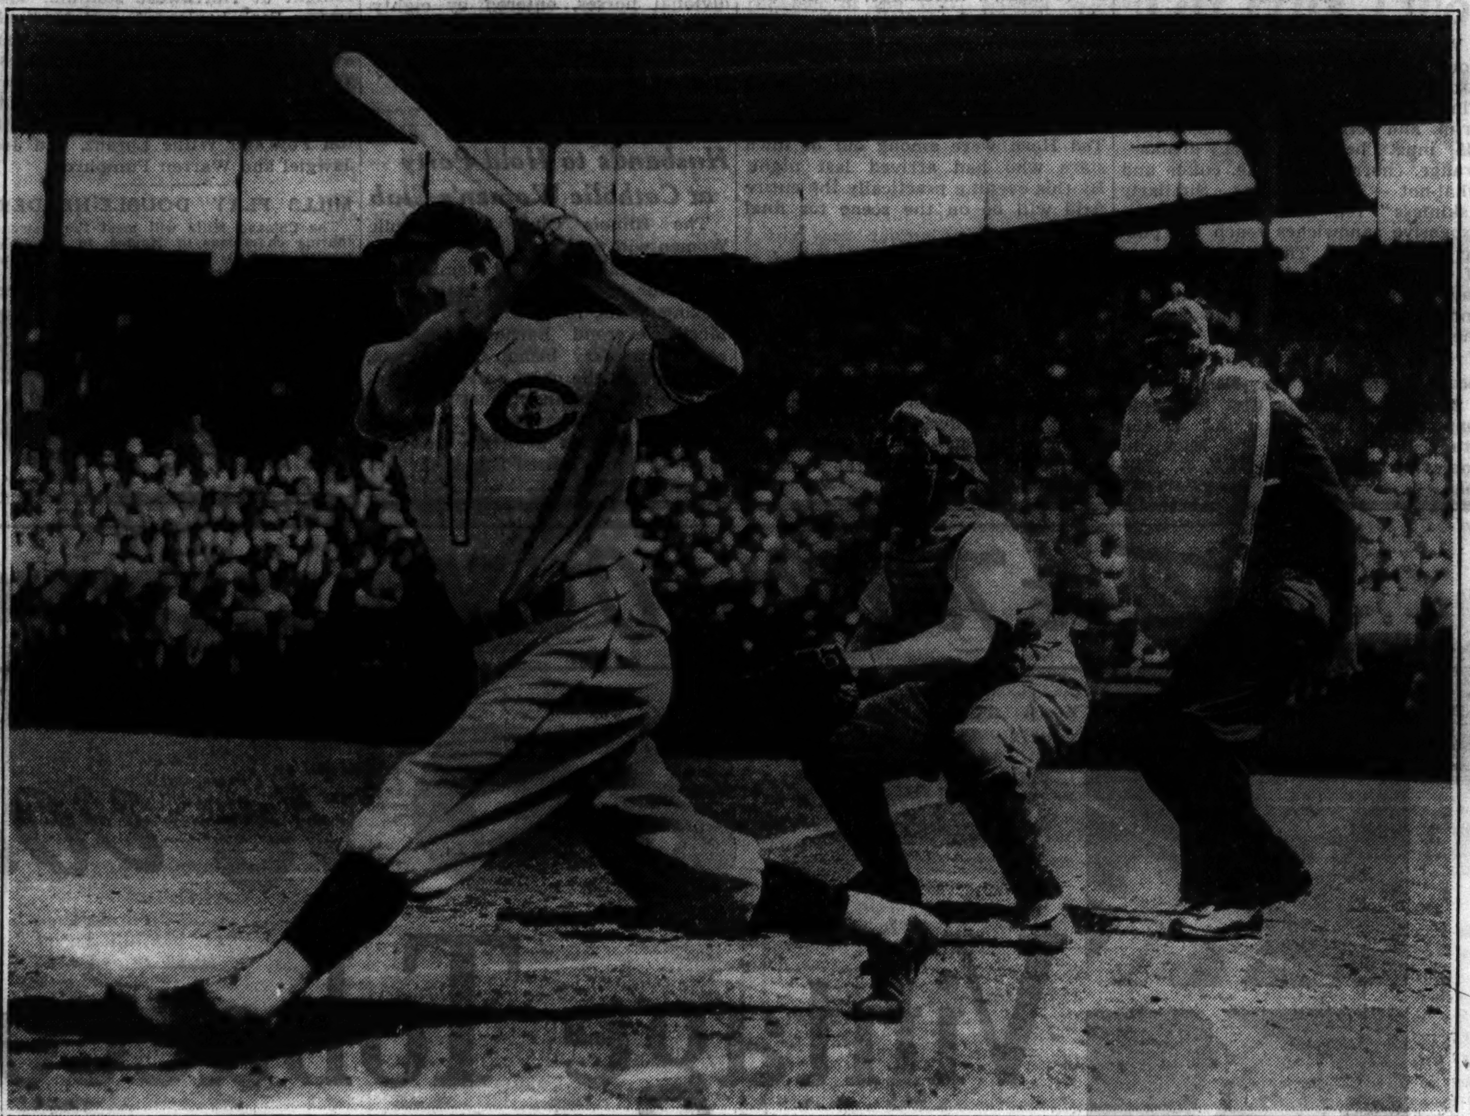
CUBS SAY FAREWELL TO GIANTS WITH 18 HITS



Gabby Hartnett strikes out in the second inning of yesterday's game with the Giants. The New York catcher is Gus Mancuso and the umpire Larry Goetz. Making 18 hits, the Cubs won, 8 to 5, and evened the two game series.

Belmont Stake May Name Top 3 Year Old

BY HARVEY WOODRUFF.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 4.—The running of the 68th Belmont stakes here Saturday will determine not only leading candidates of 1936 for 3 year old honors among those now sound and in racing condition, but also whether a hitherto illustrious trio can show their vaunted speed or be consigned to the class of almost great.

This trio is Brevity, hero of the Hialeah racing season in Florida, Granville of the Gallant Fox family, and Red Rain of the popular Whitney silks. They are the excuse horses of the present season. Each was accounted great, and may be great, but they have yet to prove it. It is now late enough in the season so that performance, rather than excuse, is expected. Especially is this true in the Belmont which is run at the true Derby distance of 1½ miles.

Missing from the expected field of ten will be Bold Venture, conqueror of Brevity in the Kentucky Derby

Michigan State Beats Iowa, 4-3, in First Game of Series

INDIANA OR OHIO PICKED IN MEET AT MARQUETTE

Preliminaries Today; Hold Finals Tonight.

BY WILFRID SMITH.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Milwaukee, Wis., June 4.—Ohio State or Indiana will win the team title in the Central Intercollegiate track and field meet in the opinion of those gathering here today.

Fifteen thousand, perhaps more, will see the competition tomorrow night for the Knute Rockne memorial trophy, emblematic of the championship. Rockne, with Con Jennings of Marquette and Ralph Young, director of athletics at Michigan State, founded these games in 1926 after the Western conference had closed its annual meet to all except member universities.

Notre Dame, winner of the indoor championship in the Central Intercollegiate meet, might still be included in the list of possible victors except that the Irish will not have the services of Capt. George Meagher, who is ill with a kidney ailment. Meagher finished third in the broad jump last year with a leap of 23 feet 4½ inches. He can do better and he was counted on for second place, with Jesse Owens of Ohio State being conceded the championship in this event.

Decision Hinges on Team Duel.

Larry Snyder, Ohio State coach, has not decided whether Owens will compete in the 220 yard low hurdles. His decision will hinge on the fight for the team championship. The Buckeyes won last year without Owens competing in the low hurdles. He won three other titles, scoring 15 of Ohio State's 31 points.

Since the preliminaries will be held in the afternoon with the championships at night, four events would place a terrific strain on the Buckeye star, who, after all, has a race Sunday in Chicago and a series of races next week in a dual meet at Columbus before entering the National collegiate meet June 19 and 20 at Stagg field, Chicago.

Wisconsin finished second last year with 29¼ points. The Badgers, who could do no more than place fourth in the Western conference meet, may prove the winner tomorrow. Indiana, however, with Don Lash, Big Ten champion in the mile and two mile, and Smith and Deckard supporting him, and with Dan Caldemeyer in the high hurdles and high jump, has the best chance unless Owens is sent out to take four firsts.

Mile Race Is Feature.

The mile championship, in which there will be no preliminaries, will be the feature of the meet. After Lash and Chuck Fenske of Wisconsin have decided their personal duel, the half mile promises more thrills.

In this race Charles Beetham of Ohio State, who holds the Western conference record, and Abe Rosenkranz of Michigan Normal will set the pace.

RUNYAN CARDS A 69; MANGRUM, CLARK EQUAL IT

Low Scoring Marks Opening Round.

BY CHARLES BARTLETT.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Short Hills, N. J., June 4.—Golfing sacrilege of a high order was committed today on the hallowed hills of Baltusrol, sixth oldest American club, as a field of 164 players smashed par in the first round of the fortieth National open tournament.

Chief violators of the first tenet of the open creed, that none but the few shall lower par in its 72 holes, were three professionals with 69s, three under par for the upper course. They were Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., former P. G. A. champion, and a low scoring genius of 1935; Ray Mangrum of Dayton, O., a twelve months' trouper on the tournament circuit every year, and Clarence Clark of Bloomfield, N. J., who has to cross only a couple of cornfields to reach Baltusrol.

Fourteen Break Par.

In any other open, Runyan, who was the first to post a 69; Mangrum, and Clark could lean back tonight and breathe more easily about tomorrow's 18 holes and possibly Saturday's final 36 holes as well, but not tonight, after a mad delirium of scoring the like of which the open never has seen in all its 40 years.

During the day, fourteen aspirants for the biggest title in golf showed their complete irreverence for Baltusrol's sacred acres by breaking par from three strokes down to one. Ten others would compromise no further than to match par. Seventy-seven shot 75 or better to stay within six shots of the three leaders.

Revolta Cards a 70.

Back of the leaders by one stroke were other professionals who may take charge of the meeting tomorrow and hold the gavel until the finish. The 70 shooters include Johnny Revolta of the Evanston club in the Chicago district, present holder of the National Professional and Western open crowns; Tom Kerrigan, the Siwanoy, N. Y., veteran who gave many of the present day stars a start; Henry Picard of Hershey, Pa., pre-tournament choice to win the tournament; Vic Ghezzi, the lengthy Italian of Deal, N. J.; Leslie Madison, who numbers several movie stars among the pupils at his Hollywood, Cal., club, and Frank Moore of Hartsdale, N. Y., brother of Terry Moore of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Nor can these six feel too comfortable this evening. Trailing them by a shot are five more professionals, three of them from the Chicago district. The Chicagoans are Harry Cooper, Glen Oak expert who shot the best golf of the day, but couldn't hole all of sixteen putts for birdies; Ky Laffoon of Northmoor, the scoring sensation of two years ago, and Johnny Bulla of Woodridge, a giant long-driving youth.

Wood in 71 Bracket.

Bracketed with them at 71 are Craig Wood of New York, the hard luck champion of the younger set, and Ted Longworth of Portland, Ore.

Samuel Parks of Pittsburgh, the personable young man who in the last year has conquered the natural consequences of his upset victory in 1935 at Oakmont, fared none too well today, shooting a 76. His partner, Revolta, pointed out that the champion was not collecting his share of breaks off the tees. Parks need not consider himself out of it, however, even in the present hysteria, for he is just seven shots back of the leaders. Last year, he was six back at the end of the first round.

Included among the ten who shot 72 were three amateurs: Chuck Kocsis, Big Ten champion from the University of Michigan; Maurice McCarthy of Cleveland, and Morton McCarthy of Virginia Beach, Va. With them were the pros, Bill Burke of Cleveland, 1931 open winner, and Denny Shute of Boston, former open title holder.

Course an Easy Touch.

Why this unprecedented onslaught on par? There is a suspicion tonight that Baltusrol's upper course is as soft a touch as the open field has been privileged to go at in a decade. Today offered no particular difficulties. The course, boiled by two days of steady sunshine, played far shorter and faster than their official total of 6,866 yards. Added to the natural conditions were pins placed in vulnerable spots for well hit irons and the use of the front tees.

With a first round such as this, apparently lacking in the pressure usually attending the open, it is now a possibility that the record low of 286 for the 72 hole distance will be lowered by Saturday night. Both Gene Sarazen of Brookfield Center, Conn., and Chick Evans of Chicago, co-holders of the record, admit that the feat is possible. Evans set the record at Minikhada in 1916 and Sarazen matched it at Fresh Meadow in 1932.

Eight Pars and a Birdie.

MAX SCHMELING SIGNS FOR BOUT WITH BRADDOCK

Thinks He'll Beat Louis on June 18.

Napanoch, N. Y., June 4.—[Special.]—Convinced now that he has a good chance to beat Joe Louis in their fight at the Yankee stadium June 18, Max Schmeling today capitulated to the persistent efforts of Mike Jacobs and signed a contract to fight James J. Braddock for the world heavyweight title in the event he beats the Brown Bomber.

The signing took place a few minutes before Schmeling went into his workout at the Napanoch Country club. Schmeling had steadily declined to sign until the fight with Louis was over. For one thing, he was superstitious and thought the signing might be a bad omen for the fight.

Thinks He Can Win.

"I want to get you signed up so you can fight for the championship," Jacobs told Schmeling.

"So you think I can win, do you?" said Max. "All right. When I came here first I was not so sure. Now, if you think I can win, I think so too."

The signing was brief and businesslike. If Schmeling wins, the fight with Braddock probably will be held in New York in September. If Louis wins there is a strong probability that the title fight will go over until next year, due to the income tax problem which faces Louis. His managers feel that he would be fighting a second fight this year largely for the benefit of the tax collector.

The signing of the contract today gave Jacobs a still stronger hold on the heavyweight situation. Braddock is held under contract by Madison Square Garden, but the contract calls for the Garden to name an opponent suitable to Braddock and his manager, Joe Gould, by Aug. 1, or accept the decision of the New York state boxing commission.

Commission Picks Max or Joe.

The boxing commission, however, has decreed that the winner of the Louis-Schmeling fight will be the opponent for Braddock. With Schmeling now signed by Jacobs, it appears that the Twentieth Century Sporting club holds all the aces in this struggle between promoters for the title fight.

The fact that Jacobs and others gave him a good chance to beat Louis seemed to put Schmeling in high spirits and he went through a fast workout, boxing six rounds and finishing with three rounds on the bags.

LOUIS AND RETIREMENT.

NEW YORK, June 4.—[Special.]—Mrs. Joe Louis, who less than a year ago was Miss Marva Trotter of Chicago, assistant to a south side dentist, has ideas for her husband's eventual retirement from the ring somewhat different from that of his official entourage. That is, her timing is different.

Womanlike, Mrs. Louis wishes Joe to take his ring earnings and settle down to nonpugilistic life before he incurs the inevitable facial scars of long activity in the roped arena.

"Joe's good looking now; at least I think he is," chirped the slender girl who effaces herself from training camp activities. "I want him to stay that way and quit before he is forced to quit, but not before he has earned the world championship. You see, Joe was a boxer when I married him, so I don't feel I have all the say in the matter, but better too soon than too late."

"What do you want him to do—go into business?" The Wake inquired.

"Yes, some good sound business or possibly become a farmer. Joe's very much interested in farming and an outdoor life would be good for him after his several years of training."

"How many fights afterward if he wins the title?" we queried.

"Well, none would suit me, but that's asking too much, I suppose. Perhaps one or two, but probably it will be more," she added plaintively. "I simply don't want him hurt or marked."

Mrs. Louis left her Lakewood hotel—the training cottage is strictly stag—and came to New York Sunday night in order that even her presence at ringside workout might not distract in the least from Joe's present business at hand, which is the physical annihilation of Herr Max Schmeling on the night of June 18.

Life of Louis.

"Joe Louis, Man and Super-Fighter" [Frederick A. Stokes company, $1], has been off the press about ten days. Already sales and advance orders have reached nearly 20,000 of the first edition of 25,000, according to the author, Edward Van Every, veteran pugilistic writer for a New York newspaper.

Large sales are expected in Chicago, Detroit, Pittsburgh, and Harlem. The book is a story of the rise of this one time obscure colored boy through THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE'S Golden Gloves tourneys to become the greatest gate attraction in the ring today.

Race Editors at Camp.

At Lakewood, N. J., remaining until after the Schmeling bout, are two sports editors of newspapers devoted primarily to the colored race. They are Al Monroe of the Chicago Defender and Chester Washington of the Pittsburgh Courier. Washington also acts as Louis' secretary in answering fan mail. Correspondent of the Amsterdam News, New York's race newspaper, makes daily trips to Lakewood.

Volume Sales in Small Units.

What surprises a visitor to New York are the number of prominent corners along Broadway and around Times Square given over to soft drink and refreshment booths. Rentals must be high. Yet drinks—orange, cherry, pineapple, coffee and what-not — are 5 cents. Similarly "skinless" red hots and other inexpensive sandwiches reach the public at a nickel. These places, most of them open twenty-four hours a day, do a rushing business all day and all night. They must pay or they wouldn't continue.

Shaw to Drive Car Raced to 3 Roby Victories

Wilbur Shaw, who led the Indianapolis race for 100 miles and finished in seventh place, will be one of the drivers Sunday at the New Roby speedway, 108th street and Indianapolis boulevard.

Shaw's entry had been in doubt until yesterday because of trouble he was having with his car. He had notified Promoter Carl Stockholm he would be unable to get his machine in running order, but this difficulty was overcome by arranging to have him drive the Pirrung Special in which Babe Stapp roared to three victories at Roby last season.

The shift in cars undoubtedly will be to Shaw's advantage, as the machine is suited to dirt track racing. In the special match race Lou Meyer, the Indianapolis champion, and Stapp will use the big two seaters in which they rode in the Hoosier classic.

Meyer, Stapp, Floyd Roberts, and Ted Horn were among out of town stars who had arrived last night. By this evening practically the entire field will be on the scene for final tuneups.

Hartsfeld to Be Official at Riverview Cycle Races

Art Hartsfeld, midget auto pilot, and formerly a motorcycle racer, will be the honorary starter at the first motorcycle races to be held at the Riverview speedway tonight. A series of seventeen races will be staged with the leading riders of the country participating.

Record Total of 330 Entered in Horse Show

Final arrangements for the Hinsdale horse show were made at a meeting of officials and committee heads last night. Following the session, Walter P. Saunders, president of the Hinsdale Horse Show association, announced that arrangements are complete for the opening of the event tomorrow at noon on the No. 1 field of Oak Brook Polo club, York road and 31st-st.

Early arrivals already have checked in, but most of the horses will be moved today. The rules call for all contestants to be in their stalls by tonight.

Last minute entries have brought the total to 330, a record, it was announced by William E. Hill, vice president and chairman of the entry committee. One hundred nineteen individual horses, entered by eighty-three exhibitors throughout the middle west will compete for cash prizes, trophies, and ribbons in the thirty-seven classes listed.

Husbands to Hold Party at Catholic Women's Club

The Illinois Club for Catholic Women will turn its quarters over to husbands and friends of members tonight for a smoker and stag party. Boxing bouts, to be provided by the Most Reverend Bernard J. Sheil, senior auxiliary bishop of Chicago, will provide the chief entertainment. Among the prominent guests will be Bishop Sheil, Mayor Kelly, Thomas J. Courtney, state's attorney, and Michael L. Igoe, United States district attorney.

Lomski Will Get $400 for Wiater Fight

Leo Lomski was signed for a $400 guarantee and a privilege of 30 per cent of the net gate receipts for a ten round bout with Adolph Wiater of Green Bay, Wis., at Marigold Gardens Monday. This was revealed by handlers yesterday as Lomski sparred three rounds with a lightweight, Benny Barrish, at Trafton's gymnasium. Two more small sparmates are being sought by Leo's backers in efforts to improve his speed and coördination. Lomski weighed 187 pounds after the drill, two more than he intends to scale for Wiater. Adolph expects to be ten pounds heavier.

Amateur boxing shows will be held tonight at Northwest stadium, 4848 Irving Park boulevard, and Medinah club of Chicago, 505 South Michigan avenue. Contests at the Northwest arena include those involving Tony Musto and Bernie Bowman, Emil Campagna and Webster Epson, Clifton Foy and Willie Lorenz, and Joe Jawgiel and Warren Pumphrey.

MILLS PLAY DOUBLE-HEADER.

The Chicago Mills will meet the Aztecas, touring champions of Mexico, in a double-header at Mills stadium, Lake street and Kilpatrick avenue, Sunday afternoon.

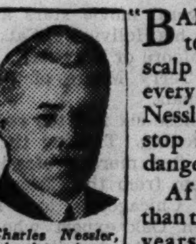
YOU CAN NEVER BE BALD
IF YOUR SCALP REPLACES HAIR THAT FALLS
says Charles Nessler



Charles Nessler, scientist, pioneer in hair research, inventor of permanent wave in 1906. Author of outstanding text-books on hair biology.

"BALDNESS is not natural. Nature never intended man to be bald. You can help your scalp perform its natural function—to replace every hair that falls with new hair," says Charles Nessler, leading hair biologist. "Any attempt to stop hair from falling is not only useless, but dangerous," Nessler further goes on to explain.

After more than twenty-five years of scientific research, out of Nessler's laboratory comes PRO-KER—the first scientific treatment ever based on the replacement theory—the theory that Nature must be helped to replace hair that falls. Not stop falling hair—that is impossible; but replace it. The PRO-KER Treatment helps the scalp perform this natural function . . . helps replace falling hair with new, healthy hair.

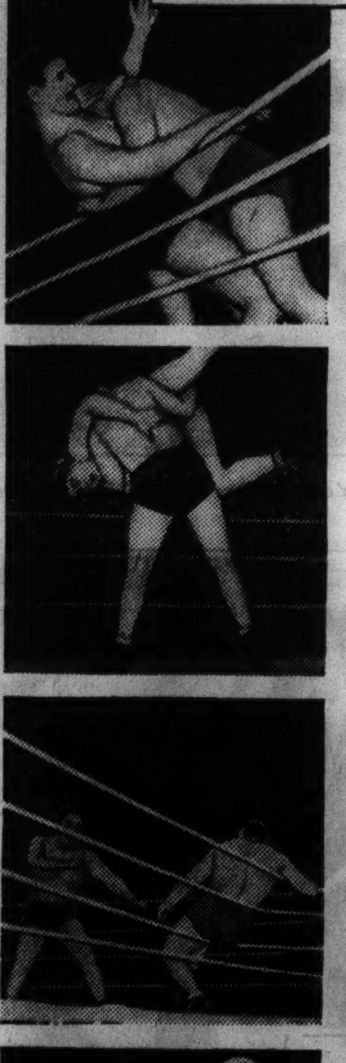
Taste Test No. 10—WRESTLING MATCHES
80% vote for Vintage Tobacco Mildness



NEW YORK, N. Y., MAY 4—It was a big wrestling night at the 71st Armory—and a real test of smoking pleasure for cigars . . . a test by taste alone!

Since only taste really gives enjoyment from a cigar, we wanted to see which cigar men would choose by taste alone. 309 smokers were chosen at random among the audience . . . given two unidentified cigars—a Vintage White Owl and another, representing the leading nationally advertised brands.

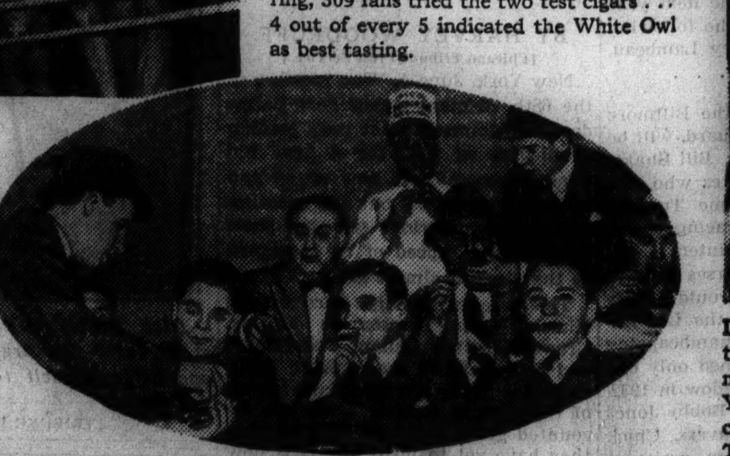
The cigars bore no names or familiar bands to prejudice them. Each man smoked both cigars—then indicated the one he liked best. They chose by taste alone . . . for taste is the only thing that really counts in a cigar. 80% preferred Vintage White Owl's mildness.

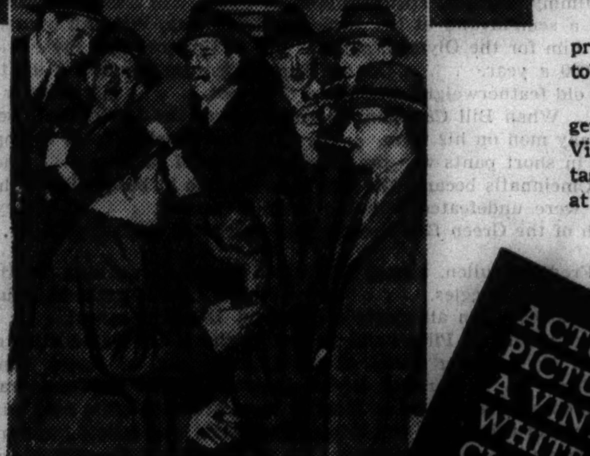
SONNENBERG AND CHIEF LITTLE WOLF . . . YVON ROBERT AND DUSEK . . . plenty of action, rough and tumble. And while the battles raged in the ring, 309 fans tried the two test cigars . . . 4 out of every 5 indicated the White Owl as best tasting.

MORE SMOKING PLEASURE . . . Today's White Owl is a double "best buy." It's a Vintage cigar—and it's larger, too. Look at this actual-size picture. White Owl averages a 10% longer smoke than other widely advertised 5¢ cigars.

Compare White Owl with your present brand. Taste the Vintage tobacco—see the extra size.

Wherever you are, you can get the same mild, uniform Vintage cigar that won these taste tests. It costs but 5¢ at your nearest cigar store.





LIKE A VINTAGE WINE . . . Vintage tobacco filler of every White Owl is mild, mellow. Why go on smoking cigars by name? You can't smoke brand bands or advertising claims. Smoke the cigar that tastes best. Try a White Owl and see for yourself.

Victory Is Boston's Third in Row Over Cleveland.

Boston, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—Bob [Lefty] Grove gained his eighth victory in eleven starts today when the Red Sox came from behind and beat the Cleveland Indians, 4 to 3, for the third straight day.

Grove gave the Indians nine hits, passed four, and hit one, but managed to hold them scoreless until the seventh inning. The Indians pulled into a 3 to 2 lead in the eighth, but the Red Sox scored the tying and winning runs in their half of the same inning. Score:

Mickey Cochrane Faints at Philadelphia Game

Washington, D. C., June 4.—(AP)—Del Baker, Detroit Tiger coach, said tonight that Manager Mickey Cochrane had suffered "a fainting spell" during today's game with the Athletics in Philadelphia.

Cochrane, said Baker, had been under heavy strain in recent weeks and today made two hard runs during the game.

Al Simmons, center fielder for the Tigers, was out of today's game suffering from a sprained ankle.

and Sewell walked, forcing Radcliff, Bonura, and Piet across the plate. Broaca replaced Pearson and Whitehead grounded to Lazzeri.

After Crosetti, Rolfe, and Di Maggio had been disposed of in order in the Yank first inning Radcliff led off the second inning with a homer into the right field bleachers.

In the Yankee half of the third Glenn grounded to Hayes and Broaca fanned. Crosetti drew Whitehead's first pass; then Rolfe lifted one into the right field bleachers, his third homer of the year, scoring behind Crosetti.

Sewell led off the fourth inning with a homer into the right field bleachers, his third of the year. Whitehead fouled to Gehrig, but Radcliff singled to right. Kreevich doubled to left, Radcliff stopping at third. Haas was given an intentional pass, filling the bases. Bonura singled to center, Radcliff and Kreevich scoring and Haas taking third. Piet forced Bonura, Haas scoring. Hayes flied out.

Dykes Throws Wide.

Gehrig started the home fourth with a single, the third Yankee hit, and reached second when Kreevich fumbled. Lou got to third on Selkirk's long fly to Radcliff and scored when Dykes threw wide to the plate on Chapman's grounder.

Kreevich led off the sixth with the first hit off Brown, who replaced Broaca, a single to center, advanced on Haas' sacrifice and scored leisurely on Bonura's double to the center field barrier. Piet flied to Chapman, but Hayes singled to right scoring Bonura. Lazzeri threw out Dykes.

Kreevich walked to start the eighth and again moved up on a sacrifice by Haas. Mike reached third when Brown threw to conter field trying to catch him off second and scored on Bonura's single to center. Piet walked, then Hayes singled off the right field barrier, Bonura scoring and Piet reaching third. Kleinhans, fourth Yank pitcher then replaced Brown. Dykes singled, Piet scoring and Hayes taking third. Sewell hit into a double play.

In the ninth the Sox added three more on singles by Radcliff, Haas, and Piet, and two walks.

SOX BUY ROSENTHAL

New York, June 4.—Owner Lou Comiskey of the White Sox staged his second surprise arrival of the season today and forthwith announced the purchase of Larry Rosenthal, youthful slugging outfielder of the St. Paul team of the American association. Mr. Comiskey says he hopes to have Rosenthal in Chicago ready to play when the team returns from the present road trip, although St. Paul wants to hold him for 1937 delivery.

Rosenthal is 23 years old, is tall and rangy and weighs 185 pounds. He is a left handed batter and a fast runner, according to Manager Dykes, who scouted him the day the team left Chicago on this trip. He has been batting from .360 to .400, playing regularly for St. Paul.

Sugar Cain, added to the White Sox staf since the team was in Boston, tomorrow afternoon will seek to halt the unbroken supremacy of the Red Sox in 1936 competition.

Dodgers Call on Cubs Today; Lee to Pitch Opener

The mirth provoking Brooklyn Dodgers will call around this afternoon for three games with the Cubs. Bill Lee, who usually handles the Brooklyn boys with neatness and dispatch, will face them in the opener. Van Lingle Mungo will start for the Dodgers.

Manager Grimm had played nine straight games before removing himself from first base yesterday. When he'll return, if ever, is a question. X-ray pictures of his back, which has been giving him misery for more than a year, revealed that nature's cushion had vanished from between a few of the vertebræ.

Ott Hits Two Homers, but Cubs Win, 8-5

ball bouncing off Castleman's glove. Hack scored on it. Demaree grounded to Bartell, whose throw to Mancuso stopped Herman at the plate. Allen singled to left and Hartnett scored from second. Cavarretta was purposely passed, filling the bases. The strategy wasn't successful. English singled to right, Demaree scoring, but Cavarretta, in his hurry to get some place, went to third without noticing that Allen was on the bag. Allen tried to straighten out the tangle by starting for the plate, but was run down.

With a hit batter, a double and a single the Cubs had a lot of exercise on the bases in the fourth, but could score only one, giving them a 6 to 2 edge. Warneke, who led off, was hit by Castleman, but was forced by Hack. Hack was out stealing. Herman then clubbed double No. 21 down the left field line and scored on Galan's single to left. Hartnett ended the inning with a fly to Ott.

Giants Pick Up Two.

A pass to Terry to open the sixth brought on the splurge that grew into two runs for the Giants. Ott singled to left. Leiber flied to Allen and Mancuso loaded the bags with a scratch single to Herman. Three strikes fixed up Mayo, the next batter. Ripple stepped in as pinch hitter for Bartell and singled to left, Terry and Ott scoring. Leslie then swung for Coffman, who had pitched the fifth, and grounded into a force-out.

Hubbell got Warneke out of the way in the sixth before the Cubs steamed up a two run rally that forced the southpaw ace into retirement. Hack tripled to left and registered on Herman's single through short. Galan walked and Hartnett singled to score Herman. This was where Fitzsimmons came to Hubbell's rescue. On a short passed ball Galan attempted to sneak to third, but Mancuso threw him out. Demaree forced Hartnett for the third out.

Warneke weathered the last three innings on a yield of one hit. This was Ott's homer No. 9 which drifted over the right field screen close to the flagpole in the eighth.

Dodgers Beat Paul Dean and Cardinals, 4-3

St. Louis, Mo., June 4.—(AP)—Paul Dean failed in a relief pitching rôle today and gave up the tying and winning runs as the Brooklyn Dodgers beat the Cardinals, 4 to 3, and broke their four game winning streak.

SPANISH BABE BY NOSE AT $17.60! AND WHAT A RACE

Jocky McCoy Is Hero in Rousing Finish.

BY FRENCH LANE.

It isn't often any more that Jimmy McCoy, the veteran jocky who invented the goggles for horseback riders, winds up the day at a race track as the hero.

Yet ageing Jimmy was the fellow they were patting on the back at Hawthorne last night and shouting into his ears, "A fine ride, kid."

Jimmy was in the saddle on Spanish Babe in the Beverly Hills handicap. With the Denemark entry of Corinto and Brown Feathers in the struggle and ruling as the odds-on favorite, and Salaam, Bright Light, and others mustering much backing, Spanish Babe went to the post as a long shot.

Then the sparring for positions started.

Brown Feathers, running mate of stout hearted Corinto, was the first to show in front. Spanish Babe then found an opening next to the rail and her nose was soon out there bobbing in the lead.

She enjoyed the lead until the field hit the last turn. At that stage Salaam and Corinto dashed past her and to all appearances the final outcome was to be a fight between this pair.

Carries Corinto Wide.

It may not have been intentional but, at any rate, Jocky Dudley rounded the turn far out from the rail and carried Corinto even wider with him. This left an opening close to the rail about the width of Michigan avenue.

At that stage hero Mr. McCoy stepped right out into the center of the stage. He started kicking, whipping, and yelling at Spanish Babe. She arose to new heights. Saving many lengths of ground, Spanish Babe got up in the last stride to win by the length of her nose.

She had stepped the mile and a sixteenth under her light impost of 102 pounds in 1:46 2-5, which is about as fast as horses have run at Hawthorne this year. In the mutuel betting she paid $17.60 for a $2 ticket.

Disqualification Causes Turmoil.

There was turmoil of the "timber fire" type after the running of the six furlong fourth race, in which the favorite, Mr. Ricks, at $1.40 to a dollar, won by five lengths. The excitement came when the stewards ordered Mr. Ricks disqualified.

Jocky Basil James, who was up on the winner and who has mustered a horde of followers in Chicago, drew a ten day suspension. He had piloted 18 winners home during the first 10 days of the meeting.

The ruling moved Sailors' Gift into first place, and Black Scout into second position. The weak hearted Tomye got the slim end of the purse.

LASSIE DRAWS 96

Ninety-six 2 year old fillies, a number greater than ever before, remain eligible to the Arlington Lassie stakes following the final payment on May 15. Only 13 starters now are required in the dash of six furlongs on Arlington Park's program July 18 to bring the gross value to more than $35,000, the richest since the event was inaugurated in 1929.

Practically all of the good fillies so far developed are eligible for the Lassie. They are headed by Hal Price Headley's Apogee, a daughter of Pharamond II., and Summit, which has the Fashion stakes at Belmont Park and the Old Colony stakes at Narragansett Park to her credit. In the Fashion, Apogee defeated Swiftply and in the Old Colony she brought to an end the winning streak of Planetoid.

and of Granville in the Preakness. Bold Venture bowed a tendon in a workout so the argument of whether his triumph over Brevity at Louisville was due to rough riding or superior stamina will remain unanswered. Also missing is Count Morse from the string of Warren Wright of Chicago. Count Morse did so well in the Illinois Derby, being third to Rushaway after interference that he was shipped here only to go wrong.

Now let's look at these excuse nags. Brevity equaled the world record for 1⅛ miles in winning the Florida Derby. He was odds-on choice at Louisville. Bumped at the start, he chased after the field and was only a head behind Bold Venture. He probably was the better horse, but he did not win. Withheld from the Preakness, he started in the Withers mile, only to finish a rather indifferent second to White Cockade, also on the shelf now with weak underpinning. Again Brevity was odds-on, again he was bumped at the start. It was a perfectly good explanation, but there's no payoff on explanations.

Loses Jocky in Derby.

So we pass to Granville, son of Gallant Fox. Granville was beaten by his stablemate, Teufel, in the Wood Memorial. It was a narrow margin and Granville was regarded as the best horse. Granville's jocky was unseated at the start of the Kentucky Derby. That, naturally, was not his fault, but it was scant solace to holders of his tickets. In the Preakness Granville did not lose Jocky J. Stout, but Bold Venture caught him in the closing strides after Granville apparently had a winning lead to take the stake by a nose.

Although he is a 3 year old Granville was then even money choice for the suburban handicap, an all-aged affair at 1¼ miles. Again he was on the way to victory when Fire Thorn, second to Omaha in the Belmont of 1935, caught him from behind. The excuse was that Granville was giving weight by the scale to a good horse.

Finishes Poorly in Withers.

Now for Red Rain. He was not ready for the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. But the winner of the Hopeful and Flash stakes at Saratoga in 1935 did start in the Withers mile. Away poorly, he finished in the ruck.

FIND ORR HORSE DOPED; STABLE IS SUSPENDED

Metaurus Reacts to Test of Saliva.

The race horses in the stable of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Orr of Omaha are likely to be idle for quite some time.

A saliva test of the horse Metaurus, winner of the third race at Hawthorne on Monday, showed positive reaction to strychnine, the board of stewards at Hawthorne announced yesterday.

They ruled that the entry of this horse and all the others in the Orr stable will not be accepted during the remainder of the Hawthorne meeting.

With two and possibly three starters in the Hawthorne Juvenile handicap on Saturday, the Milky Way farms entry seems likely to go to the post a big favorite in the $5,000 race. The Milky Way youngsters include the winner of the Bashford Manor at Churchill Downs and the Texas Juvenile handicap at Arlington Downs. Murph took the Kentucky stake and Dogaway the latter. Both may be in the starting gate Saturday, with Reaping Reward, another probable Milky Way color bearer. Nation's Taste, which was also named for the handicap, is a carded starter in the fifth race today.

Yellow Tulip was reported to have been disturbed a bit by the long van trip here from Detroit, but Trainer Johnny Kermath was of the opinion the Bomar stable ace would be ready for the Juvenile. Yellow Tulip and Little Shaver likely will rule second choice to the Milky Way entry in the event.

With the return of Count Morse from Belmont Park, where he was injured while preparing for the Belmont stakes, Jocky Eddie Arcaro is expected back at Hawthorne in time to have the mount on the Calumet farm entry in the Juvenile.

Jocky Henry Hauer was fined $25 by the Hawthorne stewards yesterday for failing to keep Santerno straight in the stretch in the second race.

THREE SHARE U. S. OPEN GOLF LEAD WITH 69 TOTALS

Low Scoring Marks First Round of Play.

and a birdie for a 35, one under par. He chipped off the stroke at the 385 yard fifth, wrere he ran down a 12 footer. Coming home he immediately turned on the fireworks that were to bring him a 34, two under, on the back nine, which most of the other leaders found somewhat harder to play. He started back by placing his tee shot to the 158 yard tenth three feet away and then holing it for a deuce.

Came the 602 yard eleventh. A drive and a brassie left him 125 yards from the pin, and there Runyan turned one of the best tricks of the day, holing out with a mashie niblic for an eagle three. His second shot to the 12th, however, found a trap and he needed a five to get down. He regained this with a 12 footer for a deuce at the 140 yard 15th, and hit the cup on an 18 foot try for a birdie at the 563 yard 17th. His drive to the 18th found the rough, and his second sailed far to the right toward the crowd. The ball struck a tree, and from there would have bounced into a trap except that it struck a messenger boy's foot. Two putts, after getting on, gave him a five and his 69.

Mangrum Collects Birdie.

Mangrum was short of the first green with his second shot, but chipped on and collected his birdie four. He dropped a six footer at the third, and then followed par to the tenth, where he scored another deuce, this time with an eight footer. He repeated this performance at the 140 yard fifteenth dropped a ten footer for par at the sixteenth, and then on the eighteenth went over par for the only time in the round. He drove the rough and missed the green with his second. His chip was weak, and he needed two more to get down from there.

From the standpoint ol perfect golf Cooper probably submitted the best performance of the day. His iron play was heroic, enabling him to connect with all but one green, the thirteenth, and giving him chances for sixteen birdies, one of them a potential eagle. The latter occurred at the first hole, where his 12 foot try for the three missed by an inch. From there on to the 13th he was putting for birdies on every hole, but could get down only two, a five footer at the ninth, where he changed putters, and a 12 footer at the 12th.

The major grief of the round came at the thirteenth, where Cooper's drive turned up in a creek. He elected to hit it from there, but his recovery finished under a small tree. It took him three shots, one of them left handed, to reach the green from there, and then he had to hole a six foot putt for a six. From there on he matched par, a 50 foot effort for a birdie on the 18th lipping the cup.

Laffoon was over par on only two holes, the second and tenth, but more than matched these with three birdies, scored at the first, seventh, and fourteenth.

Bulla, after trapping his drive to the first, got on with his next and down in two for a birdie. He missed a four-footer at the second and matched par except for the 563 yard seventeenth, which he reached in two for a birdie.

ALLEN FINED $250 FOR DISTURBANCE IN BOSTON HOTEL

The pitcher was knocked out of the box by the Red Sox during yesterday's game and last night, O'Neill said he was told, he ripped a fire extinguisher from a wall in the lobby and hurled it at a hotel employé.

Crooked Lake, in Minocqua Area, Has Good Fishing

BY BOB BECKER.

After fishing dozens of lakes in the area around Minocqua and Woodruff, Wis., we looked over the map the other day and put a pencil on several fishing spots in that territory that we wanted to add to our list. Of the group that we marked, Crooked lake had No. 1 position, because we have wanted to put a boat on Crooked lake for many years.

Being not far from Crooked lake, a pretty isolated body of water way back in the woods, we finally made the trip over the woods road with a boat in order to look it over.

It's one of the most irregularly shaped lakes that you can imagine. Therefore it is beautiful, interesting to fish—ideal for casting the shore line. It has a number of islands, the shore line is heavily timbered. Few cabins or resorts are to be found on its shores. Moreover, the water is very clear. All in all, we found Crooked one of the most attractive lakes we have seen for quite a while.

There are some dandy muskies in it. Frank Wildcat, our old Indian guide in the Flambeau, has great respect for Crooked lake as a producer of big muskies and very large pike. However, the pike are not easy to find, judging from the evidence we found on the lake. When you do find them and if they are hitting you can be ready for some sport. They run large—even larger than in some others of the best pike lakes.

WAGGONERS SIGN PITCHER.

Al LeComte, Louisville American association pitcher, has been signed by the Waggoner baseball team and will pitch one of the games of the double-header Sunday afternoon against the Chicago Firemen at Champagne Velvet stadium.

PIRATES BUY WELCH.

CATHOLIC PREPS TO OPEN MEET AT NOTRE DAME

Notre Dame, Ind., June 4.—[Special.]—The vanguard of the 224 contestants from 19 schools who will compete in the third annual Notre Dame national Catholic interscholastic track meet were here tonight awaiting tomorrow's preliminaries.

Included in today's arrivals were 23 young men from West Catholic High school, Philadelphia, which won the team championship the last two years. The Philadelphia school again is the favorite to win the national Catholic prep championship. De Paul, Chicago, which has entered 27 men, is expected to put up a tough battle.

Maher Holds 100 Yard Record.

Among the returning stars are John Maher, West Catholic, who set a meet record in the 100 yard dash; Zimmerman, St. Ignatius, Chicago, quarter miler; Capt. Al Haworth, St. Ignatius, sprinter; C. Barbara, West Catholic, pole vaulter; Capt. Ross Carney, St. Ambrose, Davenport, Ia., javelin and broad jump; T. Brennan, Leo, high jump, and Tortorello, St. George, Evanston, pole vault.

Steve Juzwik, De Paul, Chicago, is one of the broad jump favorites, having cleared 21 feet 6 inches last week, an inch better than the meet record.

Preliminaries in the dashes, hurdles, discus, shot put, javelin, and broad jump will be held tomorrow afternoon, with finals scheduled for two o'clock Saturday afternoon.

Here Are Entries.

De Paul, Chicago, 27; West Catholic, Philadelphia, 23; St. George, Evanston, 21; Mount Carmel, Chicago, 19; Leo, Chicago, 17; Fenwick, Oak Park, 14; St. Ambrose, Davenport, Ia., 13; Decatur, Ind., Catholic, 13; Marion, Aurora, Ill., 12; De La Salle, Chicago, 7; St. Rita, Chicago, 7; Good Counsel, Newark, N. So Skinny He was Ashamed to Go Swimming!
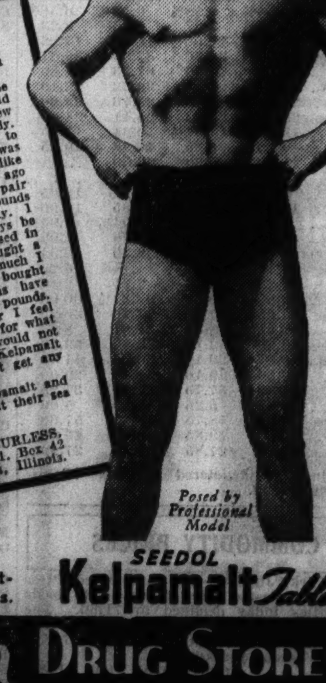
...BUT HE GAINED 30 LBS. QUICKLY ON KELPAMALT -NOW FEELS GREAT!



The Kelpamalt Co.
Gentlemen:
I had been skinny since childhood. Last September was my 19th birthday so you see how long I had been skinny.
Most every Sunday the kids in the neighborhood would go swimming. I did not go with them. I suppose they knew why. I was ashamed of my skinny body. I was nervous, too. Even when I went to town or to picnics in summer I was ashamed to have my sleeves rolled up like the other fellows did. A few months ago when I was up town I stepped on a pair of scales. I weighed about 120 pounds and me a young man going on twenty. I thought of the future—would I always be skinny? I had saw Kelpamalt advertised in the papers and magazines so I bought a bottle. I was sure amazed at how much I gained and how much better I felt. I bought 4 more bottles. Over two months have passed. I have gained better than 30 pounds. You don't know how much better I feel and look and how thankful I am for what Kelpamalt has done for me. I would not take a hundred dollars for what Kelpamalt has done for me, if I could not get any more.
So I am going to thank Kelpamalt and the Kelpamalt Company for what their sea minerals has done for me.
Yours very truly,
LESTER D. CURLESS,
R. No. 1, Box 42
Astoria, Illinois.

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Foreign dollar obligations provided the most spectacular performance in today's bond market, sharp declines in a few instances reflecting both social and monetary disturbances in Europe. The strike situation in France, coupled with the crisis confronting the franc, served to send French bonds down sharply, the 7½s of 1941 losing 5⅞ points and sinking close to the low level established earlier this year.

Polish bonds were a close second in setting a pace for the decline in European issues. Poland 8s of 1950 hit a new low for the year, with a decline of 4⅞ points. Italian issues continued weak, although declines were moderate.

United States government bonds also turned weak, although the culmination of the treasury's financing project was held accountable, rather than the European monetary situation, which has been largely ignored in the market for treasury issues. Losses of 1-32 to 8-32 of a point were registered by most of the direct treasury and guaranteed issues. Longer term maturities displayed less resistance than others.

Several domestic corporate bonds had rough sailing, but in most cases there was specific news to account for the movement. Schulco 6¼s dropped 11 points on light offerings, Allis-Chalmers 4s declined 1¾, and Paramount 6s declined a point.

Schulco is controled by the Schulte Retail Stores, which yesterday filed papers for a reorganization. Two issues of Baltimore and Ohio bonds also were conspicuous on the offside. Issues displaying resistance included Warner Brothers 5s, Illinois Central 4s, Columbia Gas 5s, and U. S. Rubber 5s.

Virginian Railway.

Investors' Guide: Can you give me information concerning Virginian Railway company first and refunding 3¾% bonds due in 1966?—Miss C. B. D.

Answer: Virginian Railway properties were constructed with the avowed intention of "affording the shortest possible route to tidewater over the lowest grades" from the bituminous coal fields of West Virginia.

The road is almost exclusively a coal carrier. It is efficiently operated. Dense trafic, electrification of a major part of its mileage, and large capacity equipment help make economical operation possible. Even during relatively poor years equipment was not allowed to deteriorate.

Most of the common and preferred stock is held by an estate, the small amount of common in the hands of the public commanding only an inactive over the counter market.

Net income in the first quarter of 1936 was $1,273,000, compared with $952,000 in the corresponding 1935 period.

Operating revenues for 1935 were $15,784,000 and net income was $4,143,000, or $7.89 per common share. In 1934 operating revenues were $14,443,000 and net income was $3,518,000, or $5.89 per common share. Fixed charges were earned 2.33 times in 1935, against 2.09 times in 1934, and never have been covered less than 1.50 times.

Earnings per common share were $4.09 in 1933, $1.27 in 1932, $5.05 in 1931, $8.88 in 1930, and $13.03 in 1929.

On Jan. 31, 1936, current assets totaled $7,436,000, and current liabilities were $1,603,000.

First mortgage 5 per cent series A, and 4½ per cent, series B, bonds due in 1962, were redeemed on May 1, 1936.

The retirement was effected through issuance of $60,344,000 first and refunding mortgage 3¾ per cent bonds, due March 1, 1966. The new bonds are sound.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS LOANS TO BE MARKETED TODAY

Camden, N. J., Will Retire Floating Debt.

An investment banking group headed by White, Weld & Co., will offer publicly today $7,500,000 first mortgage bonds, series A, 4½ per cent, and $3,750,000 of 4¾ per cent convertible debentures of El Paso Natural Gas company. Dated June 1, 1936 and due June 1, 1951, the bonds are priced at 98½ and accrued interest and the debentures, dated June 1, 1936 and due June 1, 1946, are priced at 100 and accrued interest.

Proceeds from the sale of the securities will be used to retire the company's 6½ per cent first mortgage sinking fund bonds, due Dec. 1, 1943; its 6 per cent 10 year convertible debentures, due Dec. 1, 1938; the first mortgage 5½ per cent bonds due Jan. 1, 1944; the second mortgage 6 per cent bonds due Jan. 1, 1944, of the Western Gas company; the 6 per cent debentures due Jan. 1, 1944, of El Paso Mortgage corporation, and for other corporate purposes.

Camden, N. J., to Refinance.

Funding bond ordinances authorizing the eventual issuance of $8,985,000 of refunding bonds to retire all of the floating debt of the city of Camden, N. J., and calling for the public offering on June 16, of $5,010,000 of the amount authorized, were adopted yesterday in final form by the board of commissioners.

The sale on June 16 will enable the city to retire $972,000 of serial and term bonds maturing prior to Jan. 1, 1937, and to pay off all tax revenue notes and temporary improvement bonds maturing prior to Jan. 1, 1937, and all scrip, warrants, and overdue county taxes aggregating about $3,412,000. The bonds include general, school, and water refunding obligations.

Application has been made to the public service commission of Maryland by the Consolidated Gas Electric Light and Power company of Baltimore for authorization to issue $4,852,800 additional par value, series A, 5 per cent preferred stock. The authorization covers capital expenditures previously made. The company does not plan to dispose of this stock at this time.

Plans Stock Subscription.

Subscription privileges for purchase of 23,803 shares of Paraffine Companies, Inc., recently authorized 4 per cent preferred stock [$100 par] will be granted stockholders of record June 12, the company reported yesterday. The offer will be on the basis of one-twentieth of a share of preferred for each common share held. Transferable subscription warrants will be mailed to stockholders June 14. The warrants expire July 1.

Stockholders of the Underwood Elliott Fisher company will be offered rights to subscribe at $75 a share for 66,444 shares of common stock at the ratio of one new share for each ten now held. The subscription privilege will be given to stockholders of record June 15 and will expire July 6. Proceeds of the sale will be used to retire the 27,050 shares of 7 per cent now outstanding and the balance for general corporate purposes.

Railroad Seeks Loan.

The Pere Marquette railway asked interstate commerce commission authority to issue $1,260,000 of 2¼ per cent equipment trust certificates, proceeds from which will be used to aid in financing the purchase of new equipment estimated to cost $1,575,000. The new equipment consists of 400 forty ton steel automobile cars equipped with auto loaders, and 100 forty ton steel automobile-furniture cars.

City of Philadelphia, Pa., officials announced the postponement of the sale of $5,000,000 of fifty year 3¼ per cent bonds from June 15 to June 24. The bonds will now be dated July 1, 1936, and mature on July 1, 1986. Proceeds will be used to complete the Locust street subway and to redeem warrants.

A. G. Becker & Co. have purchased $250,000 Fond du Lac, Wis., 1 per cent corporate purpose notes, to be dated July 1, 1936, and due July 1, 1937, which will be reoffered at a price to yield 0.50 per cent.

EVANSTON BANK PAYS 10% MORE TO DEPOSITORS

The liquidating committee of the City National Bank and Trust Company of Evanston yesterday announced a sixth liquidating distribution of 10 per cent and said that prospects ppear favorable for an eventual 100 per cent liquidation of deposit liability.

The return announced yesterday will be made on June 10 and will bring the total distribution to 84 per cent of the amounts on deposit at the time of the bank moratorium. The bank went into voluntary liquidation in June, 1933, and 60 per cent of the deposit liability was paid at that time.

Members of the liquidating committee are John S. Burchmore, James M. Flinn, and Nels M. Hokanson, with W. R. Schuster as executive assistant.

SHOWERS IN EASTERN BELT CAUSE COTTON RECESSION

Showers were reported over parts of the eastern cotton belt early yesterday and resulted in a moderate recession in prices. Precipitation however, was generally regarded as too light to be of material benefit in view of nearly two months of subnormal precipitation. Closing trades were about the top. Net gains in Chicago were 1 to 8 points on the active deliveries while New York was up 2 to 7 points. New Orleans closed unchanged to 4 points higher as compared with Tuesday. [A point is equal to 1-100 cent.]

Spot cotton closed 5 points higher to 5 points lower with New Orleans, 11.95 cents; Houston and Galveston, 11.65 cents, and New York at 11.75 cents per pound. Prices follow:

BROKERS' LOANS SOAR TO CARRY NEW U. S. BONDS

10 Pct. Deposit Required on Subscriptions.

Brokers' loans of New York banks rose 209 million dollars in the week ended Wednesday, according to the federal reserve statement released last night. The increase was the sharpest in several weeks and occurred in a period when trading in the stock market was quiet.

Total brokers' loans now outstanding amount to 1 billion 176 million dollars, compared with the all-time peak figure of nearly 8 billion dollars in 1929.

The week's increase was believed to represent in a large measure borrowings by dealers subscribing to the new government securities. Under new regulations by the treasury subscribers are required to post a ten per cent cash deposit with their subscriptions. The step was taken in an effort to prevent padding of subscriptions.

Ask for More Bonds Than Wanted.

In the past many individuals and institutions entered subscriptions for more bonds than they actually wished to buy in order to insure an allotment of the amount desired. With heavy oversubscriptions of treasury issues the securities are allotted on a pro rata basis.

The 10 per cent deposit requirement was in effect for the first time on the treasury's billion dollar offering last week. On earlier offerings deposits of 5 per cent were demanded. These deposits are retained by the treasury and applied on the purchase price when the securities are actually issued.

Brokers' loans in Chicago also expanded 12 millions last week. None of the loans went to New York brokers or dealers, indicating that dealers here borrowed the funds in connection with the government financing.

Nation's Gold at New High.

Imports of gold were accelerated again as fresh uneasiness developed last week over the French situation. The statement of the twelve reserve banks showed an increase in monetary gold stocks of 21 millions, which brought the total to another all-time high figure of 10 billion 409 million dollars.

The steady increase in bank reserves, which has been under way for many weeks, was interrupted. The excess reserves of all member banks declined 60 millions during the week. Banks apparently drew on their balances with the central institutions in order to subscribe to the new short term treasury issues.

Commercial loans increased in both New York and Chicago. Credit of this type outstanding in Chicago was 5 millions larger than a week earlier, while New York banks reported an increase of 26 millions.

EUROPE'S GOLD FLIGHT RISES AS FEARS DEEPEN

Britain, U. S. May Act

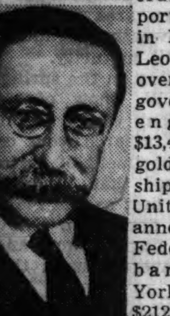
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 4.—An informal agreement has been reached by the United States and British governments to take common action in the event the French franc goes off the gold standard, according to reports in London financial circles tonight. The understanding is said to be that the exchange equalization funds of the two countries [reputedly totaling nearly 4 billion dollars] will be used to prevent undue fluctuations as far as possible, in an attempt to prevent other gold bloc currencies from getting out of hand.

Apprehension over the French economic situation deepened yesterday as strikes and disorders were reported spreading in France and Leon Blum took over the reins of government. The engagement of $13,455,000 more gold in Paris for shipment to the United States was announced by the Federal Reserve bank of New York, bringing to $212,300,000 the total of gold taken in France for American account since April 24.



LEON BLUM.

While these gold engagements were supporting the franc in terms of the dollar at 6.58⅜ cents, unchanged from the previous day, the French currency continued to fall in terms of sterling and, boosted by the flow of refugee money from continental Europe to London, the pound rose to $5.04, the highest price since August, 1934.

Forward Discounts Widen.

Forward discounts on the gold bloc currencies widened sharply. The discount on three months' franc futures increased 6½ points to 56 points, the discount on three months' guilders rose 15 points to 175 points, and that on Swiss franc futures rose 10 points to 92 points. Spot guilders, Swiss francs, and belgas closed steady.

The rise of the pound sterling attracted selling of that currency by a commercial interest and brought a reaction which left the British currency at $5.03¾, off ⅝ cent from Wednesday. Some currencies linked with sterling declined slightly.

In the London market, which is the focal point of interest for foreign exchange traders at present, offerings of French francs and Dutch guilders continued to flow into the market, sending the pound to new peaks against both currencies.

London-Paris Rate.

The distinct weakness of the franc abroad was indicated in the London-Paris cross rate of 76.54 francs to the pound. On this basis the value of the French currency was equal to 6.57⅜ cents in American funds, or ⅜ point under the franc's value of 6.58⅜ cents in the New York market. This cross rate compared with 75.80 francs to the pound a week ago.

The report of the Bank of France, published yesterday, which covered the week ended on last Friday, showed a further drop in gold holdings equal to about $29,000,000, together with large increase in the volume of notes in circulation and of bills discounted at home. Since the date of the statement the bank is estimated to have lost an additional $100,000,000 of gold, $73,000,000 having been engaged for shipment to this country alone. French gold stocks totaled about $3,754,120,000 last Friday, a five year low mark.

Indication of Hoarding.

Note circulation rose 1,368,000,000 francs to 84,759,000,000 francs. Part of this expansion represented increased accommodations made necessary by the proximity of the month-end, but it was also believed that some of the rise reflected hoarding.

Rediscounts continued to mount, the bank taking on an additional 1,452,000,000 francs of commercial bills, sending the aggregate to a new peak of 10,288,000,000 francs.

The Bank of England statement showed that circulation rose £7,390,000 during the week ended yesterday to a new peak of £433,452,000, reflecting the flight of European capital into sterling. The attractiveness of British notes to frightened Europeans has caused the Bank of England to increase its gold stock for the purpose of counteracting the effects of increased circulation on reserves. An addition of £906,000 boosted the gold total to a new peak of £208,170,000.

Reports from London said that an effort was being made to check the exchange of French currency for other moneys.

Prince Attacks Jones Plan to Split M. & St. L.

BY HOWARD WOOD.

Frederick H. Prince, multimillionaire Boston financier, whose offer to put a million dollars new cash into a reorganization of the Minneapolis and St. Louis railway was spurned by Chairman Jesse H. Jones of the Reconstruction Finance corporation, attacked Jones' plan of dismembering the railroad and pointed out what he termed an unfair "insinuation" in Jones' remarks.

This latest episode in the fight between financial interests for the properties of 78 million dollar M. & St. L. was disclosed in a letter from Prince to Jones, released here yesterday by Prince's attorney, Weymouth Kirkland of the firm of Kirkland, Fleming, Green, Martin & Ellis.

Raps Administration Policy.

In this letter Prince criticized the present administration's policies in regard to reorganization of distressed railroad properties and argued that the so-called "Prince plan," which he had fostered for several years, would have avoided present "demoralization" of the nation's railroad finances.

Disposition of the M. & St. L. properties has been in dispute since last year when a group of roads operating in the northwest collaborated with RFC in a plan to dismember the line and split its trackage and other properties between these roads. Originally interested in the plan were the Illinois Central, Burlington, Milwaukee, Rock Island, North Western, and Great Western railroads. They formed a company known as Associated Railways company, which was to engineer the deal with the aid of a $7,200,000 dollar loan from the RFC. The Great Western later withdrew.

Prince Opposes Splitup.

Prince and his associate, Philip J. Roosevelt, New York investment banker, representing a bondholders' committee, opposed dismemberment and offered an alternative plan under which the M. & St. L. would be kept intact and reorganized. The whole matter recently threatened to become a political issue when Senators Benson and Shipstead, Minnesota Farmer-Laborites, proposed a senate investigation and clashed with Senator Dieterich [Dem., Ill.], who termed the procedure "unusual."

"I wish to call your attention to a misunderstanding of the conditions under which I offered personally to loan $1,000,000 to the Minneapolis and St. Louis railroad if the I. C. C. decided it was in the public interest to keep it an independent property," Prince said in his letter to Jones yesterday after the latter had charged that Prince's proposal would make the railroad a "pawn" of financial interests.

"I dislike very much the insinuation that you make that this is a scheme by which a party putting up $1,000,000 would be able to use the road for personal benefit.

Offers Cash for Notes.

"The $1,000,000 I propose to put up at 4½ per cent would be the working capital necessary for the road and for which I would simply receive the notes of the road, while your RFC would hold the only first mortgage.

"It is true, as far as the income is concerned that the $45,000 interest I would receive would be a prior claim to your $200,000. If the road were a success, the junior securities would have the right at the end of five years to pay off my $1,000,000 and obtain the entire management of their property. If the road were not a success, my $1,000,000 would be represented by the advances I had made for the operation of the property and you would foreclose your mortgage. My $1,000,000 would simply become an obligation against the property—second to your mortgage.

"Under the plan every security holder would have the same right as I have of subscribing to the capital of the operating company, and on

INVESTORS WILL GET MORE THIS MONTH AS DIVIDENDS INCREASE

American investors will receive $536,101,000 in interest and dividend payments this month, compared with $504,575,000 in June, 1935, according to a compilation released yesterday by the New York Journal of Commerce.

The entire gain will be occasioned by larger dividends of industrial corporations, as dividends of railroads, utilities and financial concerns will be less than a year ago. Interest disbursements have been cut to $294,200,000, compared with $351,000,000 last June because of the refunding of numerous obligations at lower rates. Interest payments of the federal government will be down to $115,500,000, compared with $146,000,000 a year ago.

ALLIS-CHALMERS VOTES DIVIDEND; FIRST IN 4 YEARS

After a lapse of four years the Allis-Chalmers Manufacturing company yesterday joined the list of dividend payers. Directors of the company voted a quarterly dividend of 25 cents on the common shares, payable June 30 to stockholders of record June 15. This places the issue on a $1 annual basis. The previous payment was 12½ cents on May 16, 1932.

An initial quarterly dividend of 20 cents and an extra of 10 cents were declared on the new common stock of Reid Roller Bit company. The dividends are payable June 20 to stock of record June 19. The stock was recently split three for one. The old stock received quarterly dividends of 25 cents plus extras.

Beatrice Creamery company declared a quarterly dividend of 25 cents a share and the regular quarterly dividend of $1.75 on the preferred payable July 1 to stock of record June 15. The company's common stock has not been on a dividend basis since July 1, 1932, except for one 50 cent payment made April 1, 1935.

BANK CLEARINGS RISE 17.3 PER CENT ABOVE YEAR AGO

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Bank clearings for the holiday week ended Wednesday rose again after dropping to a low mark for fifteen weeks, Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reported today. The total for twenty-two leading cities was $5,541,939,000, or 17.3 per cent above the like week of a year ago.

Bank clearings in New York City, $3,704,025,000, were 17.8 per cent above 1935, while outside of New York the aggregate was $1,837,914,000, or 16.3 per cent over 1935.

Chicago clearings were $288,900,000 against $231,300,000 a year ago.

Railroad Restrained from Charging Over 2 Cents Mile

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Supreme Court Justice George H. Furman in Brooklyn today granted a temporary injunction to restrain the Long Island railroad from charging more than 2 cents a mile for transportation. The railroad has been charging 3 cents a mile for trips within the state, despite the interstate commerce commission order which put a 2-cent-a-mile rate into effect for general trafic last Monday.

Potato, Butter and Egg Prices Continue Rise

Advances in potato, butter, and egg prices featured trading in the Chicago commodity markets yesterday. Butter and egg future contracts climbed to new high prices for the season on the Chicago Mercantile exchange in active trading. The November butter contract sold at the highest price since 1930.

New and old potatoes were quoted at the highest prices in several years by Chicago commission merchants. Some grades sold as high as $4.65 a hundred pounds in the wholesale market. Idaho russets closed at $4.25 a hundredweight. Wisconsin and Michigan round white potatoes closed at $2.60. Alabama potatoes were quoted from $4.45 to $4.65.

Drouth, Frost Hurt Potatoes.

Drouth and frosts over sections of the potato producing regions were factors in the market upturn. Frosts have been experienced in some of the northern producing states, while drouth conditions are retarding the crop in Alabama, Georgia, and the Carolinas. The crop in North and South Dakota, Minnesota, and Wisconsin is badly in need of rain.

Drouth conditions in the northwestern states also provided the stimulus for the butter market. The lack of moisture and the injury to the feed crops are expected to reduce production. Government purchases in both the butter and egg markets also helped to boost prices.

Butter and Egg Price Range.

Prices of Alloy Steel for Tool Making Raised

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Prices of alloy steel for tool making have been advanced from 5 to 6 per cent by leading producers, effective on third quarter business, it was announced today. The revisions were said to be based on increased taxes and wages.

Another 4 to 5 Pct. Tire Price Increase Predicted

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Tire prices will be increased another 4 to 5 per cent within the next thirty days, it was predicted today in trade circles.

NEW UNION BUS TERMINAL TO BE BUILT IN LOOP

Many Lines to Use Station.

BY AL CHASE.

Leases were signed yesterday which will give Chicago its first modern loop union bus terminal, a $150,000 structure on Randolph street, opposite Marshall Field & Co. This was disclosed when the Burlington Transportation company, a subsidiary of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad, and the Santa Fe Trails of Illinois, Inc., an affiliate of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad, leased the property at 12-20 East Randolph street.

According to Louis Manierre of Dibblee & Manierre, who represented William H. Colvin and Bessie C. Colvin, owners of the property, the total rental to be paid by the two bus lines will be $425,000 for an undisclosed term of years. They take possession of the property on July 1.

Wrecking to Start Aug. 1.

Wreckers on Aug. 1 will start tearing down the old six story structure, erected shortly after the great Chicago fire. On the eastern part of the lot, with 45.4 feet of frontage on Randolph street, a two story bus terminal will be erected from plans by Graham, Anderson, Probst & White. The west part of the lot, 23x169, will be used for loading and unloading buses.

In addition to the Burlington and Santa Fe buses, which now have their terminal at 35 West Van Buren street, twelve other bus lines are expected to move from that location to the new union station. These include the Greyhound, Great Eastern, Indian Trail, Interstate Transit, De Luxe, Reindeer, Blue Bird, Southern Limited, and others.

At present 165 buses enter and leave the Van Buren street terminal every 24 hours, carrying approximately 3,000 passengers daily, or more than one million riders annually. It is believed that with the more central location this total will be larger and the number of buses also increased.

Will Be Air Conditioned.

The first floor of the new terminal will contain an air conditioned waiting room, cove lighted, with a lunchroom adjoining and a barber shop and restrooms on a mezzanine floor. The second floor will be used as general offices for the Burlington and Santa Fe bus lines. Completion is scheduled for late in the fall.

The property was purchased by the Colvins in January, 1935, from the estate of Martin A. Ryerson, for a reported $350,000 all cash consideration, through Dibblee & Manierre. Colvin, a retired capitalist, was at one time head of the La Salle street brokerage house of William H. Colvin & Co.

Union Bus Terminal for Loop

This $150,000 bus terminal is to be erected at 14-20 East Randolph street, across from Marshall Field & Co., by the Burlington Transportation company and the Santa Fe Trails. It probably will care for 14 bus lines.

RFC LOAN TOTAL NEAR 9 BILLIONS; $130,306,184 IN MAY

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.]—Disbursements by the Reconstruction Finance corporation in May aggregated $130,306,184, bringing the grand total since its establishment on Feb. 2, 1932, to $8,772,463,161, the RFC reported today. The principal outlay in May was $97,000,000 used for the purchase of stock of the Commodity Credit corporation, the other disbursements being spread in relatively small amounts over a variety of activities.

The banks in May received $3,137,178, all of this going to closed institutions to accelerate the repayment of depositors, and repaid $11,731,002 on earlier loans.

Fight Putting Traction Line in Bankruptcy

An answer was filed in the United States District court yesterday on behalf of Albert W. Harris, chairman of the first mortgage bondholders' committee of the Chicago Railways company, to the petition of stockholders asking permission to file a petition to reorganize the company under section 77 B of the amended bankruptcy act. Harris also is chairman of the board of the Harris Trust and Savings bank.

The answer, filed by the law firm of Tenney, Harding, Sherman and Rogers, set forth that the plan of reorganization of the Chicago Surface Lines, in which the Chicago Railways company controls the north and west side car lines, has been operative since it was filed on Oct. 31, 1935, and has been approved by two-thirds of all classes of creditors.

Court Refuses Earlier Petition.

Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson last Thursday refused to grant a motion to the Chicago Title and Trust company, trustee for the common stock of the Chicago Railways company, to take the case of the Chicago Surface Lines out of equity and place it in bankruptcy. However, he set June 9 for a hearing on such a motion.

The answer filed on behalf of Harris stated further that there had been no objections to the reorganization plan, which was set up by the Abbott committee. It set forth that under this plan the property of the Chicago Surface Lines was bid in at a special master's sale on May 29 and that on June 19 the master will present his report on the sale to the court, when any objections to it may be heard.

Seek to Consummate Plan.

Harris' answer also says that the 77 B statute has been in force for two years and there has been no previous application to file a petition directed at the Surface Lines under section 77 B. It asks permission to file further objections in the event that a section 77 B petition is filed and it asks that the committee be permitted to go ahead with the consummation of the present plan of reorganization.

Harris was joined in his answer by the Harris Trust and Savings bank and the Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company, as trustees under the first mortgage bond issue.

The Chicago Title and Trust company in its motion filed last week asked for a modification of the injunction issued Feb. 2, 1927, which restrained the filing of a bankruptcy petition against the Surface Lines.

HIGH SCHOOL TO GIVE COURSE IN INSURANCE, TAXES, INVESTMENTS

Rockford, Ill., June 4.—[Special.]—Problems of instalment buying, insurance, taxation, investments, and other every day matters affecting family financing will be taught in a new mathematics course to be offered by Rockford High school next fall.

All types of insurance, the basis upon which policies are written and premiums figured, will be studied. Taxation of all types will be considered with attention given especially to computing tax rates and tax bills. Instalments buying will be studied as it applies to homes, furniture, automobiles, radios, and refrigerators.

"We will not presume to advise students how to invest, but through a study of investments and the rise and fall of markets they should be enabled to interpret investment opportunities for themselves more satisfactorily," James E. Blue, principal of the school, said today. "The entire mathematics course is being designed to cover the types of mathematical problems which students will meet in adult life."

HEAVY BUILDING AWARDS RUN FAR ABOVE YEAR AGO

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Engineering construction awards for the week ended June 2 totaled $43,305,000, against $19,672,000 for the like 1935 period, Engineering News-Record reported today.

Private work amounted to $15,619,0000, against $8,586,000 last year; federal, $2,903,000, against $3,003,000; state and municipal, $24,783,000, against $8,083,000.

The larger projects for the week included a mill for West Virginia Pulp and Paper company at Charleston, S. C., costing $5,000,000, and a pipe line for Texas Empire Pipe Line company to cost $2,500,000.

M'Kinsey Named Chairman of Management Association

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—James O. McKinsey, chairman of Marshall Field and comany, was elected chairman of the board of directors of the American Management association at the annual meeting today. Alvin E. Dodd, executive vice president for the last two years, was elected president.

STOCK DIVIDEND BY CONTINENTAL BANK IS LIKELY

Result of Reducing Holdings of RFC.

Prospects for a 20 per cent stock dividend to holders of Continental Illinois National Bank and Trust company common stock after Aug. 1 were seen yesterday in apparently well authenticated reports that directors of the bank at their next meeting on June 12 will consider such action, together with retirement of 5 million dollars of the 50 millions of preferred stock held by the Reconstruction Finance corporation.

According to the terms of the bank's agreement with the RFC it would need to retire only $2,875,000 of the preferred on Aug. 1 in conformity with the program of retirement of the 50 millions over a period of twenty years. Favorable earnings during the first five months of 1936, however, are said to have encouraged the directors to retire a larger slice of the preferred.

Retire Stock from Earnings.

Walter J. Cummings, chairman of the bank, last night declined to comment on these reports, other than to say that whatever retirements the bank would make would be out of earnings and that there would be no new financing. Earnings so far this year, he said, have been "entirely satisfactory."

The Continental's position has been improved by increased earnings during the last year, as well as by recoveries on assets previously charged off.

Because it is the policy of the bank to keep its total capital unchanged at $75,000,000, each retirement of the preferred stock will be accompanied by an equivalent enlargement of the amount of common stock outstanding, the common share holders being given common stock dividends.

How Dividend Is Figured.

The retirement of 5 millions of preferred on Aug. 1, therefore, would mean a 5 million dollar increase in the common stock, or a 20 per cent stock dividend on the 25 millions of common at present outstanding.

According to the original agreement with the RFC in 1934 the Continental, beginning this year, would retire $2,500,000 of the preferred each year for 20 years. Under the terms of a subsequent agreement by which the RFC reduced the dividend rate on the preferred from 4 to 3½ per cent, however, it was stipulated that the amount of the saving in annual preferred dividends should be applied to the retirement of additional preferred stock for the period of four years during which the reduced preferred dividend rate is in effect.

Speed Up Stock Retirement.

That agreement raised the amount of required preferred stock retirement from $2,500,000 to $2,875,000 in 1936, and $2,750,000 for 1937, 1938, and 1939. After 1939 the preferred dividend rate is scheduled to be put back to 4 per cent, thus eliminating retirements in excess of $2,500,000 annually.

In addition to earning its $2 annual dividend, which was inaugurated last February, the bank is understood to be earning a substantial amount. Instead of paying out these additional earnings in cash dividends, it is understood that the policy of the bank will be to apply surplus earnings to preferred stock retirement in advance of the required schedule, giving the common stock holders their additional return in the form of stock dividends.

STOCKS RECEDE ON GOLD, LABOR CRISES ABROAD

All Groups Are Lower in Quiet Trading.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, June 4.—Foreign news, especially that portraying an acute crisis in the gold bloc and the widespread strikes in France and Spain, had a depressing effect today on speculative sentiment in the stock market. Offerings, while generally light, were persistent, and the close found prices shaved anywhere from 1 to 3 points below yesterday's final figures.

Business volume, while a little heavier than that of the preceding session, was still not much in excess of 750,000 shares.

Little interest was evinced in such constructive trade news as came to hand or in the general background of good business statistics which have been accumulating over the last several weeks.

Groups Move in Unison.

Group movements on the stock exchange offered little of distinction or variety. Railroad, building, aviation, oil, farm implement, and store shares drifted aimlessly but steadily from one fractionally lower level to another.

New lows for the year were registered by a number of individual issues, among them being the Schulte Retail Store shares, which came in for fresh selling on the company's bankruptcy application. Certain-teed Products made a new low in the early trading, but rallied. Wheeling and Lake Erie, which gained 9 points last week, dropped 10 points on one sale.

Reynolds Spring brought its decline since the stock dividend announcement to 3 points. Allis Chalmers sold off 1¼ points despite its dividend resumption, the first payment since May, 1932.

Amusement Issues Firm.

Amusement issues on the whole put up a little better front than some other departments, an exception being Radio, which sold off rather easily.

In the motor section Chrysler dropped nearly 2 points and General Motors lost about half as much. Lesser lights drifted downward with the leaders. Auburn finished a point lower.

Bright spots of the market included Air Reduction, which has a dividend meeting set for next week; Ingersoll-Rand, which moved up a couple of points; Texas and Pacific Coal, which rose a point or so, and a few preferred issues, including those of National Dairy Products and National Power. 2 points. Du Pont was weak in the chemical group. Building shares generally showed little resistance to such selling as came their way.

WHEAT CLIMBS; FEAR SHORTAGE IN SPRING CROP

Situation in Northwest Is Called Critical.

The prospect that a radical reduction would have to be made in estimates on the North American spring wheat crop unless rains were received almost immediately has started to affect the world markets.

Prices soared about 2 cents per bushel in Chicago, Minneapolis, and Winnipeg yesterday, while Liverpool was up ¾ to 1¼ cents and Rotterdam 1⅜ cents in response to the pessimistic picture painted by crop experts. Although profit taking shaded the best figures, net gains averaged about 1½ cents in American and Canadian markets.

About 40 per cent of the total United States spring wheat belt is in the drouth area in the northwest. The crop has started to deteriorate, according to a report by R. O. Cromwell, the Lamson Bros. & Co. expert, and there is a critical need of rain within the next two weeks.

Tells of Serious Situation.

The Van Dusen-Harrington company of Minneapolis, which is regarded by the trade as extremely conservative, in its weekly summary of conditions in the northwest said in the central and western part of the spring wheat area heat and high winds had brought a serious situation in many localities and considerable permanent damage. If the present rather poor prospect for a crop in the western area is to improve, almost ideal weather conditions are necessary until maturity.

In commenting on the spring wheat situation B. W. Snow of Bartlett-Frazier company called attention to the extensive research work conducted by the department of agriculture, which disclosed that June temperatures ranked first as the major crop factor in the northwest, followed by precipitation during April and May, and July temperatures in the order named.

Crop Gets Poor Start.

As rainfall in April and May was materially below normal, taken in connection with late seeding, inferior quality of seed, entire lack of subsoil moisture and lack of animal power on the farm, it is apparent that the spring wheat start this year is exceedingly bad, Snow said.

Rainfall at Bismarck, N. D., from April 1 to June 2, as officially reported, has aggregated only .44 inches this year, compared with a normal of 4.06 inches. Huron, S. D., has had 2.66 inches in a little over two months, while normal precipitation for the same period is 5.40 inches.

In the Canadian northwest, where soil and moisture conditions are somewhat similar to those in the Dakotas, the crop, according to a report by Sanford Evans, a Winnipeg authority, is losing ground quite rapidly as the result of the lack of general rainfall.

Canadian Rainfall Below Normal.

Since April 1 average precipitation per station in Manitoba has been 40 per cent of normal; Saskatchewan 28 per cent below normal, and Alberta 16 per cent below normal.

Closing trades on the July delivery of leading grains, with comparisons, follow:

| | Yesterday. | Wednes. | Wk.ago. | Mo.ago. |
|---|---|---|---|---|
| Wheat | $ .85⅝ | $ .84⅝ | $ .84¼ | $ .87½ |
| Corn | .61⅜ | .60⅛ | .59⅞ | .62 |
| Oats | .25¼ | .25⅛ | .24⅝ | .26¾ |
| Rye | .54⅝ | .54 | .53½ | .52½ |

Corn and other grains made fair gains as the result of some enlargement in general interest in the markets. July corn closed 1¼ cents higher, being affected by a continued good demand for the cash article.

A membership on the Board of Trade sold yesterday for $4,300, an advance of $200 over the previous sale price.

U. S. INCREASES DUTIES IN BLOW AT GERMAN PLAN

Act to Counteract Hitler Export Bounty.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., June 4.—German manipulation of bounties to exporters of goods to the United States was met today with severe countervailing duties upon ten important articles. The imposts will be levied in addition to the prevailing ad valorem and specific duties on imports of German goods into this country.

The treasury action was taken under the tarif act of 1930, which provides that when a foreign country pays bounty either directly or indirectly to its own producers the commissioner of customs is required to offset the subsidy by countervailing duties.

The devices by which Germany has subsidized her exporters, it was learned, are payments of direct cash bounties by German industrial associations, scrip and bond procedures, and currency manipulation.

Effect of German Scheme.

The effect of the German scheme was to permit her manufacturers and other producers to undercut American industry, and also to compel American producers who sell goods in Germany to take materials which they could buy more cheaply on the open market.

The countervailing duties [per cent of invoice value] imposed by the treasury today were:

Cameras, 45 per cent; china tableware, 22½; cotton and rayon gloves, 39; lether gloves, 47; surgical instruments, 56; calf and kid lether, 25; glass tree ornaments, 52; metal covered paper, 48; thumb tacks, 31; toys, dolls, and toy figures, 45.

This was by far the most drastic action taken by the United States against any foreign country under the countervailing duty section of the tarif act. Countervailing duties were placed during the last year on Danish butter, Polish rye, and Irish hams and bacon. The Irish withdrew their bounties and today the treasury eliminated the impost.

How Scrip Plan Works.

One of the prevailing practices in Germany that led to retaliation by the United States was the use of scrip in export transactions. Under special permits issued by German exchange control authorities, German exporters who would otherwise be unable to sell their goods in the United States except at a loss have been allowed to use part of the proceeds from a particular export transaction to purchase scrip from the gold discount bank at a discount usually ranging up to slightly less than 50 per cent.

The scrip would then be presented to a conversion bank, "Konversichskasse," where it would be redeemed at full face value.

In the bond procedure a German manufacturer would be granted special permission to buy with his export proceeds German dollar bonds in the United States at the prevailing market price, which is at a substantial discount. The bonds would then be redeemed through a German bank or other agency at their face value.

BOYLAN TO QUIT GRAIN MART, JOIN CLEMENT, CURTIS

Robert P. Boylan, president of the Chicago Board of Trade, will quit the grain business about Sept. 1 to become the New York Stock exchange representative of the brokerage house of Clement, Curtis & Co., Allan M. Clement, partner of the firm, announced yesterday. Boylan will become a partner of the firm, Clement said.

Boylan is serving his second term as head of the grain exchange of which he has been a member since 1915. His present term expires Jan. 1, 1937. Directors are expected to pick a successor for the remainder of his term if he leaves the exchange before the end of the year. He is expected to retain his membership.

Boylan's decision to quit the grain exchange follows closely the passage of the commodity exchange bill calling for tighter federal regulation of the Board of Trade and other markets. The volume of trading on the grain exchange has been abnormally small in recent years and this condition has been attributed by members to the government regulation of the market already in effect. The new legislation, it is asserted, will further aggravate the situation.

TREASURY HEAD REPORTS LARGE NOTE EXCHANGE

Washington, D. C., June 4.—[Special.] — Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau Jr. said today that the conversion of treasury notes maturing June 15 and Aug. 1 in the amount of $1,050,754,500 had totaled more than 90 per cent. The holders were offered either bonds or notes of the new floation in exchange. Of the $960,000,000 in exchanges, according to Morgenthau, the maturing notes were converted into $890,000,000 of the new bonds and $70,000,000 of the notes.

On the cash offering of $600,000,000 in bonds, the over-subscription was in excess of $4,000,000,000, while for the $400,000,000 note subscription, the oversubscription was more than $2,500,000,000. The billion dollars of new money is expected to finance all costs of paying the bonus and New Deal expenditures up to Sept. 15.

Chevrolet May Production Doubles That of Year Ago

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—The Chevrolet Motor company produced 136,319 cars and trucks in May, against 68,693 units in May, 1935, the company announced today. For the first five months of this year production totaled 608,508 units, against 429,254 units in the corresponding period of last year.

MAHARAJA OF NEPAL, 10,000 MILES AWAY, BUYS FURNITURE HERE

What is said to be a long distance record for interior decorating has just been established by Montgomery Ward & Co., which announced yesterday that decorating materials and furniture sent 10,000 miles to embellish the palace of the maharaja of Nepal at Katmandu, capital of his Himalayan mountain kingdom, have arrived safely.

THE MAHARAJA OF NEPAL.

The maharaja, Sir Joodha Shum Shere Jung Bahadur Rana, some time ago sent in an order with complete plans and specifications, together with blue prints, for furnishings for several rooms in his palace, which is high in the mountains. The order said that he wished "all these rooms to be furnished according to the latest American fashion and equipped with modern electric fittings."

Ward decorators then made sketches of ensemble arrangements which were submitted with complete descriptions of furniture and samples of carpets, draperies and other accessories. Thereupon the maharaja ordered four American rooms.

The materials and furniture were shipped by train to New York, by steamer to Calcutta, from which point they were transported by train, then by truck, and finally via. the longest ropeway in the world, traversing mountains and canyons in the Himalayas which travelers are able to cross only on foot or muleback.

The maharaja is interested in western civilization, giving one evidence of it by permitting British aviators to fly across Mount Everest in spite of the superstitions of the people, who believe that this would make the gods angry. Another manifestation of his regard for western civilization was his installation of American candy and gum vending machines along the walls of his palace.

PRINCE ASSAILS JONES PROPOSAL TO SPLIT M. & ST. L.

Claims Administration Policy Wrecks Roads.

the same basis. The security which you would receive would certainly be better than the $7,200,000 that you have undertaken to loan to the different railroads that they may use to cut up the Minneapolis and St. Louis. Three of the roads are in the hands of the court in bankruptcy and the only ones which are not in financial difficulties are the Burlington, Great Northern, and Illinois Central.

"There can be no question as to your security being sounder based on my offer than it is on your offering the different roads $7,200,000. The only ground you could base your loan on is your endeavor to protect the millions that you have already advanced to the bankrupt roads to assist them by giving them the advantages that may be had in cutting up this property."

Prince said that his interest in the matter was broader than the M. & St. L. issue and that he was seeking adoption of a scheme that might be used as a pattern for the reorganization of other railroads. Several years ago Prince and his associates developed the "Prince plan," under which railroads of the nation would be consolidated into seven great systems. In addition to his rail interests Prince is chief owner of the Chicago Union stock yards and chairman of the board of Armour & Co.

I. C. C. RULE ENDS IN RAIL SWITCHING COMPANY PROFIT

Orders were issued by the interstate commerce commission yesterday directing that the railroads cease making allowances to American Steel Foundries for performing switching services at its Indiana Harbor plant and to the Chicago By-Products Coke company for similar operations at its Chicago plant.

The ICC ruled that the railroads were not obligated to perform switching service within plants and consequently any allowances to corporations performing it were not justified. The industrial companies on the other hand maintained that they were entitled to such allowances. They said that the railroad rate structure had been built to include such allowances; that such a practice had been in force ever since the railroads existed.

The corporations also said that railroads completed delivery to companies which did not have private switching facilities and they believed that when they saved the railroads the cost of switching in their own plants they were entitled to compensation.

Packard Car Deliveries Set New High Mark in May

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Packard Motor Car company delivered more than 7,200 cars in May, an all time monthly peak, according to M. M. Gilman, vice president. This compared with the previous high mark of 7,190 cars delivered in August, 1929.

Bell System's Stations Rise 78,200 During May

New York, June 4.—(AP)—Telephones in service in the Bell system increased 78,200 in May, the American Telephone and Telegraph company announced today. The gain in May, 1935, was 47,600.

TIRE INDUSTRY DRAWS UP RULES TO END ABUSES

Adopts Fair Practice Code at Meeting Here.

Rules for elimination of trade abuses in the rubber tire industry were adopted yesterday by a trade practice conference at the Stevens hotel, attended by representatives of the rubber tire and allied industries and presided over by Robert E. Freer, a member of the federal trade commission.

The conference branded unfair such practices as selling below cost, false advertising, secret rebates, price discrimination, misrepresentation, incomplete tire branding, and price guarantees for more than thirty days.

Rules Submitted to U. S. Bureau.

Rules adopted yesterday were submitted to the federal trade commission for approval, and if approved by the commission will be sent to each member of the industry. Acceptance by a majority will make the rules binding for the industry as a whole.

The conference adopted fourteen rules, which, if violated, would constitute a violation of law and another rule as part of a code of ethics, which was voluntarily presented and is not subject to prosecution if broken. This latter rule condemns the failure to differentiate between wholesale and retail transactions where the same establishment is engaged in both.

Rules that would become law, if adopted, hold the following practices constitute unfair competition:

Unfair Competition Defined.

1. Price discrimination between different purchasers, including tire manufacturers' stores, where such discrimination lessens competition or tends to create a monopoly.

2. Defamation of competitors by making false representations concerning them; selling goods below the seller's cost; false representations on any product of the industry or life or service of tires or tubes; false or deceptive marking or branding; claiming to be "an authorized dealer" when such is not the case.

3. The policy of representing "all standard makes" handled when such is not the fact; offering used tires for sale as new and unused; secret rebates; making out invoice or sales tickets which do not accurately state the transaction; insufficient marking or branding of tires, and guaranteeing prices for more than thirty days.

LARD TYPE HOGS HAVE SHARPEST BREAK OF YEAR

The sharpest break of the year hit the market for "lard hogs" yesterday, the heaviest of the packing sows declining to the lowest levels in five months. The latter comprised a slightly larger share of total receipts and fell mostly 25 cents, showing 35 to 50 cents loss in two days.

The spring movement of sows to market is getting into full swing later than usual but shipments from the country in the last few days indicate that sows, as well as butcher hogs, are being made fatter than usual because of the favorable ratio between corn and hog prices this year. Some farmers estimate swine pay 75 cents to $1 per bushel for corn at current prices. The top for selected young hogs was 5 to 10 cents under the preceding session.

Both the quality and the size of cattle receipts dropped sharply yesterday. Common to fair quality steers, cows, lower priced hefers, canners, and cutters were in good demand at steady to strong prices. Most other steers held about steady, but weakness was evident in mediumweight stock.

Jewel Tea Company Shows Gain in Sales Over 1935

The Jewel Tea company yesterday reported that its sales for the four weeks ended May 16 were $1,499,771, compared with $1,422,600 in the corresponding period in 1935. This is an increase of 5.42 per cent.

SUGAR

NEW YORK, June 4.—(AP)—SUGAR—Raw was quiet today. No sales were reported and spot prices remained unchanged at 3.72c per lb. Offerings were held at 3.75c Futures opened at an advance of 1 point, but eased later under liquidation promoted by the inactivity in the spot market and nervousness over developments at Washington in connection with sugar legislation. Final prices were at the lowest and 1 to 3 points net lower.

Raw sugar prices in cents per pound:

| | Open. | High. | Low. | Close. | Prev. close. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| July | 2.85 | 2.85 | 2.82 | 2.82 | 2.82 |
| Sept | 2.82 | 2.82 | 2.79 | 2.79 | 2.82 |

| May | 2.56 | 2.56 | 2.56 | 2.56 | 2.57 |

Refined was unchanged at 5.00c per lb, but withdrawals were more active, induced, no doubt, by fears of an imposition of a processing tax on sugar.

COTTONSEED OIL.

NEW YORK, June 4.—(AP)—Bleachable cottonseed oil was firm and active today on increased covering and commission house buying promoted by the strength of lard. Final prices were 10 to 16 points net higher. Sales were 215 contracts. Bleachable spot, nominal; July closed at 9.12c per lb; September, 9.11c; October, 9.05c; December, 8.90c; January, 8.88c.

END OF HOG TAX BOOSTS RETURNS TO PRODUCERS

May Supply Gains 10 Pct. in Market Value.

The strong market position held by hog raisers since the Supreme court abolished the AAA's scarcity program and processing taxes, early in January, was further improved by developments in wholesale meat channels during the last month. Since the tax was taken off hog prices, packers have been passing a much greater part of the consumers' meat dollar back to the hog raisers, with a smaller proportion going to cattle and sheep men.

May receipts of hogs at the Chicago stockyards showed an increase of 4.4 per cent over the same month last year, with the market value up 10 per cent. Cattle and calf receipts totaled 1.7 per cent less than a year ago and the value money 7.4 per cent less. Sheep men were paid 26.6 per cent less money for 44.2 per cent fewer animals.

Payments by Classes.

Hog raisers received a total of $6,752,000 for the month's receipts, compared with $6,137,000 a year ago and $4,555,000 two years ago. Cattle men got $11,249,000 against $12,161,000 in May last year and $9,609,000 two years ago. Sheep and lambs returned $1,299,000 to farmers this May, compared with $1,772,000 in 1935 and $1,245,000 two years ago. Aggregate returns for all meat were $19,300,000 compared with $20,070,000 in May, 1935, and $15,409,000 in May, 1934.

In the first five months of 1936 Chicago live stock buyers paid out $103,914,000 for 3,547,775 cattle, calves, hogs, and sheep, compared with $104,952,000 for 4,139,634 meat animals a year ago. This was a decline of 14 per cent in volume, but less than 1 per cent loss in value.

Cattle Men Get 58.2 Per Cent.

Of the total live stock money paid out by Chicago buyers in May, hog raisers obtained 34.9 per cent and cattle men 58.2 per cent. A year ago cattle men got 60.5 per cent and hog producers 30.5 per cent.

WOMEN LEADERS IN FINANCE HEAR NEW DEAL EVILS

New Deal economic policy was subjected to critical arraignment yesterday by the principal speakers at the women's finance congress at the Palmer house. The meeting concluded the two days' conference, which was sponsored by Women Investors in America.

Dr. Walter H. Spahr, professor of economics of New York university; Sterling Morton, Chicago capitalist, and Mrs. Julia Dent Cantacuzene, granddaughter of President Grant, delivered vehement denunciation of the administration policies in addresses to the 250 women attending the congress.

Dr. Spahr asserted that the essential question before the country in the coming presidential campaign is whether the institution of private property shall be maintained.

"The government at Washington," he said, "is saturated with Socialists and communists. When the President took into the government a few men of this type, others of the same brand were drawn in like flies to a sugar bowl."

Mrs. Cantacuzene, who is national president of the Dames of the Loyal Legion, said the political trend in the country is following the pattern of events in Russia during and after the revolution of 1917.

Morton asserted the present era of extravagance in government threatens to bring about national bankruptcy.

THIRD ASSOCIATE OF KENNEDY TO QUIT SEC POST

New York, June 4.—[Special.]—Resignation of William L. Nolan, technical adviser of the Securities and Exchange commission since its organization in October, 1934, was announced today at the regional offices of the commission. Nolan expects to reënter the banking and brokerage business in Wall street after a brief vacation.

Nolan is the third of the associates of Joseph P. Kennedy, first chairman of the SEC, to leave the commission. The others are James A. Fayne and Thomas H. Gammick.

How You Can BORROW at

HOUSEHOLD

1. Whether or not you have furniture or a car you can borrow here if you can make regular monthly payments.
2. Payments are small. For example, the first payment on $100 is $8—the last payment is $5.15 on a twenty month schedule. Other amounts in proportion.
3. You do not need co-makers or endorsers.
4. You can secure the money quickly—the same day if you apply before 9 o'clock.
5. Rate on loans above $100 is less than the lawful maximum.
6. Repay at any time and reduce the cost.
7. Private offices. Your problem will have our sympathetic attention.

WHY WE DON'T WONDER

We don't wonder why our plan of lending to people who buy new or used cars—or who own one—has met with such a rousing success.

One reason why is that we charge the same rate on a loan secured by an automobile regardless of whether the automobile is brand new or a model of recent years.

Another reason why we don't wonder is because we do not make it a requirement that the borrower takes all kinds of insurance. We only ask that a car be covered by fire and theft. Of course, we advocate that a car owner or a car buyer have collision coverage for his own protection.

And, another reason—we almost insist that the car owner or the car buyer place his insurance with his own agent or broker. If he hasn't one we will refer him to a reputable one. W eask for no commission on the insurance premiums. We are not in the insurance business. We are in the banking business.

But there may be a further reason. In spite of our low rate and in spite of our policy with respect to insurance, a scoring reason may be that people very much prefer to borrow money at a bank where they are assured of banking treatment. This is a State Bank, a member of both the Federal Reserve System and of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

Here is a typical schedule of the rates and terms on amounts commonly asked for by those who wish to use a new or used car as collateral to loans:

| Amount You Want. | Total Yearly Charge. | Total Amount of Note. | 12 Monthly Deposits. |
|---|---|---|---|
| $ 100 | $12.08 | $ 112.08 | $ 9.34 |
| 200 | 19.00 | 219.00 | 18.25 |
| 300 | 23.04 | 323.04 | 26.92 |
| 400 | 29.00 | 429.00 | 35.75 |
| 500 | 35.08 | 535.08 | 44.59 |
| 600 | 41.04 | 641.04 | 53.42 |
| 1,000 | 65.00 | 1,065.00 | 88.75 |
